Selected Sayings and Sermons of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, Including His Replies to Questions as well as Maxims Made for Various Purposes

١ - قال (عليه السلام): كُنْ فِي الْفِتْنَةِ كَابْنِ اللَّبُونِ: لَا ظَهَرَ فَيُرَكَبُ، وَلَا ضَرْعٌ فَيُحَلَبُ.

1. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “During sedition (civil disturbance), be like an adolescent camel that has neither a back strong enough to ride nor udders to milk.”

“Labūn” [which exists in the original Arabic text] means a “milch camel” and “ibnul-labūn” means its two-year old young. In this age, the young is neither suitable for riding nor does it have udders which can be milked. It is called “ibnul-labūn” because during this two years period, its mother bears other young ones, and it begins yielding milk again.

The idea is that during a civil disturbance or trouble, a man should behave in such a manner that he may be regarded of no consequence and is thus ignored. No need should be felt for his participation in either contending party. This is so because during mischief making, only dissociation can save one from being targeted. Of course, when the clash is between right and wrong, it is not permissible to keep aloof, nor can it be called civil disturbance. But on such occasions, it is obligatory to rise up to support what is right and suppress what is wrong. For example, during the battles of Jamal and Siffin, it was obligatory to support what is right and to fight against wrongdoing.

2. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Whoever adopts greed as a habit demeans himself; whoever discloses his hardship agrees to be humiliated, and whoever allows his tongue to overpower his soul delittles the soul.”

3. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Miserliness is a shame; cowardice is a defect; poverty disables an intelligent man from arguing his case, and a destitute person is a stranger in his own home town.”

٤- وقال (عليه السلام): العجز آفة، والصبر شجاعة، والزهد ثروة، والورع جنة، ونعم القرين الرضى.

4. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Incapability is a catastrophe; endurance is bravery; abstinence is wealth; self-restraint is a shield (against sinning), and the best company is submission (to Allāh’s will).”

5. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Knowledge is a venerable inheritance; good manners are ever-new outfits, and an intellect is a clear mirror.”

وروي أنه قال في العبارة عن هذا المعنى أيضاً: المسألة خباء العيوب ومن رضي عن نفسه كثر السخط عليه.

6. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The wise man’s bosom is his secrets’ safe; cheerfulness is the bond of friendship, and forbearance is the graveyard of shortcomings.”

It is narrated that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following in order to explain the same thought: “A plea is the hiding place of shortcomings; whoever admires his own self increases the number of those who condemn him.”¹

٧- وقال (عليه السلام): الصدقة دواء منجّ، وأعمال العباد في عاجلهم نصب أعينهم في آجالهم.

7. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Charity is an effective cure; people’s actions in their present life will stand before their eyes in the next.”

This saying incorporates two phrases:

The first sentence relates to charity. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام describes it as an effective cure, medicine, balsam. This is so because when a man helps the poor and the destitute with his wealth by way of charity, they pray for his health from the depths of their hearts; therefore, their prayer is granted by the Almighty, so it brings him a cure from whatever ails him. In this regard, there is this saying of the Holy Prophet ﷺ: “Cure your sick with charity.”

The second sentence relates to the disclosure of actions on the Day of Judgment: Good and bad actions which a person performs in this world cannot be perceived by human senses because of the veil of material elements. But on the Day of Judgment, when the curtains will be lifted, they will appear before one’s eyes, in forms, in shapes, in sizes, etc., so much so that there will be no possibility of any denial. Allāh has said the following:

﴿يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا لِّيُرَوْا أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۖ فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ ۖ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ﴾

On that Day, people shall come out (of their graves) in (scattered) groups in order to be shown their own actions: Whoever has done an atom's weight of goodness shall see it, and whoever has done an atom's weight of evil shall see it (too) (Qur'ān, 99:6-8).

٨- وقال (عليه السلام): اعجبوا لهذا الإنسان ينظرُ بشحم ويتكلم بلحم ويسمعُ بعظم ويتنفسُ من خرم

8. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “I wonder about this human being: He speaks with (a piece of) fat, talks with a piece of flesh, hears with a bone and breathes through a hole!”

٩- وقال (عليه السلام): إذا أقبلت الدنيا على أحد أعارته محاسن غيره وإذا أدبرت عنه سلبت محاسن نفسه.

9. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “When this world advances towards anyone (with its riches), it attributes to him the good of others, and when it turns away from him, it deprives him of his own good.”¹

They are friends of him whom the world favors, and they are foes of him whom the world hits.

10. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Deal with people in such a manner that if you die, they weep over you, and if you live they long for (miss) you.”²

١١ - وقال (عليه السلام): إِذَا قَدَرْتَ عَلَى عَدُوِّكَ فَاجْعَلِ الْعَفْوَ عَنْهُ شُكْرًا لِلْقُدْرَةِ عَلَيْهِ.

11. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “When you gain the upper hand over your adversary, pardon him as your way of expressing thanks [to Allāh] for being able to overpower him.”³ ¹The meaning is that when a man’s fortune helps him and the world is favorable to him, people will describe his performances with exaggeration and give credit to him for others’ actions. But if a man loses the favor of the world and the clouds of ill-luck and misfortune engulf him, people ignore his virtues and do not at all tolerate even to recall his name.

²To the person who behaves with others with benignity and good manners, people extend their hand of cooperation. They honor and respect him and shed tears when he dies. Therefore, a person should lead such an agreeable life that no one should have any complaint against him, nor should he cause anyone harm so that during his life-time, he will attract others, and after his death, too, he will be well remembered.

12. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The most helpless of all men is one who cannot find a few brothers during his lifetime, but still more helpless is whoever finds such a brother but loses him.”¹ ١٣- وقال (عليه السلام): إذا وصلت إليكم أطراف النعم فلا تُنقروا أقصاها بقلة الشكر.

13. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “When you get (only) small blessings, do not push their greatest away by being ungrateful.”

will cool down. Thereafter, there will be no urge to take revenge under the effect of which one will use his strength and ability to satisfy his anger instead of using it properly.

¹It is not difficult to attract others with good manners and cheerfulness and to befriend them by sweet talk because no physical exertion or mental worry is required for this. Having made friends, it is still easier to maintain the friendship and good relationship. For making real friends, some effort is needed, while for maintaining friendship, no difficulty is unsurmountable. Therefore, no one can be more wretched than one who cannot even retain a thing which could be retained just by keeping away from frowning. The idea here is that a man should meet everyone with good manners and cheerfulness so that people may like to associate with him and extend a hand of friendship to him.

١٤ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ ضَيَعَهُ الْاقْرَبُ أُتِيحَ لَهُ الْبَاعِدُ.

14. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Whoever is abandoned by near ones is dear to distant ones.”

١٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَا كُلُّ مُقْتُونٍ يُعَاتَبُ.

15. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Not everyone who suffers from sedition is to be reproved.”¹

١٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): تَذِلُّ الْأُمُورُ لِلْمَقَادِيرِ حَتَّى يَكُونَ الْحُتْفُ فِي التَّدْبِيرِ.

16. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “All matters are subject to destiny, so much so that sometimes death results from effort.”

١٧ - وَسُئِلَ (عليه السلام) عَنْ قَوْلِ الرَّسُولِ (صلى الله عليه وآله): غَيِّرُوا الشَّيْبَ وَلَا تَشَبَّهُوا بِالْيَهُودِ، فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّمَا قَالَ (صلى الله عليه وآله) ذَلِكَ وَالَّذِينَ قُلُّ فَأَمَّا الْآنَ وَقَدْ اتَّسَعَ نِطَاقُهُ وَضُرِبَ بِجِرَانِهِ فَأَمُرُؤُا وَمَا اخْتَارَ.

17. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked once to explain this saying of the Messenger of Allāh: “Change your gray hair (with dye) and do not acquire resemblance to the Jews.” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام replied: “The Prophet ﷺ said this at a time when the religion was confined to only a few, but now since its expanse has widened and it is firmly settled, everyone is free to choose.”²

²The idea here is that since in the dawn of Islam the number of Muslims was limited, it was necessary to keep them distinct from the Jews in order to maintain their collective entity. The Prophet ﷺ, therefore, ordered the use of hair-dye which was not in use among the Jews. Besides, it was also ١٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): فِي الَّذِينَ اعْتَزَلُوا الْقِتَالَ مَعَهُ: خَذَلُوا الْحَقَّ وَلَمْ يُنْصُرُوا الْبَاطِلَ.

18. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following about those who avoided fighting on his side: “They abandoned righteousness but did not support wrong.”¹ ١٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ جَرَى فِي عِنَانِ أَمَلِهِ عَشْرَ بَاجِلِهِ.

19. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Whoever gallops with a loose rein stumbles on death.”

the aim that when facing the enemy, people should not look old and weak.

¹This saying is about those who claimed to be neutral, such as Abdullāh ibn 'Omar, Sa'd ibn Abū Waqqās, Abū Mūsa al-Ash'ari, al-Ahnaf ibn Qays, Muhammed ibn Maslamah, Usamah ibn Zaid and Anas ibn Mālik. Undoubtedly, these people did not openly support wrong but did not support right, either. Such a conduct is also a kind of support for wrong. Therefore, they will be counted among the opponents of what is right.

20. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Forgive the shortcomings of people of esteem because when they fall into error, Allāh lifts them.”

٢١- وقال (عليه السلام): قُرْنَتِ الْهَيْبَةُ بِالْخَيْبَةِ وَالْحَيَاءُ بِالْحِرْمَانِ وَالْفُرْصَةُ تَمُرُّ مَرَّ السَّحَابِ، فَانْتَهِزُوا فُرْصَ الْخَيْرِ.

21. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The consequence of fear is disappointment and of bashfulness is frustration. Opportunity passes away like a cloud; therefore, make use of good opportunities.”¹

٢٢- وقال (عليه السلام): لَنَا حَقٌّ فَإِنْ أُعْطِينَاهُ وَإِلَّا رَكِبْنَا أَعْجَازَ الْإِبِلِ وَإِنْ طَالَ السَّرَى.

قال الرضي: و هذا من لطيف الكلام و فصيح و معناه أنا إن لم نعط حقنا كنا أذلاء و ذلك أن الرديف يركب عجز البعير كالعبد و الأسير و من يجري مجراهما.

¹However bad a thing may be regarded among people, and however it may be looked down on, if it is not really bad, then to feel bashful about it is quite foolish because it will often cause deprivation from things which are the source of success and achievements in this as well as in the next world. For example, if a man fears lest people should regard him as being ignorant, he feels bashful in asking about an important and a necessary issue, then this misplaced bashfulness will result in his being deprived of knowledge. Hence, no sane person should feel bashful about making enquiries. Thus, an old man who was learning despite his old age was asked once whether he did not feel ashamed of learning in his old age. He replied in the following words: “I do not feel any shame for being ignorant in my old age. How can I feel shame for learning in old age? Of course, to feel shame in doing things which are really bad and mischievous is the essence of humanity and nobility. For instance, there are immoral deeds which are bad according to religion, intelligence and ethics. In any case, the first kind of bashfulness is bad and the second is good.” In this regard, the Holy Prophet’s saying is this: “Bashfulness is of two kinds: bashfulness of intelligence and bashfulness of foolishness. The bashfulness of intelligence is knowledge, whereas the bashfulness of foolishness is ignorance.”

22. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “We have a right. If it is granted to us, that is good; otherwise, we will ride on the hind of the camel even though the night journey may be long.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says the following: “This is a very fine and eloquent expression. It means that if we are not allowed to enjoy our right, we will be regarded as weak. This meaning comes out of this expression because on the rear part of the camel only servants, prisoners or other people of this type used to ride.”¹

٢٣- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ أَبْطَأَ بِهِ عَمَلُهُ لَمْ يُسْرَعْ بِهِ نَسَبُهُ.

23. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “If the actions of someone accord (him) a back status, he cannot be given a front status simply on account of his lineage.”

24. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “To render relief to the grief-stricken and to provide comfort in hardship is the atonement of great sins.”

٢٥- وقال (عليه السلام): يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ إِذَا رَأَيْتَ رَبَّكَ سُبْحَانَهُ يُتَابِعُ عَلَيْكَ نِعْمَةً وَأَنْتَ تَعْصِيهِ فَاحْذَرُهُ.

25. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “O son of Adam! When you see that your Lord, the Glorified One, bestows His favors ¹The interpretation written by Sayyid ar-Radi is that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام intends to say that if our right, it lies with others in our status, as with the Imām whom it is obligatory to obey, is acknowledged and we are given the chance of worldly rule, it is well and good; otherwise, we will have to bear all sorts of hardships and ignominies, and we shall be compelled to live the life of ignominy and humiliation for some time to come. Some commentators have adopted a different meaning than this, namely that: “If our status is belittled and put aside while others are awarded precedence over us, we shall bear it patiently and agree to remain behind, and this is what is meant by riding on the hind part of the camel because the person who rides on the hind part is on the rear while the person who sits on its back is in the fore.” Some people take it to mean: If we are allowed our right, we will accept it, but if it is not given to us, we shall not behave like the rider who gives over the rein of his animal to someone else who is free to take him wherever he likes, but we shall stick to our right even though a long time may elapse, rather than surrender to the usurpers.

on you while you are disobeying Him, you should fear Him.”¹

٢٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): ما أضمر أحد شيئاً إلا ظهر في فلتات لسانه وصفحات وجهه.

26. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Whenever a person conceals a thing in his heart, it manifests itself through his unintentional words and (in the form of) expressions on his face.”²

﴿وَإِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ لَنِ شَكَرْتُمْ لَأَزِيدَنَّكُمْ، وَلَنِ كَفَرْتُمْ إِنَّ عَذَابِي لَشَدِيدٌ﴾

“Your Lord declared: ‘If you are grateful, I will increase (My favors) on you, and if you are ungrateful, verily, My torment is indeed severe’” (Qur’ān, 14:7). Nevertheless, the continuous bestowal of favors, despite disobedience and ungratefulness, cannot be the result of Allāh’s pleasure, nor can it be said that in this way Allāh has put him under the misconception that he should regard this exuberance of favors as the result of Allāh’s pleasure because when he knows that he is a sinner and disobedient, fully recognizing his sins and vices, then there are no grounds for misconception on his part when assuming Allāh’s pleasure and consent. He should rather think that this is a sort of trial and a respite. When his sinfulness and high-handedness reaches its zenith, he will be caught at once. Therefore, in such a case, he should keep waiting as to when Allāh’s favors are taken away from him and he is punished with deprivation.

²The things which a man wants to conceal from others do, indeed, come out on his tongue one time or another, and his effort at concealment is unsuccessful. This is so because although the far-sighted mind desires to keep them concealed, sometimes it gets entangled in some more important matters and becomes careless on this score when the concealed thing comes out in articulated words. When the mind becomes attentive, it is not possible to undo the matter just as an arrow cannot be recalled after being shot. Even if this is not the case and the mind is fully cautious and attentive, the thing cannot remain concealed because the lines of the face are indicative of mental feelings and reflect the heart’s emotions;

٢٧- وقال (عليه السلام): امش بدائك ما مشى بك.

27. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Keep walking in your sickness as long as it carries you.”¹ consequently, redness of the face can easily point out to the sense of shame.

٢٨- وقال (عليه السلام): أفضل الزُّهْدِ إخفاءُ الزُّهْدِ.

28. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The best kind of asceticism is concealing it.”

٢٩- وقال (عليه السلام): إذا كُنْتُ في إندبار والموتُ في إقبال، فما أسرع الملتقى.

29. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “When you are running away from the world and death is approaching you, there is no question of delay in the encounter.

“Endurance, again, has four aspects: eagerness, apprehension, abstention (from the allurements of the world) and anticipation (of death). So, whoever is eager for Paradise will ignore his passions; whoever fears the Fire (of Hell) will refrain from committing prohibited actions; whoever abstains from the world takes hardships lightly, and whoever anticipates death will hasten towards good deeds.

psychological power, while the psychological power curbs small ailments by itself, provided it is not forced to give up resistance by surrendering the imagination to the ailment.

٣٠- وقال (عليه السلام): الحذر الحذر، فوالله لقد ستر حتى كأنه قد غفر.

30. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Beware! Beware! By Allāh, He has hidden your sins, so much so that it is as though He has forgiven them!”

Faith, Unbelief, Doubt and Their Pillars

٣١- وسئل (عليه السلام) عن الإيمان فقال: الإيمان على أربع دعائم: على الصبر واليقين والعدل والجهاد؛ والصبر منها على أربع شعب: على الشوق والشفق والزهد والترقب. فمن اشتاق إلى الجنة سلا عن الشهوات، ومن أشفق من النار اجتنب المحرمات، ومن زهد في الدنيا استهان بالمصيبات، ومن ارتقب الموت سارع إلى الخيرات واليقين منها على أربع شعب: على تبصرة الفطنة وتأول الحكمة وموعظة العبرة وسنة الأولين؛ فمن تبصر في الفطنة تبينت له الحكمة، ومن تبينت له الحكمة عرف العبرة، ومن عرف العبرة فكأنما كان في الأولين. والعدل منها على أربع شعب: على غايص الفهم وغور العلم وزهرة الحكم ورساخة الحلم؛ فمن فهم علم غور العلم، ومن علم غور العلم صدر عن شرايع الحكم، ومن حلم لم يفرط في أمره وعاش في الناس حميداً. والجهاد منها على أربع شعب: على الأمر بالمعروف والنهي عن المنكر والصديق في المواطن وشنان الفاسقين؛ فمن أمر بالمعروف شد ظهور المؤمنين، ومن نهى عن المنكر أرغم أثوف الكافرين، ومن صدق في المواطن قضى ما عليه، ومن شنن الفاسقين وغضب لله غضب الله له وأرضاه يوم القيامة. والكفر على أربع دعائم: على التعمق والتنازع والزيف والشقاق؛ فمن تعمق لم ينب إلى الحق، ومن كثر نزاعه بالجهل دام عماه عن الحق، ومن زاغ ساءت عنده الحسنة وحسنت عنده السيئة وسكر سكر الضلالة، ومن شاق وعرت عليه طرقه وأغضل عليه أمره وضاق عليه مخرجه. والشك على أربع شعب: على التماري والهول والتردد والاستسلام؛ فمن جعل المراء ديناً لم يصبح ليلاً، ومن هاله ما بين يديه نكص على عقبيه، ومن تردد في الريب وطنئه سبابك الشياطين، ومن استسلم لهلكة الدنيا والآخرة هلك فيهما.

قال الرضي: و بعد هذا كلام تركنا ذكره خوف الإطالة و الخروج عن الغرض المقصود في هذا الكتاب.

31. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, was asked once about faith. He said the following: “Faith stands on four pillars: endurance, conviction, justice and jihād.

Shrine of Imām al-Abbās عليه السلام in Kerbala

“Conviction also has four aspects: prudent perception, intelligence and understanding, drawing lessons from instructive things and following the precedents of past people. So, whoever perceives with prudence, wise knowledge will be manifested to him. To whomsoever wise knowledge becomes manifest appreciates instructive objectives. Whoever appreciates instructive objectives is just like past people.

“Justice also has four aspects: keen understanding, deep knowledge, a good power of decision and firm forbearance. Therefore, whoever understands comes to acquire the depth of knowledge; whoever acquires the depth of knowledge drinks from the spring of judgment, and whoever exercises forbearance never commits evil actions in his affairs and leads a praiseworthy life among the people.

“Jihād, also, has four aspects: enjoining others to do good deeds, keeping others away from doing evil, fighting (in the way of Allāh)

sincerely and firmly on all occasions and detesting anyone who is vicious. So, whoever commends others to do good deeds provides strength to the believers; whoever dissuades others from committing evil humiliates the unbelievers; whoever fights sincerely on all occasions carries out all his obligations, and whoever detests the vicious folks and becomes angry for the sake of Allāh, then Allāh will be angry in favor of him and will keep him pleased on the Day of Judgment.

“Unbelief stands on four pillars: hankering after whims, quarreling with others, deviating from the truth and dissenting. So, whoever hankers after whims does not incline towards righteousness; whoever quarrels much on account of ignorance remains permanently blinded from what is right; whoever deviates from the truth, for him good becomes evil and evil becomes good: He remains intoxicated with misguidance. Whoever makes a breach (with Allāh and His Messenger), his path becomes difficult, his affairs become complicated and his way of escape becomes narrow.

“Doubt has also four aspects: irrationality, fear, wavering and undue surrender to everything. So, whoever adopts irrationality as his way of life, for him there is no dawn after the night; whoever is afraid of what befalls him has to run on his heels; whoever wavers in doubt, the demons trample on him with their feet, and whoever surrenders to the destruction of all of this, his Hereafter succumbs to it.”

Sayyid ar-Radi adds the following: “We have left out the remaining portion of this statement for fear of being too lengthy and for being outside the scope of this chapter.”

٣٢- وقال (عليه السلام): فاعِلُ الْخَيْرِ خَيْرٌ مِنْهُ، وَفَاعِلُ الشَّرِّ شَرٌّ مِنْهُ.

32. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The doer of goodness is better than goodness itself, and the doer of evil is worse than evil itself.”

٣٣- وقال (عليه السلام): كُنْ سَمْحاً وَلَا تَكُنْ مُبْذِراً، وَكُنْ مُقَدَّراً وَلَا تَكُنْ مُقْتَرّاً.

33. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Be generous but not extravagant; be thrifty but not stingy.”

٣٤- وقال (عليه السلام): أشرفُ الغنى تركُ المني.

34. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The best of riches is the abandonment of desires.”

٣٥- وقال (عليه السلام): من أسرع إلى الناس بما يكرهون قالوا فيه بما لا يعلمون.

35. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “If someone is quick in saying about people what they dislike, they will speak about him that with which they have no knowledge.”

٣٦- وقال (عليه السلام): من أطال الأمل أساء العمل.

36. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Whoever prolongs his desire ruins his actions.”

٣٧- وقال (عليه السلام): وقد لقيتُ عند مسيره إلى الشام دهاقين الأنبار، فترجلوا له واشتدوا بين يديه فقال: ما هذا الذي صنعتموه؟ فقالوا: خلق منا نعظم به أمراءنا. فقال: والله ما ينتفع بهذا أمراؤكم، وإنكم لتشفقون على أنفسكم في دنياكم وتشفقون به في آخريكم، وما أخسر المشقة وراءها العقاب وأزبح الدعة معها الأمان من النار.

37. Once Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was proceeding to Syria when the Anbār¹ countrymen met him. Seeing him, they began to walk on foot then ran in front of him. He inquired why they were doing so. They replied that this was the way they expressed respect for their chiefs. He عليه السلام said the following: “By Allāh, this does not benefit your chiefs. You are belaboring yourselves in this world and earning misery for the next by thus behaving. How harmful the labor in the wake of which there is punishment, and how profitable the case with which there is deliverance from the Fire (of Hell) is!”

٣٨- وقال (عليه السلام): لِابْنِهِ الْحَسَنِ (عليه السلام): يَا بُنَيَّ! احْفَظْ عَلَيَّ أَرْبَعًا وَأَرْبَعًا لَا يَضُرُّكَ مَا عَمِلْتَ مَعَهُنَّ: إِنَّ أَغْنَى الْغِنَى الْعَقْلُ، وَأَكْبَرُ الْفَقْرِ الْخُمُقُ، وَأَوْحَشُ الْوَحْشَةِ الْعُجْبُ، وَأَكْرَمُ الْحَسَبِ حُسْنُ الْخُلُقِ. يَا بُنَيَّ، إِيَّاكَ وَمُصَادَقَةَ الْأَخْمَقِ فَإِنَّهُ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَنْفَعَكَ فَيَضُرُّكَ، وَإِيَّاكَ وَمُصَادَقَةَ الْبَخِيلِ فَإِنَّهُ يَقْعُدُ عَنْكَ أَخْوَجَ مَا تَكُونُ إِلَيْهِ، وَإِيَّاكَ وَمُصَادَقَةَ الْفَاجِرِ فَإِنَّهُ يَبِيعُكَ بِالثَّأْفَةِ، وَإِيَّاكَ وَمُصَادَقَةَ الْكَذَّابِ فَإِنَّهُ كَالسَّرَابِ: يُقَرِّبُ عَلَيْكَ الْبَعِيدَ وَيُبْعَدُ عَلَيْكَ الْقَرِيبَ.

The Imām admonishing his son:

38. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following to his son al-Hassan عليه السلام: “O son! Learn four things and (a further) four things from me: Nothing will harm you if you practice them. The richest of all riches is intelligence; the biggest destitution is foolishness; the most wild of the wild is vanity, and the best achievement is goodness of the moral character.

“O my son! You should avoid making friends with a fool because if he intends to benefit you, he harms you. You should avoid making friends with a miser because he will run away from you when you need him the most. You should avoid making friends with a sinful person because he will sell you for naught. And you should avoid making friends with a liar because he is like a mirage, making you see far things as near and near things as far.”

¹The vast Anbār area is now the largest western governorate in Iraq, about one third of the entire country with the exclusion of northern Iraq (Kurdistan), and its population—mostly tribal—is predominantly Sunni. Its metropolis is Ramadi City, 110 km west of Baghdad.

٣٩- وقال (عليه السلام): لا قرْبَة بالتواْفِل إذا أضرتْ بالفرائض.

39. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Supererogatory worship cannot bring about nearness to Allāh if it hampers what is obligatory.”

٤٠- وقال (عليه السلام): لِسَانُ الْعَاقِلِ وَرَاءَ قَلْبِهِ، وَقَلْبُ الْأَحْمَقِ وَرَاءَ لِسَانِهِ.

قال الرضي: و هذا من المعاني العجيبة الشريفة، و المراد به أن العاقل لا يطلق لسانه إلا بعد مشاورة الروية و مؤامرة الفكرة، و الأحقق تسبق حذفات لسانه و فلتات كلامه مراجعة فكره و ممانعة رأيه، فكان لسان العاقل تابع لقلبه، و كان قلب الأحقق تابع للسانه.

40. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The tongue of the wise man is behind his heart, while the heart of the fool is behind his tongue.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says the following: “This sentence has an unusual and beautiful meaning. It means that the wise man does not speak with his tongue except after consulting his mind and exercising his imagination, but the fool quickly utters whatever comes to his tongue without pondering on it. In this way, the tongue of the wise man follows his heart while the heart of the fool follows his tongue.”

٤١- وقد روي عنه (عليه السلام) هذا المعنى بلفظ آخر وهو قوله: قلبُ الأحق في فيه، ولسانُ العاقل في قلبه. ومعناها واحد.

41. This very thought has been related from Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام in a different way thus: “The heart of a fool is in his mouth, while the tongue of the wise man is in his heart.” The meaning of both sayings (40 and 41) is the same.

قال الرضي: وأقول صدق (عليه السلام) إن المرض لا أجر فيه لأنه ليس من قبيل ما يستحق عليه العوض لأن العوض يستحق على ما كان في مقابلة فعل الله تعالى بالعبد من الآلام والأمراض وما يجري مجرى ذلك والأجر والثواب يستحقان على ما كان في مقابلة فعل العبد فبينهما فرق قد بينه (عليه السلام) كما يقتضيه علمه الثاقب ورأيه الصائب.

42. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following to one of his companions during the latter's sickness: “May Allāh make your illness a means for wiping out your sins because there is no reward for sickness except that it obliterates sins and makes them fall like (dried) leaves. Reward lies in saying by the tongue and doing something with the limbs. Certainly, Allāh, the Glorified One, admits into Paradise, by virtue of truthfulness of intention and purity of the heart, whomsoever He pleases from among His servants.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says the following: “Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام is right in saying that there is no reward for sickness as such because compensation is admissible with regard to how Allāh, the Sublime One, deals with His creatures such as causing them grief, illness and the like. However, reward and recompense become admissible with regard to the actions of a creature. This is the difference between the two. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام has clarified it through his lustrous knowledge and sound view.”

٤٣- وقال (عليه السلام): في ذكر خَبَّابِ بْنِ الْأَرْتِ: يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ خَبَّابَ بْنَ الْأَرْتِ، فَلَقَدْ أَسْلَمَ رَاغِبًا وَهَاجَرَ طَائِعًا وَقَنَعَ بِالْكَفَافِ وَرَضِيَ عَنِ اللَّهِ وَعَاشَ مُجَاهِدًا.

43. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following about Khabbāb ibn al-`Aratt: “May Allāh have mercy on Khabbāb ibn al-`Arātt, for he accepted Islam willingly, immigrated (from Mecca) obediently, remained content with what sufficed him, was pleased with Allāh and lived the life of a mujāhid.”

Khabbāb ibn al-`Arātt (586 – 659 A.D.) was a distinguished companion of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and an early Muhājir. He suffered various sorts of hardships at the hands of the tribesmen of Quraish. He was made to stand in the scorching sun and to lie down on burning pieces of timber, but he did not at all abandon his support for the Holy Prophet ﷺ. He accompanied the Holy Prophet ﷺ in Badr and other battles. He supported Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام in Siffin and Nahrawān. He left Medīna and settled in Kūfa. Thus, he died there in 39 A.H./659 A.D. at the age of 73. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام led his funeral prayer service, and he was buried outside Kūfa. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام uttered these mercy-invoking words above as he stood at his grave.”

44. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Blessed is the person who keeps the next life in mind, acts so as to be able to render his account, remains contented with what suffices him and remains pleased with Allāh.”

٤٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): لو ضربت خيشوم المؤمن بسيفي هذا على أن يبغضني ما أبغضني ولو صببت الدنيا بجماتها على المنافق على أن يحبني ما أحبني وذلك أنه قضي فأنقضي على لسان النبي الأمي (صلى الله عليه وآله) أنه قال يا علي لا يبغضك مؤمن ولا يحبك منافق.

45. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Even if I strike the nose of a believer with my sword, so he may hate me, he will not hate me, and even if I pile all the wealth of the world before a hypocrite (Muslim) so he may love me, he will not love me. This is so because it is a verdict pronounced by the tongue of the revered Prophet ﷺ who said the following: ‘O Ali! A believer will never hate you and a hypocrite (Muslim) will never love you.’”¹ ¹This is one of the authentic traditions (ahādīth) of the Holy Prophet ﷺ the authenticity of which scholars of traditions have never doubted. It was narrated by certain companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ such as Abdullāh ibn Abbās, ‘Imrān ibn al-Haseen, Umm al-Mu’minīn (mother of the faithful) Umm Salamah and others such as Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام himself who also narrated saying: “By the One Who split the seed and created the soul, verily the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and his progeny gave me a promise that no one but a true believer will love me, and none but a hypocrite will hate me.” For references, refer to these sources: Muslim, Sahīh, Vol. 1, p. 60; [Muslim, in his book, regards the love of Ali as the sign of dissemblance]; al-Bukhārī, Al-Jāmi` al-Sahīh (better known as simply Sahīh or Sahīh al-Bukhārī), Vol. 5, pp. 635, 643; Ibn Mājah, Al-Sunan, Vol. 1, p. 55; al-Nisā’i, Al-Sunan, Vol. 8, pp. 115 - 116, 117; Imām Ahmed ibn Hanbal, Al-Musnad, Vol. 1, pp. 84, 95, 128; Vol. 6, p. 292; Abū Hātim, Ilal al-Hadīth, Vol. 2, p. 400; Abū Nu’aym, Hilyat al-Awliyā’, Vol. 4, p. 185; Ibn al-Athīr, Jāmi` al-Usūl, Vol. 9, p. 473; Ali ibn Abū Bakr al-Haithami, Majma` az-Zawā'id, Vol. 9, p. 133; Ibn al-Maghāzili, Manāqib Ali ibn Abū Tālib, pp. 190 - 195; Ibn Abd al-Barr, Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, p. 1100; Ibn al-Athīr, Usd al-Ghāba, Vol. 4, p. 26; Ibn Hajar al-Asqalāni, Al-Isāba fī Akhbār al-Sahāba, Vol. 2, p. 509; al-Khatīb al-Baghdādī, Tārīkh Baghdad, Vol. 2, p. 255; Vol. 8, p. 417 and Vol. 14, p. 426; Ibn Kathīr, Tārīkh, Vol. 7, p. 354, to cite just few. It was in this way that the revered Sahāba, companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, used to test the faith (īmān) or hypocrisy (nifāq) of the Muslims through their love or hatred towards Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, as is related by Abū Dharr al-Ghifārī, Abū Sa`īd al-Khudri, Abdullāh ibn Mas`ūd and Jābir ibn Abdullāh [al-Ansārī] that: “We (companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ) used to distinguish the hypocrites by their hatred towards Ali ibn Abū Tālib,” as we read in the following classic references: al-Tirmidhi, Sunan, Vol. 5, p. 635; Al-Mustadrak, Vol. 3, p. 129; Hilyat al-Awliyā’, Vol. 6, p. 294; Majma` az-Zawā'id, Vol. 9, pp. 132 - 133; Jāmi` al-Usūl, Vol. 9, p. 473; Al-Durr al-Manthūr, Vol. 6, pp. 66 - 67; Tārīkh Baghdād, Vol. 13, p. 153; Ar-Riyād an-Nadira, Vol. 2, pp. 214 - 15; Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, p. 1110; Usd al-Ghāba, Vol. 4, pp. 29-30).

46. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The sin that displeases you is better in the view of Allāh than the virtue that makes you proud.”¹

٤٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): قَدَرُ الرَّجُلِ عَلَى قَدَرِ هِمَّتِهِ، وَصِدْقُهُ عَلَى قَدَرِ مَرْوَعَتِهِ، وَشَجَاعَتُهُ عَلَى قَدَرِ أَنْفَتِهِ، وَعِقَّتُهُ عَلَى قَدَرِ غَيْرَتِهِ.

47. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “The worth of a man is according to his courage, his truthfulness is according to his balance of temper, his valor is according to his self-respect and his chastity is according to his sense of shame.”

٤٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): الظَّفَرُ بِالْحَزْمِ، وَالْحَزْمُ بِإِجَالَةِ الرَّأْيِ، وَالرَّأْيُ بِتَخَصُّينِ الْأَسْرَارِ.

48. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Victory is (won) with determination; determination is pondering over thoughts and thoughts are formed by guarding secrets.”

٤٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): اخْذَرُوا صَوْلَةَ الْكَرِيمِ إِذَا جَاعَ وَاللَّيْمِ إِذَا شَبِعَ.

49. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “Beware of the might of a noble person when he is hungry and of an ignoble one when his belly is full.”²

¹The person who feels ashamed and repentant after committing a sin and offers repentance before Allāh remains safe from the penalty of that sin and deserves the reward of repentance. But the person who, having done a virtuous deed, begins to feel his “superiority” over others and becomes proud of his virtues thinks that he has no apprehension whatever. Thus, he destroys his virtue and remains deprived of the reward of that virtuous deed. Obviously, whoever has erased the shame of his sin by repentance will be better than one who ruins his action by being proud of it without having repented.

²The meaning is that a man of prestige and esteem never tolerates humiliation or disgrace. If his honor is assailed, he will leap like a hungry lion and break away the shackles of humiliation. If a low and narrow minded person is raised in status above what he deserves, he will not be able to contain himself but, regarding himself very high, he will assail the ٥٠- وقال (عليه السلام): قلوب الرجال وخشيّة، فمن تالفها أقبلت عليه.

50. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “People’s hearts are like wild beasts. If someone tries to tame them, they will pounce back on him.”¹ ٥١- وقال (عليه السلام): عيبك مستور ما أسعدك جدك.

51. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following: “So long as your status is good, your defects will remain covered.”

٥٢- وقال (عليه السلام): أولى الناس بالعفو أقدرهم على العقوبة.

52. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The most capable of pardoning is one who is the ablest to punish.”

٥٣- وقال (عليه السلام): السخاء ما كان ابتداءً فأما ما كان عن مسألة فحياء وتذمّم.

53. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Generosity is that which is by one’s own initiative because giving on being asked is either due to one’s esteem or to avoid rebuke.”

٥٤- وقال (عليه السلام): لا غنى كالعقل ولا فقر كالجهل ولا ميراث كالأدب ولا ظهير كالمشاورة.

54. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There is no wealth like wisdom, no destitution like ignorance, no inheritance like refinement and no support like consultation.”

status of others.

٥٥- وقال (عليه السلام): الصَّبْرُ صَبْرَانِ: صَبْرٌ عَلَى مَا تَكْرَهُ وَصَبْرٌ عَمَّا تُحِبُّ.

55. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Patience is of two kinds:patience over what pains you, and patience regarding what you covet.”

٥٦- وقال (عليه السلام): الْغِنَى فِي الْغُرْبَةِ وَطَنٌ وَالْفَقْرُ فِي الْوَطَنِ غُرْبَةٌ.

56. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “With wealth, a strange land is a homeland, while with destitution, even a homeland is a strange land.¹ With destitution, one is a stranger even in his own homeland.”

¹A person who has wealth and riches will get friends and acquaintances wherever he may be. He, therefore, will not feel strange in any foreign land. But if he is poor and destitute, he will have no friends even in his homeland because people do not like to make friends with the poor and the destitute, nor do they establish relationships with them. He is, therefore, a stranger even at home and has no friends or well-wishers.

One who has no worldly successor remains unknown.

٥٧- وقال (عليه السلام): القناعة مالٌ لا ينفدُ.

قال الرضي: وقد روي هذا الكلام عن النبي (صلى الله عليه وآله).

57. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Contentment is wealth that never diminishes.”¹

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “This saying has also been related from the Prophet ﷺ.”

٥٨- وقال (عليه السلام): المالُ مادةُ الشَّهواتِ.

58. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Wealth is the substance of passions.”

٥٩- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ حَذَرَكَ كَمَنْ بَشَرَكَ.

59. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who warns you is like one who gives you glad tidings (of safety).”

٦٠- وقال (عليه السلام): اللِّسَانُ سَبْعٌ؛ إِنْ خُلِّيَ عَنْهُ، عَقَرَ.

60. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The tongue is a beast; when it is let loose, it devours.”

٦١- وقال (عليه السلام): المرأةُ عَقْرَبٌ حُلُوهُ اللِّسْبَةُ.

61. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Woman is a scorpion whose ¹Contentment means that a man should remain satisfied with what he gets and should not complain if he gets less. If he is not so contented, he will try to satisfy his greed by committing social crimes such as misappropriation, cheating and deceiving others because greed compels one to satisfy one's needs by any means whatever. Then the satisfaction of one's need opens the gate for another need, and so on. As a man's needs get satisfied, his craving increases, and he can never get rid of his needs or dissatisfaction. The increasing dissatisfaction can be stopped only by contentment which makes a man carefree from all wants except the most essential ones. Such is everlasting wealth that gives satisfaction for good.

٦٢- وقال (عليه السلام): إذا حُيِّتَ بِتَحِيَّةٍ فَحَيَّ بِأَحْسَنَ مِنْهَا، وَإِذَا أَسْنَدِيَتْ إِلَيْكَ يَدٌ فَكَافِنُهَا بِمَا يُرَبِّي عَلَيْهَا، وَالْفَضْلُ مَعَ ذَلِكَ لِلْبَادِي.

62. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If you are met with a greeting, give a better greeting in return. If a helping hand is extended to you, do a better favor in return, although the credit will remain with the one who was the first.

٦٣- وقال (عليه السلام): الشَّفِيعُ جَنَاحُ الطَّالِبِ.

63. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who intercedes is the wing of one who seeks.”

٦٤- وقال (عليه السلام): أَهْلُ الدُّنْيَا كَرُكْبٍ يُسَارُ بِهِمْ وَهُمْ نِيَامٌ.

64. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The people of the world are like travelers who are being carried away as they asleep.”

٦٥- وقال (عليه السلام): فَقَدْ الْحَاجَةُ غُرْبَةً.

65. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The loss of friends is estrangement.”

٦٦- وقال (عليه السلام): فَوَيْتُ الْحَاجَةَ أَهْوَنُ مِنْ طَلِبِهَا إِلَى غَيْرِ أَهْلِهَا.

66. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “To miss what one needs is easier than to beg the wrong person.”¹

٦٧- وقال (عليه السلام): لَا تَسْتَحْ مِنْ إِعْطَاءِ الْقَلِيلِ، فَإِنَّ الْحَرَمَانَ أَقْلُ مِنْهُ.

67. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do not feel ashamed of giving little because refusal is even less than that.”

٦٨- وقال (عليه السلام): الْعِفَافُ زِينَةُ الْفَقْرِ، وَالشُّكْرُ زِينَةُ الْغِنَى.

68. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Charity is the adornment of destitution, while gratefulness (to Allāh) is the adornment of riches.”

٦٩- وقال (عليه السلام): إِذَا لَمْ يَكُنْ مَا تُرِيدُ فَلَا تُبَلِّ مَا كُنْتَ.

69. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If what you aim at does not come about, then do not worry as to what you were.”

٧٠- وقال (عليه السلام): لَا تَرَى الْجَاهِلَ إِلَّا مُفَرِّطًا أَوْ مُفَرِّطًا.

70. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “You will not find an ignorant person but at one extreme: exaggerating or neglecting.”

¹The shame that is felt in putting a request before an inappropriate person gives more mental pain than the grief in not obtaining its fulfillment. That is why non-fulfillment of a request can be tolerated, but the obligation of a low and humble person is intolerable. Every self-respecting person will, therefore, prefer deprivation to being under obligation to an inappropriate man and will not tolerate placing his request before a low and mean person.

٧١- وقال (عليه السلام): إذا تَمَّ العقلُ، نقص الكلامُ.

71. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “As intelligence increases, speech decreases.”¹

٧٢- وقال (عليه السلام): الدَّهْرُ يُخْلِقُ الْأَبْدَانَ وَيَجْدُدُ الْأَمَالَ وَيُقَرِّبُ الْمَنِيَّةَ وَيُبَاعِدُ الْأَمْنِيَّةَ مَنْ ظَفِرَ بِهِ نَصِيبٌ وَمَنْ فَاتَهُ تَعِبَ.

72. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Time wears out bodies, renews desires, brings death nearer and takes away aspirations. Whoever is successful with it encounters grief, and whoever misses its favors also undergoes hardships.”

¹Being talkative is an indication of a diffused thinking, while diffusion of thought is the result of immaturity. When wisdom attains perfection and understanding ripens, one’s mind and thoughts are balanced. Wisdom acquires power and control over the tongue. As over other parts of the body, the tongue does not need any thinking or anything outside the dictates of wisdom. Obviously, uttering after thinking is short and free from extras. As a man’s intelligence increases, his speech decreases and he does not speak save at the opportune moment.

٧٣- وقال (عليه السلام): من نصب نفسه للناس إماماً فليبدأ بتعليم نفسه قبل تعليم غيره، وليكن تأديبه بسيرته قبل تأديبه بلسانه، ومعلم نفسه ومؤدبها أحق بالإجلال من معلم الناس ومؤدبهم.

73. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever places himself as a leader of the people should commence with educating his own self before educating others, and his teaching should be by his own conduct before teaching by the tongue. The person who teaches and instructs his own self is more entitled to esteem than whoever teaches and instructs others.”

٧٤- وقال (عليه السلام): نفس المرء خطاه إلى أجله.

74. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Each breath taken by a man is a step towards his death.”¹

¹That is just as each step makes way for the other, and this exercise by steps is the means of nearing the goal. Similarly, every breath of life serves as a death-knell for the previous one and carries life towards death, as if the breath the motion of which is regarded as a sign of life is, in fact, the sign of the passing away of one moment of life and a means of nearing death because each breath is death for the previous one, and life is the name of those very death-carrying breaths. Every breath is a dead body of the life that passed by. Life is the name of living by facing successive deaths.

٧٥- وقال (عليه السلام): كُلُّ مَغْدُودٍ مُنْقَضٌ، وَكُلُّ مُتَوَقَّعٍ آتٍ.

75. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Every countable thing is to pass away; every expected thing must come about.”

٧٦- وقال (عليه السلام): إِنَّ الْأُمُورَ إِذَا اشْتَبَهَتْ اِغْتَبِرَ آخِرُهَا بِأَوَّلِهَا.

76. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If matters get mixed up, the last ones should be appreciated compared to the previous ones.”¹

٧٧- وَمِنْ خَبَرِ ضِرَارِ بْنِ حَمْزَةَ الضَّبَّائِيِّ عِنْدَ دُخُولِهِ عَلَى مُعَاوِيَةَ وَمَسْأَلَتِهِ لَهُ عَنْ أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) وَقَالَ: فَاشْهَدْ لِقَدْ رَأَيْتُهُ فِي بَعْضِ مَوَاقِفِهِ وَقَدْ أَرَخَى اللَّيْلُ سُدُولَهُ وَهُوَ قَائِمٌ فِي مِخْرَابِهِ قَابِضٌ عَلَى لِحْيَتِهِ، يَتَمَلَّمُ تَمَلَّمُ السَّلِيمِ وَيَبْكِي بُكَاءَ الْحَزِينِ وَيَقُولُ: يَا دُنْيَا يَا دُنْيَا إِلَيْكَ عَنِّي، أَيْ تَعَرَّضْتَ أَمْ إِلَيَّ تَشَوَّقْتَ؟ لَا حَانَ حِينُكَ؛ هِنَاهُ غَرِّي غَيْرِي، لَا حَاجَةَ لِي فِيكَ، قَدْ طَلَقْتُكَ ثَلَاثًا لَا رَجْعَةَ فِيهَا، فَعِيشُكَ قَصِيرٌ وَخَطَرُكَ يَسِيرٌ وَأَمَلُكَ حَقِيرٌ. أَهْ مِنْ قَلَّةِ الزَّادِ وَطُولِ الطَّرِيقِ وَبُعْدِ السَّفَرِ وَعَظِيمِ الْمَوْرِدِ.

77. It is related that when Dirār ibn Hamzah (the correct is “Damrah”) ad-Dibabi (or as-Suda’i¹) went to Mu`āwiyah, and the latter inquired what fruits, flowers or leaves it will bring about, and what its expanse will be. Likewise, a guess can be made about the success of a student by looking at his endeavor and effort. The same applies to the failure of some other student by looking at his leisureliness and idleness. This is so because the beginning is indicative of the end and the premises of the conclusion. Therefore, if the end of any matter is not visible, its beginning should be looked at. If its beginning is bad, the end, too, will be bad, and if the beginning is good, the end, too, will be good. An auspicious river begins from the very spring.

¹Dirār ibn Damrah was one of the companions of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام. After the death of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, he went to Syria where he met Mu`āwiyah. The latter said to him, “Describe Ali to me.” He replied, “Will you please excuse me from answering?” But Mu`āwiyah insisted, “You must describe him,” whereupon Dirār said the following: “If there is no alternative, then you should know that Ali عليه السلام was a man whose personality knew no limits, terrific in power, his speech was decisive, his judgments based on justice, his knowledge spread out in all directions and wisdom manifested itself on all his behavior. Among the food he liked the most was the coarse kind, and among the clothes, the short (and humble) ones. By Allāh, he was among us like one of us. He used to respond to our questions and fulfill all our requests. By Allāh, although he used to let us get close to him and he himself was close to us, we did not dare address him due to our feeling of awe towards him, nor did we dare to speak first due to his greatness in our hearts. His smile displayed a row of pearls. He used to honor the pious. He liked to be kind to the needy, to feed the orphans, the near of kin or the needy in the day of hunger, clothe bare ones and help the vulnerable person. He used to detest the world and its flowering. I testify to all of this.” So far, the testimony is as quoted above by Sayyid ar-Radi. When Mu`āwiyah heard this from Dirār, his eyes became full of tears and he said: “May Allāh have mercy on from him about Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, he said the following: “I testify that I have seen him on several occasions when night had spread and he was standing in the niche (of the mosque) holding his beard, groaning like a man bitten by a snake and weeping as a grieved man, saying: O world, O world! Get away from me! Why do you present yourself to me?! Or are you eager for me?! You may not get that opportunity to impress me. Deceive some other person. I have no concern with you. I have divorced you thrice after which there is no restitution. Your life is short, your importance is little and your liking is humble. Alas! The provision is little, the way is long, the journey is far and the goal is hard to reach.”

On the Topic of Predestination

٧٨- وَمِنْ كَلَامٍ لَهُ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام) لِلْسَّائِلِ الشَّامِيِّ لَمَّا سَأَلَهُ: أَمَا كَانَ مَسِيرُنَا إِلَى الشَّامِ بِقَضَاءٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَقَدَرٍ؟ بَعْدَ كَلَامٍ طَوِيلٍ هَذَا مُخْتَارُهُ: وَيُحَكِّ! لَعَلَّكَ ظَنَنْتَ قَضَاءً لَازِمًا وَقَدَرًا حَاطِمًا؟ لَوْ كَانَ ذَلِكَ كَذَلِكَ لَبُطِلَ الثَّوَابُ وَالْعِقَابُ وَسَقَطَ الْوَعْدُ وَالْوَعِيدُ. إِنَّ اللَّهَ سُبْحَانَهُ أَمَرَ عِبَادَهُ تَخْيِيرًا وَنَهَاهُمْ تَحْذِيرًا وَكَلَّفَ يَسِيرًا وَلَمْ يُكَلِّفْ عَسِيرًا وَأَعْطَى عَلَى الْقَلِيلِ كَثِيرًا وَلَمْ يُعْصِ مَغْلُوبًا وَلَمْ يُطْغِ مُكْرَهًا وَلَمْ يُرْسِلِ النَّبِيَّاءَ لِعِبَادٍ وَلَمْ يُنْزِلِ الْكُتُبَ لِلْعِبَادِ عِبَادًا وَلَا خَلَقَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا بَاطِلًا، ذَلِكَ ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا، فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنَ النَّارِ.

78. A man inquired from Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام saying, “Was our going to fight the Syrians destin-ed by Allāh?” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام detailed his reply, a selec-tion from which is here:

Woe to you! You take it as a final and un-avoidable des-tiny (ac-Abul-Hassan. He really was so.” Then, turning to Dirār, he said: “How do you feel in his absence, O Dirār?” Dirār replied, “My grief is like that of a woman whose only child is butchered in her own arms,” as we read in these references: Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, pp. 1107 - 1108; Hilyat al-Awliyā', Vol. 2, p. 84; Sifatul-Safwah, Ibn al-Jawzi, Vol. 1, p. 121; Al-Amāli, Abū Ali al-Qāli, Vol. 2, p. 147; Zahr al-Adab, al-Husari, Vol. 1, pp. 40 - 41; Murūj al-Dhahab, Vol. 2, p. 421; Ar-Riyād al-Nadira, Al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Vol. 2, p. 212; Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 18, pp. 225 - 26).

¹The end of this story is that after this encounter, the man inquired, “What kind of destiny it was by which we had to go?” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said, “قضاء (destiny) means the command of Allāh.” For example, He has said: واقضى ربك أن لا تعبدوا الا اياه wa qada rabbuka alla ta'budu illa iyyah (And your Lord commanded that you shall worship none but Him [Qur'ān, according to which we are bound to act). If it were so, there will have been no question of reward or chastisement, and there will have been no sense in Allāh's promises or warnings. (On the other hand) Allāh, the Glorified One, has ordered His servants to act according to their free will and has cautioned them and protected them (from evil). He has placed easy obligations on them and has not put heavy obligations. He gives them much (reward) in return for little action. He is disobeyed, not because He is overpowered. He is obeyed but not by force. He did not send prophets just for fun. He did not send down the Book for the people without a purpose. He did not create the heavens, the earth and all that is in between them in vain. That is the imagination of those who disbelieve: فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنَ النَّارِ ... then woe to those who disbelieve because of the Fire (Qur'ān, 38:27)."

٧٩- وقال (عليه السلام): خُذِ الْحِكْمَةَ أَيْنَ كَانَتْ، فَإِنَّ الْحِكْمَةَ تَكُونُ فِي صَدْرِ الْمُنَافِقِ فَتَلْجُ فِي صَدْرِهِ حَتَّى تَخْرُجَ فَتَسْكُنَ إِلَى صَوَاحِبِهَا فِي صَدْرِ الْمُؤْمِنِ.

79. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Take wisdom from wherever it may be because if a wise saying is in the bosom of a hypocrite, it flutters in his bosom till it comes out and settles with others of its own category: in the bosom of the believer.”

٨٠- وقال (عليه السلام): الْحِكْمَةُ ضَالَّةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ، فَخُذِ الْحِكْمَةَ وَلَوْ مِنْ أَهْلِ النِّفَاقِ.

80. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Wisdom is the believer’s pursuit; therefore, attain wisdom even if it may be from the people of hypocrisy.”

٨١- وقال (عليه السلام): قِيَمَةُ كُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا يُحْسِنُهُ.

قال الرضي: و هي الكلمة التي لا تصاب لها قيمة و لا توزن بها حكمة و لا تقرن إليها كلمة.

81. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The worth of every man lies in his accomplishments.”¹

Sayyid ar-Radi says that this is the statement the value of which is too precious to assess, one compared to which no wise saying can be weighed and with which no other sentence can be matched.

٨٢- وقال (عليه السلام): أَوْصِيَكُمْ بِخَمْسٍ لَوْ ضَرَبْتُمْ إِلَيْهَا آبَاطُ الْبَابِلِ لَكَانَتْ لَكُمْ أَهْلًا: لَا يَرْجُونَ أَحَدًا مِنْكُمْ إِلَّا رَبَّهُ، وَلَا يَخَافُونَ إِلَّا ذَنْبَهُ، وَلَا يَسْتَحِينُ أَحَدٌ مِنْكُمْ إِذَا سُئِلَ عَمَّا لَا يَعْلَمُ أَنْ يَقُولَ لَا أَعْلَمُ، وَلَا يَسْتَحِينُ أَحَدٌ إِذَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ الشَّيْءَ أَنْ يَتَعَلَّمَهُ، وَعَلَيْكُمْ بِالصَّبْرِ فَإِنَّ الصَّبْرَ مِنَ الْإِيمَانِ كَالرَّأْسِ مِنَ الْجَسَدِ، وَلَا خَيْرَ فِي جَسَدٍ لَا رَأْسَ مَعَهُ، وَلَا فِي إِيمَانٍ لَا صَبْرَ مَعَهُ.

82. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I impart to you five things which, if you ride your camels fast in search of them, you will find them worth the effort: None of you should rest his hope save on his Lord (Allāh); none of you should fear anything save his sin; none of you should feel ashamed of saying, ‘I do not know’ when asked about a matter which he does not know; none of you should feel ashamed of learning a thing that he does not know and you should practice endurance because endurance is for belief what the head is for the body: Just as there is no good in a body without the head, there is no good in belief without endurance.

83. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following about a man who praised him much, although he did not admire him: “I am below what you express and above what you feel in your heart.”

٨٤- وقال (عليه السلام): بَقِيَّةُ السَّيْفِ أَبْقَى عَدَدًا وَأَكْثَرُ وَلَدًا.

84. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The survivors of the sword are large in number and have many offspring.”

٨٥- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ تَرَكَ قَوْلَ لَا أَذْرِي أَصِيبَتْ مَقَاتِلُهُ.

85. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever abandons saying, ‘I do not know’ meets his destruction.”

86. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I love the opinion of an old man more than the determination of a young man: (or according to another version: more than the martyrdom of a young man).

٨٧- وقال (عليه السلام): عجبت لمن يقط ومعه الاستغفار.

87. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I wonder about one who loses hope despite his ability to seek forgiveness.”

قال الرضي: وهذا من محاسن الاستخراج و لطائف الاستنباط.

88. (Imām) “Abū Ja`far” Muhammed ibn Ali al-Bāqir عليه السلام has related from Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام that the Imām had said: “There are two sources of deliverance from the punishment of Allāh: one of them has been raised up, while the other is before you. You should, therefore, adhere to it. The source of deliverance, which has been raised up is the Messenger of Allāh Muhammed ﷺ, while the source of deliverance that remains is the seeking of forgiveness. Allāh, the Glorified One, has said the following: And Allāh is not to chastise them while you are among them, nor is Allāh to chastise them while yet they seek [His] forgiveness (Qur’ān, 8:33).” deriving the meaning and a most delicate manner of an interpretation.

٨٩- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ أَصْلَحَ مَا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ اللَّهِ أَصْلَحَ اللَّهُ مَا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ النَّاسِ، وَمَنْ أَصْلَحَ أَمْرَ آخِرَتِهِ أَصْلَحَ اللَّهُ لَهُ أَمْرَ دُنْيَاهُ، وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ وَاعِظَ كَانَ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ حَافِظٌ.

89. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If a man behaves properly in matters between himself and Allāh, then Allāh will keep proper the matters between him and others. And if a man keeps proper the affairs of his next life, Allāh will keep proper for him the affairs of this world. Whoever admonishes himself is protected by Allāh.”

٩٠- وقال (عليه السلام): الْفَقِيهُ كُلُّ الْفَقِيهِ مَنْ لَمْ يَقْطَعْ النَّاسَ مِنْ رَحْمَةِ اللَّهِ وَلَمْ يُؤَيِّسْهُمْ مِنْ رَوْحِ اللَّهِ وَلَمْ يُؤْمِنْهُمْ مِنْ مَكْرِ اللَّهِ.

90. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The perfect jurist of Islam is whoever does not let people lose hope of the mercy of Allāh, does not make him despondent of Allāh’s kindness and does not make them feel safe from Allāh’s punishment.”

٩١- وقال (عليه السلام): إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْقُلُوبَ تَمَلُّ كَمَا تَمَلُّ الْأَبْدَانُ، فَابْتَغُوا لَهَا طَرَائِفَ الْحِكْمِ.

91. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The hearts become bored as bodies become bored; so look for beautiful wise sayings for them.”

٩٢- وقال (عليه السلام): أَوْضَعُ الْعِلْمَ مَا وَقَفَ عَلَى اللِّسَانِ وَأَرْفَعُهُ مَا ظَهَرَ فِي الْجَوَارِحِ وَالْأَرْكَانِ.

92. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The most humble knowledge is that which remains on the tongue, and the most honorable one is that which manifests itself through (the action of) the limbs and the organs of the body.”

قال الرضي: و هذا من غريب ما سمع منه في التفسير.

93. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “None of you should say, ‘O Allāh! I seek Your protection against affliction’ because there is none who is not afflicted. But whoever seeks Allāh’s protection should seek it from misguiding troubles because Allāh, the Glorified One, says the following: And be admonished that your wealth and children are a trial (Qur’ān, 8:28). It means that He tries people with wealth and progeny in order to distinguish one who is displeased with his livelihood from one who is happy with what he has been given. Even though Allāh, the Glorified One, knows them more than they know themselves, He does so in order to let them perform actions with which they earn rewards or penalties. This is so because some of them like to have male (children) and dislike to have females, whereas some like to amass wealth and dislike adversity.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says that this is a wonderful interpretation related from the Imām عليه السلام.

٩٤- وَسُئِلَ عَنِ الْخَيْرِ مَا هُوَ، فَقَالَ: لَيْسَ الْخَيْرُ أَنْ يَكْثُرَ مَالُكَ وَوَلَدُكَ، وَلَكِنَّ الْخَيْرَ أَنْ يَكْثُرَ عِلْمُكَ وَأَنْ يَعْظُمَ حِلْمُكَ وَأَنْ تُبَاهِيَ النَّاسَ بِعِبَادَةِ رَبِّكَ، فَإِنْ أَحْسَنْتَ حَمِدَتِ اللَّهُ، وَإِنْ أَسَأْتَ اسْتَغْفَرَتِ اللَّهُ، وَلَا خَيْرَ فِي الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا لِرَجُلَيْنِ: رَجُلٌ أَتَنَبَّ ذُنُوبًا فَهُوَ يَتَدَارَكُهَا بِالتَّوْبَةِ، وَرَجُلٌ يُسَارِعُ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ.

94. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked what goodness is. He replied thus:” Goodness is not that your wealth and progeny should be much, but goodness is that your knowledge should be much, your forbearance should be great and that you should vie with other people in worshipping Allāh. If you do good deeds, you should thank Allāh, but if you commit evil, you should seek forgiveness of Allāh. In this world, goodness is for two persons only: the man who commits sins but rectifies them by repentance, and the man who hastens towards good deeds.”

٩٥- وقال (عليه السلام): لا يقلُّ عملٌ مع التقوى، وكيف يقلُّ ما يُتَقَبَّلُ؟!

95. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "Action accompanied by fear for

٩٦- وقال (عليه السلام): إِنَّ أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِالنَّبِيِّاءِ أَعْلَمُهُمْ بِمَا جَاءُوا بِهِ، ثُمَّ تَلَا: إِنَّ أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِإِبْرَاهِيمَ الَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُ وَهَذَا النَّبِيُّ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا – الْآيَةَ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: إِنَّ وَلِيَّ مُحَمَّدٍ مَنْ أَطَاعَ اللَّهَ وَإِنْ بَعُدَتْ لَحْمُهُ، وَإِنَّ عَدُوَّ مُحَمَّدٍ مَنْ عَصَى اللَّهَ وَإِنْ قَرُبَتْ قَرَابَتُهُ.

96. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The persons who are attracted to the prophets the most are those who know the most what the prophets have brought.” Then Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام recited this verse: Verily, of men, the nearest to Abraham are surely those who followed him and this (Our) Prophet (Muhammed) and those who believe (Qur’ān, 3:68). Then he said the following: “The friend of Muhammed ﷺ is whoever obeys Allāh, even though he may have no blood relationship [with him], and the enemy of Muhammed ﷺ is whoever disobeys Allāh even though he may have near kinship [with the Prophet ﷺ].”

¹Allāh says the following: إِنَّمَا يَقْبَلُ اللَّهُ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِينَ “Verily, Allāh does accept (an offering only) from those who guard (themselves against evil)” (Holy Qur’ān, 5:27).

٩٧- وسمع (عليه السلام) رجلاً من الحرورية يتهجّد ويقرأ فقال: نوّم على يقين خير من صلاة في شك.

97. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام heard a Khārijite performing mid-night prayers and reciting the Qur’ān, so he said: “Sleeping in a state of firm belief is better than praying in a state of doubt.”

٩٨- وقال (عليه السلام): اغفلوا الخبر إذا سمعتموه عقل رعاية، لا عقل رواية، فإن رواة العلم كثير، ورعاه قليل.

98. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “When you hear a tradition, test it according to the criterion of intelligence, not to that of mere hearsay, because those who relate knowledge are numerous, but those who safe-guard it are few.”

٩٩- وسمع رجلاً يقول: "إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون"، فقال: إن قولنا "إنا لله" إقرار على أنفسنا بالملك، وقولنا "وإنا إليه راجعون" إقرار على أنفسنا بالهلك.

99. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام heard a man reciting the following: “Verily, we are Allāh’s, and verily to Him shall we return” (Qur’ān, 2:156). The Imām عليه السلام said, “Our saying, Inna lillah (Verily we are Allāh’s) is an admission of His majesty over us, while our saying, Wa inna ilayhi raji’un (and verily to Him shall we return) is an admission of our being mortal.”

١٠٠- وقال (عليه السلام) ومدحه قوم في وجهه فقال: اللهم إني أعلم بي من نفسي، وأنا أعلم بنفسي منهم؛ اللهم اجعلنا خيراً مما يظنون واغفر لنا ما لا يعلمون.

100. Some people praised Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام in his presence. The Imām عليه السلام said: “O Lord! You know me better than I know myself, and I know myself better than they know. O Lord! Make us better people than what they think and forgive what they do not know.”

١٠١- وقال (عليه السلام): لا يستقيم قضاء الحوائج إلا بثلاثٍ باستصغارها لتعظم وباستكثامها لتظهر وبتغجيلها لتتهنؤ.

101. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The fulfillment of (others’) needs becomes a lasting virtue in three ways: regarding it as small, so that it attains greatness, concealing it so that it may manifest itself, and doing it quickly so that it may please them.”

١٠٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): يأتي على الناس زمان لا يقرب فيه إلا الماحل ولا يظرف فيه إلا الفاجر ولا يضعف فيه إلا المنصف، يغدون الصدقة فيه غرماً، وصلة الرّحم مناً، والعبادة استيالة على الناس؛ فعند ذلك يكون السلطان بمشورة النساء وإمارة الصّبيان وتدبير الخصيان.

102. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Shortly, a period of time will come for people when high [government] posts will be given only to those who defame others, when vicious people will be regarded as witty, whereas the fair ones will be regarded as weak. People will regard charity as a loss, consider kinship as a burden and worship as grounds for gaining prestige among others. At such a time, authority will be exercised through the counsel of women, and there will be posting of young boys in high places, and the administration will be run by eunuchs.”

أحب الدنيا وتولاها أبغض الآخرة وعادها، وهما بمنزلة المشرق والمغرب، وماش بينهما كلما قرب من واحد بعد من الآخر، وهما بغد ضرّتان.

103. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was publicly seen wearing worn-out clothes with patches. When it was pointed out to him, he said, “With it [such shabbiness of dressing] the heart fears, the mind feels humble and the believers emulate. Certainly this world and the next are enemies of each other, two paths in opposite directions. Whoever likes this world and loves it hates the next and is its enemy. These two are like the East and the West. If the walker between them gets close to one, he gets farther from the other. After all, they are like two fellow-wives.”

١٠٤ - وعن نوفّ البكالي، قال: رأيت أمير المؤمنين (عليه السلام) ذات ليلة وقد خرج من فراشه فنظر في النجوم، فقال لي: يا نوفّ أراقِد أنت أم راميّ؟ فقلت بل راميّ، قال: يا نوفّ، طوبى للزاهدين في الدنيا الراغبين في الآخرة، أولئك قوم اتخذوا الأرض بساطاً وثرابها فراشاً وماءها طيباً والقرآن شِعْراً والدُّعاء دِثْراً، ثم قرضوا الدنيا قرضاً على منهاج المسيح. يا نوفّ! إن داود (عليه السلام) قام في مثل هذه الساعة من الليل فقال إنها لساعة لا يدعُو فيها عبدٌ إلّا استُجيب له إلّا أن يكون عشاراً أو عريفاً أو شُرطيّاً أو صاحب عرْطبة - وهي الطنبور - أو صاحب كوبة - وهي الطبل، (وقد قيل أيضاً إن العرْطبة الطبل والكوبة الطنبور).

104. It is related by Nawf al-Bikali that: “One night, I saw Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام coming out of his bed and looking at the stars. Then he said to me: ‘O Nawf! Are you awake or asleep?’ I said: ‘I am awake, O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام!’ whereupon the Imām عليه السلام said the following: ‘O Nawf! Blessed be those who abstain from this world and are eager for the next. They are the people who regard this earth as the floor, its dust as their mattress and its water as their perfume. They recite the Holy Qur’ān in low tones and supplicate in high tones, then they are cut off from the world as Isa (Jesus) used to be.’”

“O Nawf! Prophet Dāwūd (David) عليه السلام rose up at a similar hour one night and said: This is the hour when whatever a person pleads, his plea is granted unless he is a tax-collector, an intelligence collector, a policeman, a lute player or a drummer.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says the following: “It is also said that ‘artabah’ means طبل (drum) and ‘kubah’ means lute.”

١٠٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): إِنَّ اللَّهَ افْتَرَضَ عَلَيْكُمْ فَرَائِضَ فَلَا تُضَيِّعُوهَا، وَحَدَّ لَكُمْ حُدُوداً فَلَا تَعْتَدُوهَا، وَنَهَاكُمْ عَنْ أَشْيَاءَ فَلَا تَنْتَهَكُوهَا، وَسَكَتَ لَكُمْ عَنْ أَشْيَاءَ وَلَمْ يَدْعَهَا نِسْيَاناً، فَلَا تَتَكَلَّفُوهَا.

105. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Allāh has placed on you some obligations which you should not ignore, has laid down for you limits which you should not transgress, has prohibited you from certain things which you should not violate and has kept quiet about certain things, but He has not left them out by mistake so that you should not find them.”

١٠٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): لَا يَثْرُكُ النَّاسُ شَيْئاً مِنْ أَمْرِ دِينِهِمْ لِاسْتِصْلَاحِ دُنْيَاهُمْ إِلَّا فَتَحَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مَا هُوَ أَضَرُّ مِنْهُ.

106. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If people abandon the doing of something related to the creed for the benefit of their worldly affairs, Allāh will inflict on them something more harmful than it.”

١٠٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): رَبِّ عَالِمٍ قَدْ قَتَلَهُ جَهْلُهُ وَعِلْمُهُ مَعَهُ لَا يَنْفَعُهُ.

107. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Often, the ignorance of a learned man ruins him, while the knowledge he has does not avail him.”

١٠٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): لَقَدْ عَلَّقَ بِنْيَاطِ هَذَا الْبَإْسَانِ بَضْعَةٌ هِيَ أَعْجَبُ مَا فِيهِ وَذَلِكَ الْقَلْبُ، وَذَلِكَ أَنَّ لَهُ مَوَادَّ مِنَ الْحِكْمَةِ وَأَضْدَاداً مِنْ خِلَافِهَا، فَإِنْ سَنَحَ لَهُ الرَّجَاءُ أَذَلَّهُ الطَّمَعُ، وَإِنْ هَاجَ بِهِ الطَّمَعُ أَهْلَكَهُ الْحِرْصُ، وَإِنْ مَلَكَهَ الْيَأْسُ قَتَلَهُ الْأَسْفُ، وَإِنْ عَرَضَ لَهُ الْغَضَبُ اسْتَدَّ بِهِ الْغَيْظُ، وَإِنْ أَسْعَدَهُ الرَّضَى نَسِيَ التَّحَفُّظَ، وَإِنْ غَالَهُ الْخَوْفُ شَغَلَهُ الْحَذَرُ، وَإِنْ اتَّسَعَ لَهُ الْأَمْرُ اسْتَلْبِثَهُ الْغَرَّةُ، وَإِنْ أَفَادَ مَالاً أَطْغَاهُ الْغِنَى، وَإِنْ أَصَابَتْهُ مُصِيبَةٌ فَضَحَتْهُ الْجَزَعُ، وَإِنْ عَضَّتْهُ الْفَاقَةُ شَغَلَهُ الْبَلَاءُ، وَإِنْ جَاهَدَهُ الْجُوعُ قَعَدَ بِهِ الضَّعْفُ، وَإِنْ أَقْرَطَ بِهِ الشَّبَعُ كَطَلَتْهُ الْبَطْنَةُ... فَكُلُّ تَقْصِيرٍ بِهِ مُضِرٌّ، وَكُلُّ إِفْرَاطٍ لَهُ مُقْسِدٌ.

108. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “In man, there is a piece of flesh attached to him which is the most amazing thing in him. It is the heart. It has a store of wisdom and things contrary to wisdom. If it sees a ray of hope, eagerness humiliates it, and when eagerness intensifies, greed ruins it. If disappointment overtakes it, grief kills it. If anger rises in it, a serious rage develops. If it is blessed with pleasure, it forgets to be cautious. If it is apprehensive, it becomes heedless. If peace extends all around it, it becomes neglectful. If it earns wealth, freedom from care places it in the wrong. If trouble befalls it, impatience makes it humble. If it faces starvation, distress overtakes it. If hunger attacks it, weakness seats it. If its food increases, heaviness of stomach pains it. Thus, every diminution harms it, and every excess is harmful.”

١٠٩- وقال (عليه السلام): نحنُ الثُّمْرَةُ الوُسْطَى، بها يلحقُ الثَّالِي، وإليها يرجعُ الغَالِي.

109. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “We (members of the Prophet’s family عليه) are like the pillow in the middle: Whoever lags behind has to come forward to meet it, while whoever exceeds the bounds has to return to it.”

١١٠- وقال (عليه السلام): لا يُقِيمُ أمرُ اللهِ سُبْحَانَهُ إلَّا مَنْ لا يُصَانِعُ ولا يُضَارِعُ ولا يَتَّبِعُ المطامِعَ.

110. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “None can establish the rule of Allāh, the Glorified One, except whoever shows no relenting (in the matter of what is right), who does not behave like wrong doers and who does not run to satisfy his greed.”

معنى ذلك أن المحنة تغلظ عليه فتسرع المصائب إليه و لا يفعل ذلك إلا بالاتقياء الأبرار و المصطفين الأخيار، و هذا مثل قوله (عليه السلام):

111. Sahl ibn Hunayf al-Ansāri died in Kūfa after his return from the battle of Siffīn, and he was very much loved by Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام. On this occasion, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Even if a mountain had loved me, it will have now crumbled.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says that the meaning of this statement is that since the trial of the man who loves Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام will be so, severe troubles will leap towards him, and this is not the case except with the God-fearing, the virtuous and the select good ones.” He adds saying that there is another similar saying of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib about certain individuals, and it is cited below:

١١٢ - مِنْ أَحَبَّنَا أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ فَلَيْسَتْ تُعَدُّ لِلْفَقْرِ جَلْبَابًا.

وقد يؤول ذلك على معنى آخر ليس هذا موضع ذكره.

112. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever loves us, we members of the Household (of the Prophet ﷺ), should be prepared to face destitution.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says that this has been interpreted in a different way as well, but on this occasion, it is not fit to mention here.¹

¹Perhaps the other meaning of this saying is this: “Whoever loves us should not hanker after worldly matters even though in consequence he may have to face destitution and poverty. He should rather remain content and avoid seeking worldly benefits.”

113. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “No wealth is more profitable than wisdom; no loneliness is more estranging than vanity; no wisdom is as good as tact; no honor is like fearing Allāh; no companion is like the goodness of moral character; no inheritance is like civility; no guide is like promptitude; no trade is like the doing of deeds of virtue; no profit is like a Divine reward; no self-control is like inaction in time of doubt; no abstention is like that from prohibitions; no knowledge is like thinking; no worship is like the carrying out of obligations; no belief is like modesty and endurance; no attainment is like humility; no honor is like knowledge; no power is like forbearance and no support is more reliable than a good piece of advice.”

114. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “At a time when virtue is in vogue in the world and among people, if a person entertains an evil suspicion about another person from whom nothing evil has ever been seen, he becomes unjust. And at a time when vice is in vogue in the world and among people, if a man entertains a good impression about another person, he hurls himself into peril.”

١١٥ - وقيل له (عليه السلام): كيف نجدك يا أمير المؤمنين؟ فقال (عليه السلام): كيف يكون حال من يقنى ببقائه ويسقم بصحته ويؤتى من مأمته؟

115. It was said to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام: “How are you, O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام?” He replied: How can he be well whom life is driving towards death, whose state of health can change into sickness any moment and who is to be caught (by death) from his place of safety?”

١١٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): كم من مستدرج بالبخسان إليه ومغرور بالستر عليه ومفتون بحسن القول فيه، وما ابتلى الله أحدا بمثل البلاء له.

116. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There are many people who are given time (by Allāh) through good treatment towards them. Many are deceived because their sinful activities are veiled. There are many who are impressed by good talk about themselves. And Allāh does not try anyone as seriously as He tries one whom He allows time (to remain sinful).”

١١٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): هلك في رجلان: مُحِبٌّ غال ومُبْغِضٌ قال.

117. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Two categories of persons will face ruin on my account: one who exaggerates in loving me and one who hates me intensely.”

١١٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): إضاعة الفرصة غصة.

118. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “To miss an opportunity is to be choked by grief.”

١١٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): مثل الدنيا كمثل الحية: لئن مسها والسم الناقع في جوفها، يهوي إليها الغر الجاهل، ويحذرها ذو اللب العاقل.

119. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The example of the world is like a snake: It is soft in touch but its inside is full of venom. An ignorant person who has fallen into deceit is attracted to it, but a wise and intelligent man stays on guard against it.”

١٢٠- وسئل (عليه السلام) عن قریش فقال: أما بنو مخزوم فريحانة قریش، أحبُّ حديث رجالهم والنكاح في نساءهم؛ وأما بنو عبد شمس فابعدُها رأياً وأمنعُها لما وراء ظهورها؛ وأما نحنُ فابذلُّ لما في أيدينا وأسمحُ عند الموتِ بنفوسينا، وهم أكثرُ وأمكرُ وأنكرُ، ونحنُ أقصحُ وأنصحُ وأصنحُ.

120. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked about the tribesmen of Quraish. He replied as follows: “As for Banū Makhzūm, they are the blossoms of the tribesmen of Quraish. It is delightful to talk to their men and to marry their women. As for Banū Abd Shams, they are far-sighted and cautious about all that is hidden from them. As for ourselves (Banū Hāshim), we spend whatever we get and are very generous in offering ourselves to death. Consequently, those (other) people are more numerous, more contriving and more ugly, while we are most eloquent, well-wishing and handsome!”

١٢١- وقال (عليه السلام): شتان ما بين عملين: عمل تذهب لذته وتبقى تبعته، وعمل تذهب مئونته ويبقى أجره.

121. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “What a difference there is between two kinds of actions: an action the pleasure of which passes away but its (ill) consequence remains, and an action the hardship of which passes away but its reward stays.”

١٢٢ - وتبع جنازة فسمع رجلاً يضحك فقال كأن الموت فيها على غيرنا كُتِبَ وكان الحق فيها على غيرنا وجب وكان الذي نرى من الأموات سفرًا عما قليل إلينا راجعون ثبوتهم أجدائهم وناكل ثرائهم كأننا مخلصون بغدهم ثم قد نسينا كل واعظ وواعظة ورؤينا بكل فادح وجائحة.

122. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was walking once behind a borne coffin when he heard someone laughing. He, therefore, said: “Is it that death has been ordained only for others? Is it that right is obligatory only on others? Is it that those whom we see departing on their death journey will come back to us? We place them in their graves then enjoy their estate (as if we will live for good after them). We have ignored every preacher, man or woman, exposing ourselves to every type of catastrophe.”

قال الرضي: أقول و من الناس من ينسب هذا الكلام إلى رسول الله (صلى الله عليه وآله) وكذلك الذي قبله.

123. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Blessed be whoever humbles himself, whose livelihood is pure, whose heart is pure, whose habits are virtuous, who spends his savings (in the cause of Allāh), who prevents his tongue from speaking nonsense, who keeps people safe from his evil, who is pleased with the (Prophet’s) Sunnah and who is unconnected with innovation (in religion).”

Sayyid ar-Radi says that some people attribute this and the previous saying to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

١٢٤ - وقال (عليه السلام): غيرة المرأة كفرٌ وغيرة الرجل إيمانٌ.

124. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The jealousy of a woman (with regard to fellow-wives) is heresy, while the jealousy of a man is part of his faith.”

١٢٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): لَا تَسُبَّنَ الْإِسْلَامَ نِسْبَةً لَمْ يَنْسُبْهَا أَحَدٌ قَبْلِي: الْإِسْلَامُ هُوَ التَّسْلِيمُ، وَالتَّسْلِيمُ هُوَ الْيَقِينُ، وَالْيَقِينُ هُوَ التَّصَدِيقُ، وَالتَّصَدِيقُ هُوَ الْبَاقِرَارُ، وَالْبَاقِرَارُ هُوَ الْإِدَاعُنُ وَالْإِدَاعُ هُوَ الْعَمَلُ.

125. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I am defining Islam as none has defined it before: Islam is submission, submission is conviction, conviction is affirmation, affirmation is acknowledgment, acknowledgment is carrying out (obligations) and carrying out obligations is action.”

١٢٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): عَجِبْتُ لِلْبَخِيلِ يَسْتَعِجِلُ الْفَقْرَ الَّذِي مِنْهُ هَرَبَ وَيَفُوتُهُ الْغِنَى الَّذِي إِيَّاهُ طَلَبَ، فَيَعِيشُ فِي الدُّنْيَا عَيْشَ الْفُقَرَاءِ وَيُحَاسِبُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ حِسَابَ الْأَغْنِيَاءِ. وَعَجِبْتُ لِلْمُتَكَبِّرِ الَّذِي كَانَ بِالْأَمْسِ نُطْفَةً وَيَكُونُ غَدًا جِيْفَةً. وَعَجِبْتُ لِمَنْ شَكَّ فِي اللَّهِ وَهُوَ يَرَى خَلْقَ اللَّهِ. وَعَجِبْتُ لِمَنْ نَسِيَ الْمَوْتَ وَهُوَ يَرَى الْمَوْتَى. وَعَجِبْتُ لِمَنْ أَنْكَرَ النُّشْأَةَ الْآخِرَى وَهُوَ يَرَى النُّشْأَةَ الْأُولَى. وَعَجِبْتُ لِعَامِرٍ دَارَ الْفَنَاءِ وَتَارِكٍ دَارَ الْبَقَاءِ.

126. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I wonder about a miser who hastens towards the very destitution from which he wants to run away, missing the very ease of life which he covets. Consequently, he passes his life in this world like the destitute but will have to render an account (of it) in the Hereafter like the rich.

I wonder about a proud man who was just a drop of semen the other day and will turn into a corpse tomorrow. I wonder about a man who doubts Allāh although He sees what He has created. I wonder about one who has forgotten death although he sees people dying. I wonder about one who denies the second life although he has seen the first. I wonder about one who inhabits this transient abode but ignores the everlasting one.”

١٢٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ قَصَرَ فِي الْعَمَلِ ابْتُلِيَ بِالْهَمِّ، وَلَا حَاجَةَ لِلَّهِ فِيمَنْ لَيْسَ لِلَّهِ فِي مَالِهِ وَنَفْسِهِ نَصِيبٌ.

127. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever falls short of good deeds falls into grief, and Allāh has nothing to do with one who sets aside nothing of his wealth for the sake of Allāh.”

١٢٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): توقّوا البرد في أوّلِهِ وتلقّوه في آخرِهِ، فإنّه يفعلُ في الأبدان كفعْلِهِ في الأشجار: أوّلُهُ يُحرقُ وآخرُهُ يُورقُ.

128. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Protect yourselves from cold in its (season’s) beginning and welcome it towards its end because it affects bodies in the same way as it affects plants: In the beginning, it destroys them, but in the end it gives them fresh leaves.”

During autumn (fall), protection from cold is necessary because with the change of weather, the body’s temperature also changes and ailments such as flu, catarrh, cough, etc. take place. This is so because bodies are accustomed to warm weather. When suddenly cold comes, the tissue becomes contracted, and cold dryness increases in the body. Thus, bathing with cold water soon after bathing with hot water is harmful for this very reason. With hot water, the tissues expand, so they at once admit the effect of cold water and, in consequence, the natural heat of the body is affected. On the other hand, there is no need for protection from cold during spring season, nor is it harmful for the health because the body is already accustomed to cold prior to that. Thus, the cold temperate of the spring is not unpleasant to the body. Rather, with the decline of cold, there is an increase of heat and dampness in the body as a result of which growth is stimulated, natural heat rises, the body cells multiply, the temperaments feel pleasant and the spirit is joyful. Similarly, there is the same effect in the plant world. Thus, during autumn, due to the prevalence of coldness and dryness, leaves wither, the vegetative power decreases, the freshness of the plants fades and there is a death-like effect on the green areas. Spring brings the message of life for them. Then with the blowing of healthy winds, blossoms begin to sprout, plants become fresh and healthy, and forests and wildernesses are all painted green.

١٢٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): عِظَمُ الخالقِ عِنْدَكَ يُصَغِّرُ المخلوقَ في عَيْنِكَ.

129. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The Greatness of the Creator appreciated by you will belittle the creatures in your view.”

١٣٠ - وقال (عليه السلام): وقد رجع من صَفِّين فاشترَف على القُبُور بظاهر الكُوفَةِ: يا أَهْل الدِّيَارِ المَوْحِشَةِ والمَحَالِّ المَقْفِرَةِ والقُبُورِ المَظْلِمَةِ! يا أَهْل التُّرْبَةِ! يا أَهْل الغُرْبَةِ! يا أَهْل الوَحْدَةِ! يا أَهْل الوَحْشَةِ! أنْتُمْ لَنَا فَرَطٌ سَابِقٌ، وَنَحْنُ لَكُمْ تَبِعٌ لَاحِقٌ؛ أَمَّا الدُّورُ فَقَدْ سَكُنَتْ، وَأَمَّا الزَّوْجُ فَقَدْ نُكِحَتْ، وَأَمَّا الْأَمْوَالُ فَقَدْ قُسِمَتْ. هَذَا خَيْرٌ مَا عِنْدَنَا، فَمَا خَيْرٌ مَا عِنْدَكُمْ؟ ثُمَّ التَفَتَ إِلَى أَصْحَابِهِ فَقَالَ: أَمَا لَوْ أَدْنَى لَهُمْ فِي الْكَلَامِ لِأَخْبِرُوكُمْ أَنَّ خَيْرَ الزَّادِ التَّقْوَى.

130. When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام returned from (the battle of) Siffīn and noticed the graves outside Kūfa, he said: “O residents of houses which give a sense of loneliness, of areas depopulated, of gloomy graves! O people of the dust! O victims of strangeness! O people of loneliness and O people of desolation! You have gone ahead and preceded us while we are following you and will join you. The houses (you left) have been inhabited by others; the wives (you left) have been married by others; the properties (you left) have been distributed (among heirs).

“This is the news about those around us; what is the news about things around you?!”

Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام then turned to his companions and said: “Beware! If they were allowed to speak, they will inform you that: Verily, the best provision is fear of Allāh (Qur’ān, 2:197).”

About those who unfairly blame life in this world:

١٣١ - وقال (عليه السلام) وقد سمع رجلاً يذمُّ الدُّنْيَا: أَيُّهَا الدَّامُ لِلدُّنْيَا الْمُغْتَرُّ بِغُرُورِهَا الْمَخْدُوعُ بِأَبَاطِيلِهَا، أَتَغْتَرُّ بِالدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ تَذُمَّهَا؟! أَنْتَ الْمُتَجَرِّمُ عَلَيْهَا أَمْ هِيَ الْمُتَجَرِّمَةُ عَلَيْكَ؟! مَتَى اسْتَهْوَتْكَ أَمْ مَتَى غَرَّتْكَ؟! أَمْ بِمَصَارِعِ آبَائِكَ مِنَ الْبَلَى أَمْ بِمَضَاجِعِ أُمَّهَاتِكَ تَحْتَ الثَّرَى؟! كَمْ عَلَلْتَ بِكَفِّكَ وَكَمْ مَرَضْتَ بِبَيْدِكَ؟! تَبْتَغِي لَهُمُ الشِّفَاءَ وَتَسْتَوْصِفُ لَهُمُ الْأَطِبَّاءَ غَدَاةً لَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ دَوَاؤُكَ وَلَا يُجْدِي عَلَيْهِمْ بَكَائُكَ؟! لَمْ يَنْفَعْ أَحَدَهُمْ إِشْفَاؤُكَ وَلَمْ تُسْغِفْ فِيهِ بِطَلِبَتِكَ وَلَمْ تَدْفَعْ عَنْهُ بِقُوَّتِكَ، وَقَدْ مَثَلْتَ لَكَ بِهِ الدُّنْيَا نَفْسَكَ وَبِمَصْرَعِهِ مَصْرَعَكَ. إِنَّ الدُّنْيَا دَارُ صِدْقٍ لِمَنْ صَدَقَهَا وَدَارُ عَافِيَةٍ لِمَنْ فَهَمَ عَنْهَا وَدَارُ غَنَى لِمَنْ تَزَوَّدَ مِنْهَا وَدَارُ مَوْعِظَةٍ لِمَنْ اتَّعَظَ بِهَا، مَسْجِدُ أَحِبَّاءِ اللَّهِ وَمُصَلًى مَلَائِكَةِ اللَّهِ وَمَهْبِطُ وَحْيِ اللَّهِ وَمُتَجَرُّ أَوْلِيَاءِ اللَّهِ، اكْتَسَبُوا فِيهَا الرَّحْمَةَ وَرَبَحُوا فِيهَا الْجَنَّةَ؛ فَمَنْ ذَا يَذُمَّهَا وَقَدْ أَذْنَتْ بَيْنَينَا وَنَادَتْ بِفِرَاقِهَا وَنَعَتْ نَفْسَهَا وَأَهْلَهَا فَمَثَلْتَ لَهُمْ بِلَانِهَا الْبَلَاءَ وَشَوْقَتَهُمْ بِسُرُورِهَا إِلَى السُّرُورِ؟! رَاحَتْ بِعَافِيَةٍ وَابْتَكُرَتْ بِفَجِيعَةٍ تَرْغِيباً وَتَرْهِيباً وَتَخْوِيفاً وَتَحْذِيرَافاً، فَذَمُّهَا رَجَالُ غَدَاةِ النَّدَامَةِ وَحَمْدُهَا آخَرُونَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ، ذَكَرْتَهُمُ الدُّنْيَا فَتَذَكَّرُوا، وَحَدَّثْتَهُمْ فَصَدَّقُوا، وَوَعِظْتَهُمْ فَاتَّعَظُوا.

131. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام heard a man speaking ill of life in this world, so he said to him: “O you, the man who abuses the world! O you who has been deceived by it and is cheated by its wrongs! Do you thus covet the world then abuse it?! Do you accuse it or should it accuse you?! When did it bewilder you or deceive you, whether by the decay and fall of your forefathers, or by the sleeping places of your mothers deep under the ground? How much did you look after them in their illness and nursed them during sickness, desiring them to be cured and consulting physicians for them in the morning when your medicine did not avail them and your wailing for them did not benefit them? Your mourning over them did not prove useful to them, and you could not achieve your aim. You could not ward off (death) from them with all your power. In fact, through the dying man, the world presented an illustration for you by the example of his falling down how you, too, will fall.

“Certainly, this world is a house of truth for whoever appreciates it, a place of safety for whoever understands it, a house of riches for whoever gathers provision from it (for the Hereafter), and a house of instructions for whoever draws instruction from it. It is the place of worship for those who love Allāh, the place of praying for the angels of Allāh, the place where the revelation of Allāh descends, and the trading place for those devoted to Allāh. Herein, they earned mercy and herein they acquired Paradise by way of profit.

“Therefore, who can abuse it when it has announced its departure, calling out that it will leave?! It had given news of its own destruction and the death of its own people. By its hardship, it set an example of their hardships. By its pleasures, it created eagerness for the pleasures (of the Hereafter). It brings ease in the evening and grief in the morning by way of persuading, dissuading, alarming and warning. People abuse it on the morning of their repentance, but there are others who will praise it on the Day of Judgment. The world recalled to them the next life and they bore it in mind. It related to them (things of the next life) and they acknowledged them. It preached to them and they derived lessons from them.”¹

١٣٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): إِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَلَكًا يُنَادِي فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ: لِدُّوا لِلْمَوْتِ، واجْمَعُوا لِلْفَنَاءِ، وابْنُوا لِلْخَرَابِ.

132. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There is an angel of Allāh who calls out every day: “Beget children for death! Gather wealth for destruction and raise construction for ruin!”

١٣٣ - وقال (عليه السلام): الدُّنْيَا دَارُ مَمَرٍ لَا دَارَ مَقَرٍّ، وَالنَّاسُ فِيهَا رَجُلَانِ: رَجُلٌ بَاعَ فِيهَا نَفْسَهُ فَأَوْبَقَهَا، وَرَجُلٌ ابْتَنَعَ نَفْسَهُ فَأَعْتَقَهَا.

133. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “This world is a transient place, not a place of stay. The people herein are of two types: One is a man who sold away his soul (to his passions) and thus ruined it, and the other is a man who purchased his soul (by controlling his desires) and freed it.”

١٣٤- وقال (عليه السلام): لا يَكُونُ الصَّدِيقُ صَدِيقاً حَتَّى يَحْفَظَ أَخَاهُ فِي ثَلَاثٍ: فِي نَكْبَتِهِ وَغَيْبَتِهِ وَوَفَاتِهِ.

134. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A friend is not a friend unless he affords protection to his comrade on three occasions: in his adversity, in his absence and at the time of his death.”

قال الرضي: و تصديق ذلك كتاب الله: قال الله في الدعاء: ﴿ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ﴾، وقال في الاستغفار: ﴿وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ سُوءاً أَوْ يَظْلِمْ نَفْسَهُ ثُمَّ يَسْتَغْفِرِ اللَّهَ يَجِدِ اللَّهَ غَفوراً رحيماً﴾، وقال في الشكر: ﴿لَنْ نَشْكُرَكُمْ لَأَزيدنَّكُمْ﴾، وقال في التوبة: ﴿إِنَّمَا التَّوْبَةُ عَلَى اللَّهِ لِلَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ السُّوءَ بِجَهَالَةٍ ثُمَّ يَتُوبُونَ مِنْ قَرِيبٍ، فَأُولَئِكَ يَتُوبُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ، وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلِيماً حَكِيماً﴾.

135. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever is bestowed four things is not disallowed four things: Whoever is allowed to pray is not deprived of the response; whoever is allowed to offer repentance is not deprived of acceptance; whoever is allowed to seek forgiveness is not deprived of forgiveness, and whoever is allowed to be grateful is not deprived of furtherance of favors.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says that this is confirmed by the Book of Allāh. About praying, Allāh says, “Call to Me, I will answer you” (Qur’ān, 4:60). About forgiveness Allāh says, “And whoever does evil, or wrongs his own self and thereafter seeks Allāh’s forgiveness shall find Allāh oft-Forgiving, most Merciful” (Qur’ān, 4:110). About gratefulness He says, “If you show gratitude, I will increase (my favors) to you” (Qur’ān, 14:7). About repentance He says, “Verily, repentance (acceptable) with Allāh is only for those who do evil out of ignorance then turn (to Allāh) soon (thereafter); to these, Allāh will turn mercifully, and Allāh is all-Knowing, all-Wise” (Qur’ān, 4:17).

١٣٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): الصلاة قرْبَانُ كُلِّ تَقِيٍّ، والحجُّ جهادُ كُلِّ ضَعِيفٍ، ولكُلِّ شَيْءٍ زَكَاةٌ، وزَكَاةُ الْبَدَنِ الصَّيَامُ، وجهادُ الْمَرْأَةِ حُسْنُ التَّبَعْلِ.

136. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “For the God-fearing, prayers is a means of seeking nearness to Allāh, and for the weak, the hajj is as good as jihād. For everything there is a tax, and the tax of the body is fasting. The jihād of a woman is to afford pleasant company to her husband.”

١٣٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): اسْتَغْنَوْا الرِّزْقَ بِالصَّدَقَةِ.

137. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Seek livelihood by giving charity.”

١٣٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ أَيْقَنَ بِالْخَلْفِ جَادَ بِالْعَطِيَّةِ.

138. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever is sure of a good return is generous in giving.”

١٣٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): تنزلُ المعونةُ على قدرِ المؤونةِ.

139. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Assistance is allowed according to (one’s) need.”

١٤٠ - وقال (عليه السلام): ما عال من اقتصد.

140. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever is moderate does not become a destitute.”

١٤١ - وقال (عليه السلام): قلةُ العيال أحدُ اليسارين.

141. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A small family is one of the ways of (securing) ease.”

١٤٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): التودُّدُ نصفُ العقل.

142. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Loving one another is half the measure of wisdom.”

١٤٣ - وقال (عليه السلام): الهمُّ نصفُ الهرم.

143. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Grief is half the old age.”¹

١٤٤ - وقال (عليه السلام): ينزلُ الصبرُ على قدرِ المصيبةِ، ومن ضرب يدهُ على فخذهِ عندَ مُصيبتهِ حبطَ عملهُ.

144. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Endurance comes according to affliction. Whoever beats his hand on the thigh in his affliction ruins all his good deeds.”

١٤٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): كم من صائمٍ ليس له من صيامه إلا الجوعُ والظما، وكم من قائمٍ ليس له من قيامه إلا السهرُ والعناء؟ حبذا نومُ الأكياس وإفطارُهُم.

145. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There are many who fast but ¹I think the other half is sickness.

whose fast is nothing more than hunger and thirst. There are many who pray and whose prayer is not better than wakefulness and hardship: The sleep as well as the eating and drinking of the intelligent (God-fearing) individual is far better.”

١٤٦- وقال (عليه السلام): سَوْسُوا إِيمَانَكُمْ بِالصَّدَقَةِ، وَحَصِّنُوا أَمْوَالَكُمْ بِالزَّكَاةِ، وَانْقَعُوا أَمْوَاجَ الْبَلَاءِ بِالدُّعَاءِ.

146. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Protect your belief through charity; guard your wealth by paying Allāh’s share thereof, and repel the waves of calamity with supplication.”

Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib's dialogue with Kumayl ibn Ziyād al-Nakh'i

People are of three kinds:

١٤٧- ومن كلام له (عليه السلام) لَكُمْ مِيلُ بَنِ زِيَادٍ النَّخَعِيِّ: قَالَ كُمَيْلُ بْنُ زِيَادٍ: أَخَذَ بِيَدِي أَمِيرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ (عليه السلام) فَأَخْرَجَنِي إِلَى الْجَبَانِ، فَلَمَّا أَصْحَرَ تَنَفَّسَ الصُّعْدَاءُ ثُمَّ قَالَ: يَا كُمَيْلُ بْنُ زِيَادٍ! إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْقُلُوبَ أَوْعِيَّةٌ، فَخَيْرُهَا أَوْعَاهَا، فَاحْفَظْ عَنِّي مَا أَقُولُ لَكَ: النَّاسُ ثَلَاثَةٌ: فَعَالِمٌ رَبَّائِيٍّ، وَمُتَعَلِّمٌ عَلَى سَبِيلِ نَجَاةٍ، وَهَمَّجٌ رِعَاغٌ أَتْبَاعُ كُلِّ نَاعِقٍ، يَمِيلُونَ مَعَ كُلِّ رِيحٍ، لَمْ يَسْتَضِيئُوا بِنُورِ الْعِلْمِ وَلَمْ يَلْجَأُوا إِلَى رُكْنٍ وَثِيقٍ. يَا كُمَيْلُ! الْعِلْمُ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الْمَالِ؛ الْعِلْمُ يَخْرُسُكَ وَأَنْتَ تَخْرُسُ الْمَالَ، وَالْمَالُ تَنْقُصُهُ النِّفَقَةُ وَالْعِلْمُ يَزْكُوا عَلَى الْإِنْفَاقِ، وَصَنِيعُ الْمَالِ يَزُولُ بِزَوَالِهِ. يَا كُمَيْلُ بْنُ زِيَادٍ! مَعْرِفَةُ الْعِلْمِ دِينَ يُدَانُ بِهِ، بِهِ يَكْسِبُ الْبَشَرُ الطَّاعَةَ فِي حَيَاتِهِ وَجَمِيلَ الْآخِذُوثَةِ بَعْدَ وَفَاتِهِ، وَالْعِلْمُ حَاكِمٌ وَالْمَالُ مُحْكُومٌ عَلَيْهِ. يَا كُمَيْلُ! هَلْكَ خُزَانُ الْأَمْوَالِ وَهُمْ أَحْيَاءٌ وَالْعُلَمَاءُ بَاقُونَ مَا بَقِيَ الدَّهْرُ، أَغْيَاثُهُمْ مَقْفُودَةٌ وَأَمْثَالُهُمْ فِي الْقُلُوبِ مَوْجُودَةٌ؛ هَا إِنَّ هَاهُنَا لِعِلْمًا جَمًّا -- وَأَشَارَ بِيَدِهِ إِلَى صَنْدَرِهِ -- لَوْ أَصْبَتَ لَهُ حَمَلَةٌ؛ بَلَى أَصْبَتَ لِقَنَا غَيْرَ مَأْمُونٍ عَلَيْهِ مُسْتَعْمِلًا آلَةَ الدِّينِ لِلدُّنْيَا وَمُسْتَظْهِرًا بِنِعْمِ اللَّهِ عَلَى عِبَادِهِ وَبِحُجْجِهِ عَلَى أَوْلِيَائِهِ، أَوْ مُنْقَادًا لِحَمَلَةِ الْحَقِّ، لَا بِصِيرَةٍ لَهُ فِي أَخْنَانِهِ، يَنْقُدُ الشُّكَّ فِي قَلْبِهِ لِأَوَّلِ عَارِضٍ مِنْ شُبْهَةٍ؛ أَلَا لَا ذَا وَلَا ذَاكَ، أَوْ مَنُوهًا بِاللَّذَّةِ سَلَسِ الْقِيَادِ لِلشَّهْوَةِ أَوْ مُغْرَمًا بِالْجَمْعِ وَالْبَدْخَارِ لِنِسَاءٍ مِنْ رِعَاةِ الدِّينِ فِي شَيْءٍ أَقْرَبُ شَيْءٍ شَبِهَا بِهِمَا الْأَنْعَامُ السَّائِمَةُ، كَذَلِكَ يَمُوتُ الْعِلْمُ بِمَوْتِ حَامِلِيهِ. اللَّهُمَّ بَلَى لَا تَخْلُو الْأَرْضَ مِنْ قَائِمٍ لِلَّهِ بِحُجَّةٍ، إِمَّا ظَاهِرًا مَشْهُورًا وَإِمَّا خَائِفًا مَغْمُورًا، لِنَلَّا تَبْطُلَ حُجْجُ اللَّهِ وَبَيِّنَاتُهُ؛ وَكَمْ ذَا وَآيْنٍ أَوْلَنِكَ؟ أَوْلَنِكَ وَاللَّهُ الْآقِلُونَ عِدْدًا وَالْأَعْظَمُونَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ قَدْرًا، يَحْفَظُ اللَّهُ بِهِمْ حُجْجَهُ وَبَيِّنَاتِهِ حَتَّى يُودِعُوهَا نُظْرَاءَهُمْ وَيَزِرُوهَا فِي قُلُوبِ أَشْبَاهِهِمْ، هَجَمَ بِهِمُ الْعِلْمُ عَلَى حَقِيقَةِ الْبَصِيرَةِ وَبَاشَرُوا رُوحَ الْيَقِينِ وَاسْتَلْثَمُوا مَا اسْتَوْعَرَهُ الْمُتَرَفُّونَ وَأَنْسَوْا بِمَا اسْتَوْحَشَ مِنْهُ الْجَاهِلُونَ، وَصَحَبُوا الدُّنْيَا بِأَنْدَانِ أَرْوَاحِهَا مُعَلِّقَةً بِالْمَحَلِّ الْأَعْلَى؛ أَوْلَنِكَ خُلَفَاءُ اللَّهِ فِي أَرْضِهِ وَالِدُعَاةُ إِلَى دِينِهِ... آهْ آهْ شَوْقًا إِلَى رُؤْيَيْهِمْ...! أَنْصَرَفَ يَا كُمَيْلُ إِذَا شِئْتَ...

147. Kumayl ibn Ziyād¹ has related saying that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ¹Famous for "Du'a Kumayl," Kumayl's Supplication, Kumayl ibn Ziyād an-Nakh'i was the holder of the secrets of the Imāmate and one of the most prominent companions of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام. He held a great status in knowledge and attainment, occupying a sublime position due to abstinence and Godliness. He was Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib's governor of Hīt (a city 190 km northwest of Baghdad, Iraq) for some time. He was killed by blood-thirsty al-Hajjāj ibn Yousuf ath-Thaqafi in 83 A.H./702 A.D. although he was ninety years old.... He was buried in Kūfa's outskirts.

عليه السلام caught hold of his hand and took him to the graveyard. When the Imām عليه السلام had passed through the graveyard, leaving the city (Kūfa) behind, he let a deep sigh and said the following:

“O Kumayl! These hearts are containers: The best of them is that which preserves (its contents); so, preserve what I say to you:

“People are of three types: One is the scholar and the Divine. Another is the seeker of knowledge who is also on the way to deliverance. The third is the common rot that runs after every caller and bends in the direction of every wind, seeking no light from the glory of knowledge taking no protection from any reliable support.

“O Kumayl! Knowledge is better than wealth. Knowledge guards you, while you have to guard wealth. Wealth decreases by spending, while knowledge multiplies through dissemination, and the results of wealth die as wealth decays.

“O Kumayl! Knowledge is belief which is acted on. With it, man acquires obedience during his life and a good name after his death. Knowledge rules whereas wealth is ruled.

“O Kumayl! Those who amass wealth are dead even though they may be living, while those endowed with knowledge will remain as long as the world lives. Their bodies are not available but their figures exist in the hearts. Look, here is a heap of knowledge (Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام then pointed to his bosom). I wish I could get someone to bear it. Yes, I did find (such a person): He either is one on whom nobody can rely, or he is one who exploits religion for worldly gains. By virtue of Allāh’s favors on him, he will dominate the people, and through Allāh’s pleas he will master His devotees. Or he is one who obeys those who listen to the truth while having no intelligence in his bosom. At the first appearance of doubt, he will entertain misgivings in his heart.

“So, neither this nor that is good enough. Either man is eager for pleasures, easily led away by passions, or he covets and hoards wealth. Neither of them has any regard for religion in any matter.

The nearest similitude to these (categories of men) is loose cattle. This is the way knowledge dies as those who bear it die.

“O Lord! Yes! The earth is never without those who maintain Allāh’s plea either openly and reputedly or, being afraid, discreetly so that Allāh’s pleas and proofs will not be rebutted. How many are they and where are they? By Allāh, they are few in number, but they are great in esteem before Allāh. Through them, Allāh guards His pleas and proofs till they are entrusted to others like themselves who sow the seeds thereof in the hearts of those who are like them (receptive to them).

“Knowledge has led them to a real understanding, so they have associated themselves with the spirit of conviction. They take easy what the easygoing regard as hard. They endear what the ignorant take as strange. They live in this world with their bodies here but with their spirits resting in the high above. They are the vicegerents of Allāh on His earth and the advocates of His creed. O, how I yearn to see them!

“Go away, O Kumayl, if you please!”

١٤٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): المرء مخبوءٌ تحت لسانه.

148. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Man is hidden under his tongue¹. You cannot know his worth and value (unless he speaks).”

١٤٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): هلك امرؤ لم يغرف قدره.

149. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever does not know his own worth is ruined.”

¹The meaning is that a man’s worth can be known by his speech because the speech of every person is indicative of his mind and mannerism. By virtue of it, his feelings and temperament can be very easily assessed. Therefore, so long as he is silent, his weaknesses, as well as attainments, are concealed, but when he speaks, his real self manifests itself.

Man is hidden under his tongue... unless he speaks.

On Preaching

١٥٠ - وقال (عليه السلام) لِرَجُلٍ سألَهُ أَنْ يَعِظَهُ: لَا تَكُنْ مِمَّنْ يَرْجُو الْآخِرَةَ بِغَيْرِ عَمَلٍ، وَيُرْجَى التَّوْبَةُ بِطَوْلِ الْأَمَلِ؛ يَقُولُ فِي الدُّنْيَا بِقَوْلِ الزَّاهِدِينَ وَيَعْمَلُ فِيهَا بِعَمَلِ الرَّاحِيينَ. إِنْ أُعْطِيَ مِنْهَا لَمْ يَشْبَعْ، وَإِنْ مُنِعَ مِنْهَا لَمْ يَقْنَعْ؛ يَعْجِزُ عَنْ شُكْرِ مَا أُوتِيَ وَيَبْتَغِي الزَّيَادَةَ فِيهَا بَقِيٍّ؛ يَنْهَى وَلَا يَنْتَهِي، وَيَأْمُرُ بِمَا لَا يَأْتِي؛ يُحِبُّ الصَّالِحِينَ وَلَا يَعْمَلُ عَمَلَهُمْ، وَيُبْغِضُ الْمَذْنِبِينَ وَهُوَ أَحَدُهُمْ؛ يَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ لِكثَرَةِ ذُنُوبِهِ وَيُقِيمُ عَلَى مَا يَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ مِنْ أَجْلِهِ. إِنْ سَقِمَ ظَلَّ نَادِمًا، وَإِنْ صَحَّ أَمِنَ لَا هِيَ، يُعْجَبُ بِنَفْسِهِ إِذَا عُوْفِي وَيَقْنَطُ إِذَا ابْتُلِيَ. إِنْ أَصَابَهُ بَلَاءٌ دَعَا مُضْطَرًّا، وَإِنْ نَالَهُ رَخَاءٌ أَعْرَضَ مُقْتَرًّا، تَغْلِبُهُ نَفْسُهُ عَلَى مَا يَظُنُّ وَلَا يَغْلِبُهَا عَلَى مَا يَسْتَتِيقُنْ، يَخَافُ عَلَى غَيْرِهِ بِأَذْنَى مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ وَيَرْجُو لِنَفْسِهِ بِأَكْثَرِ مِنْ عَمَلِهِ. إِنْ اسْتَعْنَى بِطَرٍّ وَفَتَنَ، وَإِنْ افْتَقَرَ قَنَطَ وَوَهَنَ؛ يَقْصُرُ إِذَا عَمِلَ وَيُبَالِغُ إِذَا سَأَلَ. إِنْ عَرْضَتْ لَهُ شَهْوَةٌ اسْتَلَفَ الْمَعْصِيَةَ وَسَوَّفَ التَّوْبَةَ، وَإِنْ عَرِثَتْهُ مِخْنَةٌ انْفَرَجَ عَنْ شَرَائِطِ الْمَلَّةِ، يَصِفُ الْعِبْرَةَ وَلَا يَتَّعِبُ، وَيُبَالِغُ فِي الْمَوْعِظَةِ وَلَا يَتَّعِظُ، فَهُوَ بِالْقَوْلِ مُدِلٌّ وَمِنَ الْعَمَلِ مُقِلٌّ، يُنَافِسُ فِيمَا يَقْنَى وَيُسَامِحُ فِيمَا يَبْقَى، يَرَى الْغَنَمَ مَغْرَمًا وَالْغَرَمَ مَغْنَمًا، يَخْشَى الْمَوْتَ وَلَا يُبَادِرُ الْفَوْتَ، يَسْتَعْظِمُ مِنْ مَعْصِيَةِ غَيْرِهِ مَا يَسْتَقِلُّ أَكْثَرَ مِنْهُ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ، وَيَسْتَكْثِرُ مِنْ طَاعَتِهِ مَا يَحْقِرُهُ مِنْ طَاعَةِ غَيْرِهِ، فَهُوَ عَلَى النَّاسِ طَاعِنٌ وَلِنَفْسِهِ مُدَاهِنٌ، اللَّهُوْ مَعَ الْأَغْنِيَاءِ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْهِ مِنَ الدُّكْرِ مَعَ الْفُقَرَاءِ، يَحْكُمُ عَلَى غَيْرِهِ لِنَفْسِهِ وَلَا يَحْكُمُ عَلَيْهَا لِغَيْرِهِ، يُرْشِدُ غَيْرَهُ وَيُغْوِي نَفْسَهُ، فَهُوَ يُطَاعُ وَيَعْصَى وَيَسْتَوْفَى وَلَا يُوفَى، وَيَخْشَى الْخَلْقَ فِي غَيْرِ رَبِّهِ وَلَا يَخْشَى رَبَّهُ فِي خَلْقِهِ.

قال الرضي: و لو لم يكن في هذا الكتاب إلا هذا الكلام لكفى به موعظة ناجعة و حكمة بالغة و بصيرة لمبصر و عبرة لناظر مفكر.

150. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following to a man who had requested him to preach: “Do not be like one who hopes for (bliss in) the next life without action and delays repentance by prolonging his desires, who utters words like ascetics in this world but whose actions are like those who are eager for it. If he is granted something of it, he does not feel satisfied. If he is denied, he is not content. He is not grateful for what he gets and covets an increase in whatever remains with him. He curbs others (from wrongdoing) but not his own self. He commands others for what he himself does not do. He loves the virtuous but does not behave like them. He hates the vicious but he himself is one of them. He dislikes death because of the excess of his sins but adheres to that because of which he is afraid of death.

“If he falls ill, he feels ashamed: If he is healthy, he feels secure and indulges in amusements. When he recovers from illness, he feels vain about himself. When he is afflicted, he loses hope. If distress befalls him, he prays like a bewildered man. When he finds ease of life, he falls into deceit and turns his face away. His heart overpowers him by means of imaginary things while he cannot control his heart by his conviction. For others, he is afraid of minor sins, but for himself, he expects more rewards than his performance. If he becomes wealthy, he becomes self-conscious and falls into vice. If he is impoverished, he despairs and becomes weak. He is brief when he is doing a good thing but goes too far when he is begging. When passion overtakes him, he is quick in committing sin but delays repentance. If hardship befalls him, he goes beyond the canons of the (Islamic) community. He describes instructive events but does not take instruction himself. He preaches at length but does not accept any preaching for himself. He is tall on speech but short on action. He aspires for things that will perish and ignores things that will last for good. He regards profit as loss and loss as profit. He fears death but does nothing while expecting it.

“He regards the sins of others as big but considers the same things for himself as small. If he does something in obedience to Allāh, he considers it much, but if others do the same, he considers it small. He, therefore, rebukes others but flatters himself. Entertainment in the company of the wealthy is dearer to him than remembrance (of Allāh) in the company of the poor. He passes verdicts against others for his own interests and does not do so against himself for others’ interests. He guides others but misguides himself. He is obeyed by others but he himself disobeys (Allāh). He seeks the fulfillment of obligations (to himself) but does not fulfill his own obligations (towards others). He fears people (and actions) for others besides his Lord (Allāh) and does not fear his Lord as he deals with the public.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says that if this book had contained nothing save this short statement, it will have sufficed as a successful piece of preaching, a specimen of high philosophy, an objective of wisdom for the onlooker and a source of instruction for the meditative onlooker.

١٥١- وقال (عليه السلام): لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ عَاقِبَةٌ خُلُوءٌ أَوْ مُرَّةٌ

151. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Every human being has to meet the end, sweet or sour.”

١٥٢- وقال (عليه السلام): لِكُلِّ مُقْبِلٍ إِذْبَارٌ، وَمَا أَذْبَرَ كَانَ لَمْ يَكُنْ

152. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whatever approaches departs, and if anything departs, it is as though it never existed.”

١٥٣- وقال (عليه السلام): لَا يَغْدُمُ الصَّبْرُ الظُّفْرَ وَإِنْ طَالَ بِهِ الزَّمَانُ

153. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The one who endures does not miss success although it may take a long time.”

١٥٤- وقال (عليه السلام): الرَّاضِي بِفِعْلِ قَوْمٍ كَالدَّاخِلِ فِيهِمْ، وَعَلَى كُلِّ دَاخِلٍ فِي بَاطِلٍ إِثْمَانٌ: إِثْمُ الْعَمَلِ بِهِ، وَإِثْمُ الرِّضَى بِهِ

154. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever agrees with the action of some people is as though he participates with them in it. And anyone who joins others in a wrongdoing commits two sins: one for committing the wrongdoing and the other for accepting it.”

١٥٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): اغتصموا بالذمم في أوتادها

155. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Adhere to your covenants, entrusting their fulfillment to steadfast persons.”

١٥٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): عليكم بطاعة من لا تُغذرون بجهالته

156. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “On you lies (the obligation of) obedience to the person about whom you cannot plead the excuse of ignorance.”¹

١٥٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): قد بُصِّرْتُمْ إِنْ أَبْصَرْتُمْ وَقَدْ هُدِيتُمْ إِنْ اهْتَدَيْتُمْ وَأَسْمِعْتُمْ إِنْ اسْتَمِعْتُمْ.

157. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Your minds are opened when you see. You are guided when you receive guidance, and you are made to hear when you do hear.”

١٥٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): عَاتِبْ أَخَاكَ بِالْإِحْسَانِ إِلَيْهِ، وَارْذُذْ شَرَّهُ بِالْإِنْعَامِ عَلَيْهِ.

¹Just as Allāh sent prophets as a token of His justice and mercy to guide and direct us towards a perfect life and even a better hereafter, likewise, He has laid down the system of the Imāmate to protect the creed from alteration, so that every Imām may save the Divine teachings from the onslaught of personal desires and give directions about the correct principles of Islam. And just as it is obligatory to know the pioneer of the faith (i.e. the Prophet ﷺ), it is necessary to know its protector. Whoever remains ignorant of him cannot be excused. This is so because the issue of Imāmate is supported by so many proofs and testimonies that no intelligent person can find any way to deny it. Thus, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has said, “Whoever dies without knowing the Imām of his times dies the death of jāhiliyya (the pre-Islamic period of ignorance and oppression).” One’s life-span is limited, but the punishment for oppression is perpetual Hell. Its most fearful aspect is that life there will last forever, without an end, and there will be no death for one to be spared its punishment. This is why, if an oppressor kills someone, with such killing, the oppression terminates, and there is no further scope for any further oppression on the same person.

158. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Remonstrate with your brother by being kind to him, and respond to his evil by being generous to him.”

١٥٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): من وضع نفسه مواضع التهمة فلا يلومن من أساء به الظن.

159. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If one places himself where he may be charged, let him not blame those who may think ill of him.”

١٦٠ - وقال (عليه السلام): من ملك استأثر.

160. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who possesses (riches) prefers himself over others.”

١٦١ - وقال (عليه السلام): من استبد برأيه هلك، ومن شاور الرجال شاركها في عقولها.

161. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who follows only his view perishes, and one who consults with others shares their wisdom.”

١٦٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): من كتم سره كانت خيره بيده.

162. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who hides his secret holds his own option.”

١٦٣ - وقال (عليه السلام): الفقر الموت الأكبر.

163. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Poverty is the greatest death.”

١٦٤ - وقال (عليه السلام): من قضى حق من لا يقضى حقه فقد عبده.

164. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If one is fair to another person who is not fair to him, it is as though he worships him.”

١٦٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): لا طاعة لمخلوق في معصية الخالق.

165. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “No creature should be obeyed if such obedience means disobeying the Creator.”

١٦٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): لا يُعَابُ المرءُ بِتَأخيرِ حقِّه، إِنما يُعَابُ منْ أَخَذَ ما لَيْسَ لَهُ.

166. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “No blame should be placed on one in delaying taking what belongs to him; blame should be on the one who takes what does not belong to him.”

١٦٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): البِاعْجَابُ يَمْنَعُ الزَّيْدِيَّادَ.

167. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Conceit stops one from pursuing perfection.”

١٦٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): الأَمْرُ قَرِيبٌ وَالْبَاصِطِحَابُ قَلِيلٌ.

168. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The undertaking is near, but the company is not.”

١٦٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): قَدْ أَضَاءَ الصُّبْحُ لِذِي عَيْنَيْنِ.

169. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The morning surely shines for those who have vision.”

١٧٠ - وقال (عليه السلام): تَرَكُ الذَّنْبِ أَهْوَنُ مِنْ طَلَبِ الْمَعُونَةِ.

170. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Abandoning a sin is easier than seeking help (thereafter).”

١٧١ - وقال (عليه السلام): كَمْ مِنْ أَكْلَةٍ مَنَعَتْ أَكْلَاتٍ.

171. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “How often one meal blocks many!”

١٧٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): النَّاسُ أَغْدَاءُ ما جَهِلُوا.

172. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “People are enemies of what they do not know.”

١٧٣ - وقال (عليه السلام): منْ اسْتَقْبَلَ وُجُوهُ النَّارِ عَرَفَ مَوَاقِعَ الْخَطَا.

173. One who welcomes various views gets to know where error lies.”

١٧٤- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ أَحَدَ سِنَانِ الْغَضَبِ لِلَّهِ قَوِي عَلَى قَتْلِ أَشِدَّاءِ الْبَاطِلِ.

174. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who sharpens his weapon seeking revenge against those who incur the Wrath of Allāh will be strong enough to kill those who are strong in committing falsehood.”

١٧٥- وقال (عليه السلام): إِذَا هَبْتَ أَمْرًا فَفَعَّ فِيهِ، فَإِنَّ شِدَّةَ تَوْقِيهِ أَكْثَرُ مِمَّا تَخَافُ مِنْهُ.

175. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If you fear doing something, then do it, because your fear (itself) is greater than actually doing it!”

١٧٦- وقال (عليه السلام): آلَةُ الرِّيَاسَةِ سَعَةُ الصَّدْرِ.

176. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The mechanism whereby one earns mastership is forbearance.”

١٧٧- وقال (عليه السلام): اِزْجُرِ الْمُسِيءَ بِثَوَابِ الْمُحْسِنِ.

177. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Reprimand the evil doer by rewarding the doer of righteousness.”

١٧٨- وقال (عليه السلام): اخْصِدِ الشَّرَّ مِنْ صَدْرٍ غَيْرِكَ بِقَلْعِهِ مِنْ صَدْرِكَ.

178. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Remove evil from the chest of others by eradicating it from your own.

١٧٩- وقال (عليه السلام): اللَّجَاجَةُ تَسْلُ الرَّأْيَ.

179. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Fanatically insisting on disagreeing poisons one’s opinion.”

١٨٠- وقال (عليه السلام): الطَّمْعُ رَقٌّ مُؤَبَّدٌ.

180. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Greed is perpetual bondage.”

١٨١- وقال (عليه السلام): ثَمَرَةُ التَّقْرِيطِ النَّدَامَةُ، وَثَمَرَةُ الْحَزْمِ السَّلَامَةُ.

181. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The fruit of carelessness is regret, whereas the fruit of resolve is safety.”

١٨٢- وقال (عليه السلام): لا خير في الصمت عن الحكم، كما أنه لا خير في القول بالجهل.

182. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Preferring silence over articulating wisdom produces nothing good; similarly is to speak out of ignorance.”

١٨٣- وقال (عليه السلام): ما اختلفت دعوتان إلا كانت إحداهما ضلالة.

183. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “No two cases vary from each other except that one of them is falsehood.”

١٨٤- وقال (عليه السلام): ما شككت في الحق مذ أريته.

184. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Never have I ever doubted the truth whenever I witnessed it.”

١٨٥- وقال (عليه السلام): ما كذبت ولا كذبت، ولا ضللت ولا ضل بي.

185. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Never have I told a lie, nor was I ever called a liar. Never did I ever stray, nor could anyone use me to cause others to stray.”

١٨٦- وقال (عليه السلام): للظالم البادي غداً بكفه عضة.

186. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The oppressor who starts oppressing will tomorrow bite his hand (in regret).”

١٨٧- وقال (عليه السلام): الرّحيل وشيك.

187. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Departure (from this world) is nigh.”

١٨٨- وقال (عليه السلام): من أبدى صفحته للحق هلك.

188. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who openly opposes what is right perishes.”

١٨٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ لَمْ يُنْجِهِ الصَّبْرُ أَهْلَكَهُ الْجَزَعُ.

189. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who is not saved by patience will be finished by impatience.

١٩٠ - وقال (عليه السلام): وَا عَجَبَاهُ! أ تَكُونُ الْخِلَافَةَ بِالصَّحَابَةِ وَالْقَرَابَةِ؟!

قال الرضي: و روي له شعر في هذا المعنى:

فإن كنت بالشورى ملكت أمورهم * فكيف بهذا و المشيرون غيب؟
و إن كنت بالقربى حجبت خصيمهم * فغيرك أولى بالنبي و أقرب

190. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “How strange! Should caliphate (government authority) be obtained through friends and relatives?!”

Al-Sharīf ar-Radi says that it is narrated that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام composed two verses of poetry in this same meaning the rough translation of which is as follows:

*If you through shūra took charge of them,
How so since those whose advice is sought were absent?!
And if you through kinsfolk argued with the opponent,
Others are more worthy of and nearer
To the Prophet than you.*

١٩١ - وقال (عليه السلام): إِنَّمَا الْمَرْءُ فِي الدُّنْيَا غَرَضٌ تَنْتَضِلُ فِيهِ الْمَنَایَا وَنَهَبٌ تُبَادِرُهُ الْمَصَائِبُ، وَمَعَ كُلِّ جُرْعَةٍ شَرَقٌ، وَفِي كُلِّ أَكْلَةٍ غَصَصٌ، وَلَا يَنَالُ الْعَبْدُ نِعْمَةً إِلَّا بِفِرَاقٍ أُخْرَى، وَلَا يَسْتَقْبِلُ يَوْمًا مِنْ عُمُرِهِ إِلَّا بِفِرَاقٍ آخَرَ مِنْ أَجْلِهِ؛ فَخُنُّ أَغْوَانِ الْمَثُونِ وَأَنْفُسُنَا نَصَبُ الْحُثُوفِ، فَمِنْ أَيْنَ نَرْجُو الْبَقَاءَ وَهَذَا اللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ لَمْ يَرْفَعَا مِنْ شَيْءٍ شَرَفًا إِلَّا أَسْرَعَا الْكَرَّةَ فِي هَذِمَ مَا بَنِيَا وَتَفَرَّقَا مَا جَمَعَا؟

191. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One in this life is a target of death; he is looted by calamities. With every sip there is hardship, with every morsel there is pain. Whenever a servant of Allāh receives a blessing, he bids another farewell. Whenever he welcomes a new day, he bids another farewell for its sake. This is so because we assist the fates: Every breath we draw is a target of death; so, how can we hope to last since this night and this day never raise anything in honor except that they are more swift in destroying what they build and disperse what they gather?”

١٩٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): يا ابن آدم، ما كسبت فوق قوتك فانت فيه خازن لغيرك.

192. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O son of Adam! Anything you earn beyond your need is stored for others.”

١٩٣ - وقال (عليه السلام): إن للقلوب شهوة وإقبالاً وإدباراً فأثوها من قبل شهوتها وإقبالها فإن القلب إذا أكره عمي.

193. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Hearts have desires, coming or going; so, approach your hearts according to their desires and approaches, for if you force the heart, you will blind it.”

١٩٤ - وكان (عليه السلام) يقول: متى أشفي غيظي إذا غضبت؟ أ حين أعجز عن الانتقام فيقال لي لو صبرت، أم حين أقدر عليه فيقال لي لو عفوت؟

194. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “What shall I satisfy my anger when I am outraged? Is it when I am unable to seek revenge, so it will be said to me: ‘Why did you not have patience?’ Or should I do it when I am able, so it will be said to me: ‘Why did you not forgive?’”

١٩٥ - وقال (عليه السلام) وقد مرّ بقدر على مزبلة: هذا ما بخل به الباخلون.

وروي في خبر آخر أنه قال: هذا ما كنتم تتنافسون فيه بالأمس.

195. Passing by a pile of garbage, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “This is what you, people, were too miser to give to others.”

In another narrative, he is reported as having said, “This is what you used to compete with each other for!”

١٩٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): لم يذهب من مالك ما وعظك.

196. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “None of your wealth is wasted so long as it provides you with admonishment.”

197. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “These hearts wear out just as bodies do; so, seek for them beautiful pieces of wisdom.”

١٩٨ - وقال (عليه السلام) لَمَّا سَمِعَ قَوْلَ الْخَوَارِجِ لَا حُكْمَ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ: كَلِمَةً حَقٌّ يُرَادُ بِهَا بَاطِلٌ.

198. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام heard the Khārijites say, “There is no government except Allāh’s.” He عليه السلام, therefore, said: “A true statement intended to reap falsehood.”

وَقِيلَ بَلْ قَالَ (عليه السلام): هُمُ الَّذِينَ إِذَا اجْتَمَعُوا ضُرُّوا، وَإِذَا تَفَرَّقُوا نَفَعُوا. فَقِيلَ: قَدْ عَرَفْنَا مَضْرَةَ اجْتِمَاعِهِمْ، فَمَا مَنَفَعَةُ اقْتِرَاقِهِمْ؟ فَقَالَ: يَرْجِعُ أَصْحَابُ الْمِهْنِ إِلَى مِهْنَتِهِمْ فَيَنْتَفِعُ النَّاسُ بِهِمْ كَرُجُوعِ الْبَنَاءِ إِلَى بَنَانِهِ وَالنَّسَاجِ إِلَى مَنَسَجِهِ وَالْخَبَازِ إِلَى مَخْبَزِهِ...

199. Describing mobs, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “They are the ones who overwhelm when they gather and are known when they disperse.”

It is said that he عليه السلام rather said, “They are the ones who do harm when they gather and do good when they disperse.” The Imām عليه السلام was asked, “We understand their mischief when they gather, but what benefit is there if they disperse?” The Imām عليه السلام said, “Each one of them returns to his profession, so people benefit from them, such as the builder returns to build, the weaver returns to his craft, the baker returns to his bakery, and so on.”

٢٠٠- وأتي بجان ومعه غوغاء فقال (عليه السلام): لا مرحباً بوجوه لا ترى إلّا عند كلّ سؤاة.

200. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following when a criminal was brought to him escorted by mobs: “There is no welcome for you here, O faces that are not seen except when something bad is committed!”

٢٠١- وقال (عليه السلام): إنّ مع كلّ إنسان ملكين يحفظانه، فإذا جاء القدرُ خليا بينه وبينه، وإنّ الأجل جنة حصينة.

201. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “With every human being, there are two guardian angels. When (the angel of) death approaches, they make room for him; fate is a secure protection.”

٢٠٢- وقال (عليه السلام) وقد قال له طلحة والزبير "نبايعك على أنا شركاؤك في هذا الأمر": لا، ولكنكما شريكان في القوة والاستعانة وعونان على العجز والأود.

202. Talhah and az-Zubair said to the Imām عليه السلام, “We shall swear the oath of allegiance to you if we become your prtners in this matter (caliphate).” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “No, you both are partners when strength and aid is sought, and you both are aides against inability and exertion.”

٢٠٣- وقال (عليه السلام): أيّها الناس اتقوا الله الذي إنّ قلتم سمع وإن أضمرتم علم، وبادرُوا الموت الذي إنّ هربتم منه أدرككم، وإن أقمتهم أخذكم، وإن نسيتموه ذكركم.

203. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O people! “Fear Allāh Who hears you when you speak, Who knows what you hide in your chests, and be more swift than death which catches up with you when you flee, which takes you away when you stay, and which remembers you when you forget about it.”

٢٠٤- وقال (عليه السلام): لا يزهدنك في المعروف من لا يشكره لك، فقد يشكرُك عليه من لا يستمتع بشيءٍ منه، وقد تُدرك من شكر الشاكر أكثر مما أضاع الكافر، والله يُحبُّ المحسنين.

204. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do not be discouraged by ingrates from doing good deeds, for you may be thanked by those who do not benefit from your good deed and who still are grateful to you for it. You may obtain gratitude from a grateful person much more than what someone who hides it has wasted... and Allāh loves the doers of goodness.” ٢٠٥- وقال (عليه السلام): كُلُّ وعاءٍ يضيقُ بما جُعِلَ فيه إلّا وعاءُ العِلْمِ فإنه يتسعُ به.

205 Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Every container becomes straitened by what is put in it except the container of knowledge: It expands.”

٢٠٦- وقال (عليه السلام): أَوَّلُ عِوَضِ الحَلِيمِ مِنْ جِلْمِهِ أَنْ النَّاسَ أَنْصَارُهُ عَلَى الْجَاهِلِ.

206. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The first compensation for a clement person for his clemency is that people are his supporters against the ignorant ones.”

٢٠٧- وقال (عليه السلام): إِنْ لَمْ تَكُنْ حَلِيمًا فَتَحَلَمْ، فَإِنَّهُ قَلَّ مَنْ تَشَبَّهَ بِقَوْمٍ إِلَّا أَوْشَكَ أَنْ يَكُونَ مِنْهُمْ.

207. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If you are not clement, then put on the garb of clemency, for many are those who imitate others and who become almost like them.”

٢٠٨- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ حَاسِبَ نَفْسَهُ رِيحٍ وَمَنْ غَفَلَ عَنْهَا خَسِرَ وَمَنْ خَافَ أَمِنْ وَمَنْ اعْتَبَرَ أَبْصَرَ وَمَنْ أَبْصَرَ فَهَمَّ وَمَنْ فَهَمَّ عِلِمَ.

208. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who holds himself to account succeeds while one who overlooks it loses. One who is cautious earns security. One who receives admonishment expands his vision. One who expands his vision gains understanding, and one who gains understanding earns knowledge.”

٢٠٩- وقال (عليه السلام): لَتَغْطِفَنَّ الدُّنْيَا عَلَيْنَا بَعْدَ شِمَاسِهَا عَطْفَ الضَّرُوسِ عَلَى وَلَدِهَا. وَتَلَا عَقِيبَ ذَلِكَ: ﴿وَنُرِيدُ أَنْ نَمُنَّ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اسْتُضْعِفُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَنَجْعَلَهُمْ أَئِمَّةً وَنَجْعَلَهُمُ الْوَارِثِينَ﴾.

209. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The life of this world shall be kind to us after being cruel to us just as a she-camel that rejects those who milk it but turns with affection to its newborn.”

Having said so, the Imām عليه السلام recited the following verse: “And We wished to be gracious to those who were being oppressed in the land to make them the leaders and to make them the heirs” (Qur’ān, 28:5).

٢١٠- وقال (عليه السلام): اتقوا الله تقيّة من شمر تجريداً وجدّ تشميراً وكمش في مهل وبادر عن وجل ونظر في كره المونل وعاقبة المصدّر ومغبة المرجع.

210. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Fear Allāh like one who is willing to risk everything [just to please Allāh], who urges himself to walk towards Allāh, who starts in awe, who looks into the outcomes of matters, into the penalty of anything forbidden, one who is apprehensive of the final end.”

٢١١- وقال (عليه السلام): الجود حارس الأعراس والحلم فدام السفية والعفو زكاة الظفر والسؤل عوضك ممن غدر والبشارة عين الهداية، وقد خاطر من استغنى برأيه، والصبر يناضل الحدثان والجزع من أعوان الزمان، وأشرف الغنى ترك المنى؛ وكم من عقل أسير تحت هوى أمير؟ ومن التوفيق حفظ التجربة، والمودة قرابة مستفادة، ولا تأمن ملولاً.

211. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Generosity is the guard of honors. Clemency is ship’s restrainer. Forgiveness is the zakāt of victory. Solace is your compensation for one who betrayed you. Consultation is the same as guidance. One who sticks only to his own view takes a risk. Patience struggles against calamities. Impatience aids against time’s fluctuations. The best of wealth is to abandon high hopes. How many the minds that are subdued by aggressive desires are! A sign of success is to remember experience. Affection is a useful kinship. And do not place your trust in someone who has no patience.”

٢١٢- وقال (عليه السلام): عجب المرء بنفسه أحد حساد عقله.

212. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One’s self-conceit is one of the envies of his own mind.”

٢١٣- وقال (عليه السلام): أغض على القذى والنالم ترض أبداً.

213. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Overlook imperfections and pains, and you will always be pleased.”

٢١٤- وقال (عليه السلام): من لان عُودُهُ كَثُفَتْ أَغْصَانُهُ.

214. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One whose stem is lean, his leaves will be thick.” (That is, one who is kind to others will grow up like a healthy stem with twigs.)

٢١٥- وقال (عليه السلام): الخِلافُ يَهْدِمُ الرَّايَ.

215. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Disputes destroy views.”

٢١٦- وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ نال استِطالاً.

216. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who wins becomes greater.”

٢١٧- وقال (عليه السلام): فِي تَقَلُّبِ الْأَحْوالِ عِلْمُ جِوَاهِرِ الرِّجَالِ.

217. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “In the alterations of conditions lies the knowledge of the gems of men.”

٢١٨- وقال (عليه السلام): حَسَدُ الصَّدِيقِ مِنْ سَقَمِ المودَّةِ.

218. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Envyng a friend is a sign of fault in one’s friendship.”

٢١٩- وقال (عليه السلام): أَكْثَرُ مِصَارِعِ العُقُولِ تَحْتَ بُرُوقِ المِطامِعِ.

219. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Most places where minds are conquered fall under the glitter of high hopes.”

٢٢٠- وقال (عليه السلام): لَيْسَ مِنَ العَدْلِ القِضاءُ عَلَى النِّقَةِ بِالظَّنِّ.

220. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “It is not fair to put an end to trust by entertaining doubt.”

٢٢١ - وقال (عليه السلام): بنس الزاد إلى المعاد العذوان على العباد.

221. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “How miserable the ration of a servant of Allāh to the Hereafter is if he oppresses Allāh’s servants!”

٢٢٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): من أشرف أعمال الكريم غفلته عما يعلم.

222. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The very best of a generous man’s acts of generosity is that he is mindless of what he knows (of people’s faults).”

٢٢٣ - وقال (عليه السلام): من كساه الحياء ثوبه لم ير الناس عيبه.

223. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If one who is attired with the outfit of modesty, people never see his shortcoming.”

٢٢٤ - وقال (عليه السلام): بكثرة الصمت تكون الهيبة، وبالنصفة يكثر المواصلون، وبالإفضال تعظم الأقدار، وبالتواضع تتم النعمة، وباختمال المؤمن يجب السؤدد، وبالسيرة العادلة يفهر المناوئ، وبال حلم عن السفية تكثر الأنصار عليه.

224. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Through abundance of silence does one earn respect. Through fairness does one win admirers. Through acts of favors does one’s value become greater. Through humility does one’s blessing become complete. Through bearing hardships, loftiness is earned. Through fair dealing, an opponent is subdued. And through clemency with regard to a shallow-minded person does one earn supporters.”

٢٢٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): العجب لغفلة الحساد عن سلامة الأجساد.

225. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “How strange it is that the envious ones overlook the soundness of their own bodies!”

٢٢٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): الطامع في وثاق الدل.

226. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A covetous person is tied with the ropes of humiliation.”

٢٢٧- وسئل عن الإيمان فقال: الإيمان معرفة بالقلب وإقرار باللسان وعمل بالركان.

227. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked about īmān. He said: “Īmān is knowledge with the heart, an admission with the tongue, and an action according to the [Islamic] injunctions.”

٢٢٨- وقال (عليه السلام): من أصبح على الدنيا حزينا فقد أصبح لقضاء الله سائطا، ومن أصبح يشكو مصيبة نزلت به فقد أصبح يشكو ربه، ومن أتى غنيا فتواضع له لغناه ذهب ثلثا دينه، ومن قرأ القرآن فمات فدخل النار فهو ممن كان يتخذ آيات الله هزوا، ومن لهج قلبه بحب الدنيا التاط قلبه منها بثلاث: هم لا يغبه وحرص لا يتركه وأمل لا يذركه.

228. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If one becomes sad about this world, he becomes angry with what Allāh decrees. One who complains about a calamity that befell him complains against his Lord. And one who goes to a wealthy man and humbles himself to him on account of his wealth wipes out two-thirds of his creed. If one recites the Qur’ān, and when he dies he goes to hell, he is one of those who used to mock the Signs of Allāh. If one keeps talking about his love for this world, his heart will be burnt by it in three instances: worry which he never overcomes, miserliness which never abandons him, and hope which he never realizes.”

٢٢٩- وقال (عليه السلام): كفى بالقناعة ملكاً وبحسن الخلق نعيماً. وسئل (عليه السلام) عن قوله تعالى ﴿فَلَنُحْيِيَنَّهٗ حَيَاةً طَيِّبَةً﴾ فقال: هي القناعة.

229. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Satisfaction suffices for wealth and good manners for a bliss.” He عليه السلام was asked about the meaning of this verse: “... We shall let him lead a good life.” He عليه السلام said, “It (good life) is contentment.”

٢٣٠- وقال (عليه السلام): شاركوا الذي قد أقبل عليه الرزق، فإنه أخلق للغنى وأجدر بإقبال الحظ عليه.

230. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Be partners of one to whom sustenance goes, for this is the best means for acquiring wealth and the most worthy of earning a good fortune.”

٢٣١ - وقال (عليه السلام): فِي قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى ﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ وَالْإِحْسَانِ﴾: الْعَدْلُ الْإِنصَافُ، وَالْإِحْسَانُ التَّفَضُّلُ.

231. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following in explanation of the verse saying, “Allāh enjoins you to abide by justice and kindness”: “By justice, equity is meant, while kindness is doing others favors.”

٢٣٢ - وقال (عليه السلام): مَنْ يُعْطِ بِالْيَدِ الْقَصِيرَةِ يُعْطِ بِالْيَدِ الطَّوِيلَةِ.

قال الرضي: و معنى ذلك أن ما ينفقه المرء من ماله في سبيل الخير و البر و إن كان يسيرا، فإن الله تعالى يجعل الجزاء عليه عظيما كثيرا، و "اليدان" هاهنا عبارة عن النعمتين، ففرق (عليه السلام) بين نعمة العبد و نعمة الرب تعالى، ذكره بالقصيرة و الطويلة، فجعل تلك قصيرة و هذه طويلة، لأن نعم الله أبدا تضعف على نعم المخلوق أضعافا كثيرة، إذ كانت نعم الله أصل النعم كلها، فكل نعمة إليها ترجع و منها تنزع.

232. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If one gives with the short hand, he will be given with the long one.”

Al-Radi has said, “The meaning of this statement is: If one spends out of his wealth in the way of goodness and kindness, though it may be little, Allāh Almighty will make its reward great. The short hand here is a reference to that of the servant of Allāh, whereas the long one is a connotation of that of the Lord, the most Exalted One, Who is never weakened by giving and Who rewards with a lot for what is little.”

٢٣٣ - وقال (عليه السلام) لِإِبْنِهِ الْحَسَنِ (عليه السلام): لَا تَدْعُونَ إِلَى مُبَارَزَةٍ؛ وَإِنْ دُعِيَ إِلَيْهَا فَأَجِبْ، فَإِنَّ الدَّاعِيَ إِلَيْهَا بَاغٍ وَالْبَاغِي مَصْرُوعٌ.

233. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do not invite anyone to a duel, but if you are challenged to duel, respond, because one who calls to a duel is an oppressor, and the oppressor is always defeated.”

٢٣٤- وقال (عليه السلام): خِيَارُ خِصَالِ النِّسَاءِ شِرَارُ خِصَالِ الرِّجَالِ: الزَّهْوُ وَالْجُبْنُ وَالْبُخْلُ؛ فَإِذَا كَانَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ مَزْهُوَّةً لَمْ تُمَكِّنْ مِنْ نَفْسِهَا، وَإِذَا كَانَتْ بِخِيلَةٍ حَفِظَتْ مَالَهَا وَمَالَ بَعْلِهَا، وَإِذَا كَانَتْ جَبَانَةً فَرَقَتْ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ يَغْرَضُ لَهَا.

234. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The best of women’s attributes are the men’s worst: self-conceit, cowardice and miserliness. So if a woman is self-conceited, she will not let one approach her (in bed). If she is miser, she safeguards her wealth and that of her husband. And if she is a coward, she is scared of anything that appears before her.”

قال الرضي: يعني أن الجاهل هو الذي لا يضع الشيء مواضعه، فكان ترك صفته صفة له، إذ كان بخلاف وصف العاقل.

235. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked, “Describe to us the wise person.” He عليه السلام said: “He is the one who puts everything in its right place.” He عليه السلام was then asked to describe the ignorant person, so he said, “I have just done so!” Al-Radi has said, “He means to say that the ignorant person is the one who does not put things in their right places. He simply is the antithesis of the wise person.”

٢٣٦- وقال (عليه السلام): واللّٰه لدنياكم هذه أهونُ في عيني من عراق خنزير في يد مجذوم.

236. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “By Allāh! Your world is cheaper in my eyes than the intestines of a pig in the hands of a leper.”

٢٣٧- وقال (عليه السلام): إنّ قوماً عبدوا الله رغبة فتلك عبادة التجّار، وإنّ قوماً عبدوا الله رهبة فتلك عبادة العبيد، وإنّ قوماً عبدوا الله شكراً فتلك عبادة الأحرار.

237. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Some people worship Allāh out of their desire (for what He has). Such is the worship of traders. Some people worship Allāh out of fear of Him; such is the worship of slaves. And some people worship Allāh in order to thank Him; such is the worship of the free.”

٢٣٨ - وقال (عليه السلام): من أطاع الثَّوَانِي ضَيَعَ الحَقُوق، ومن أطاع الوَاشِي ضَيَعَ الصَّدِيق.

238. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who procrastinates loses track of what is right. One who obeys a tale-teller loses friends.”

٢٣٩ - وقال (عليه السلام): الحجرُ الغصيبُ في الدَّارِ رهنٌ على خرابِها.

قال الرضي: و يروى هذا الكلام عن النبي (صلى الله عليه وآله)، و لا عجب أن يشتبه الكلامان لأن مستقاهما من قلب و مفرغهما من ذنوب.

239. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A brick taken by force in order to build a house is a pawn for its destruction.”

Ar-Radi says, “This statement is also narrated from the Prophe ﷺ. It is not strange that both statements are similar since their source is the same fountainhead, and they aim at obliterating one’s sins.”

٢٤٠ - وقال (عليه السلام): يومُ المظلوم على الظالم أشدُّ من يومِ الظالم على المظلوم.

240. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The oppressed one’s Day (of Judgment) is to the oppressor much harder than the day of the oppressor against the oppressed.”

٢٤١ - وقال (عليه السلام): اتَّقِ اللهَ بغضِ الثَّقَى وإن قلَّ، واجعلْ بينك وبينَ الله سِتْرًا وإن رَقَّ.

241. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Fear Allāh to some degree (even) though it may be little, and set a curtain between you and Allāh (even) though it may be thin.”

242. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Surely in every blessing there is a right of Allāh. If one carries out that right, Allāh increases the blessing, and if one falls short of doing so, he risks losing the blessing.”

٢٤٣- وقال (عليه السلام): اخذروا نِغار النِّعم، فما كُلُّ شارِدٍ بمرذُودٍ.

243. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Beware of blessings fleeing away from you, for not everything that flees returns.”

٢٤٤- وقال (عليه السلام): الكرمُ أغظفُ من الرِّجَمِ.

244. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Generosity is more prompting to goodness than regard for kinship.”

٢٤٥- وقال (عليه السلام): أفضلُ الأعمالِ ما أكرهتُ نفسك عليه.

245. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The best deed is that which you have to force yourself to do.”

٢٤٦- وقال (عليه السلام): عَرَفْتُ اللَّهَ سُبْحَانَهُ بِفَسْخِ الْعَزَائِمِ وَحُلِّ الْعُقُودِ وَنَقْضِ الْهَمَمِ.

246. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I came to know Allāh, the

٢٤٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): فرض الله الإيمان تطهيراً من الشرك والصلاة تنزيهاً عن الكبر والزكاة تسبيهاً للرزق والصيام ابتلاءً لإخلاص الخلق والحج تقربة للدين والجهاد عزاً للإسلام والأمر بالمعروف مصلحة للعوام والنهي عن المنكر ردعاً للسفهاء وصلة الرحم منماة للعدد والقصاص حقناً للدماء وإقامة الحدود إعظاماً للمحارم وترك شرب الخمر تخصيصاً للعقل ومجانبة السرقة إيجاباً للعفة وترك الزنى تخصيصاً للنسب وترك اللواط تكثيراً للنسل والشهادات استظهاراً على المجاهدات وترك الكذب تشريفاً للصديق والسلام أماناً من المخاوف والأمانة نظاماً للأمة والطاعة تعظيماً للإمامة.

247. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Allāh has laid down īmān (conviction) for purification from polytheism; salāt (prayer) for purification from vanity; zakāt as a means of livelihood; siyam (fasting) as a trial of the people; hajj for the honor of Islam; persuasion for doing good deeds (al-amr bil-ma'rūf) for the goodness of the common people; dissuasion from evil (an-nahi 'anil-munkar) for controlling the mischievous; regard for kinship for increase of number (of family members); retribution for stopping bloodshed, the award of penalties for the realization of importance of the prohibitions; the abstinence from drinking wine for the protection of one's wits; the avoidance of theft for inculcating chastity; the abstinence from adultery for safeguarding lineage; the abstinence from sodomy for increasing the progeny; tendering testimony for furnishing proof against contentions; abstinence from telling lies for increasing the esteem of the truth; the maintenance of peace (salam) for protection from danger; Imāmate (Divine ¹The breaking of determination and the loss of courage can be argued to prove the existence of Allāh in this way that, for example, a man determines to do a thing but before the determination is transformed into action, it changes and some other idea takes its place. This alteration of ideas and determinations and the emergence of change therein is a proof that there is some higher controlling power over us which has the capability to bring them from nonexistence into existence and again from existence into non-existence, and this is beyond human power. Therefore, it is necessary to acknowledge a super authority which affects change and alteration in determination.

Leadership) for the orderliness of the community and obedience (to Imāms) as a mark of respect for Imāmate.”

Before describing some of the aims and objectives of the Sharīʿa commands, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام begins with the aims and objectives of conviction (īmān) because īmān serves as the basis for religious commands. Without it, no need is felt for any religious code or jurisprudence. Īmān is acknowledging the existence of the Creator and the admission of His Oneness. When this īmān takes root in a man’s heart, such man does not agree to bow before any being, nor is he over-awed, affected or impressed by any other power or authority. Rather, getting mentally freed of all ties, he regards himself as a devotee of Allāh. The result of this adherence to this unity, tawhīd, is that he is saved from the pollution of polytheism.

Prayer (salāt) is the most important of all forms of worship. It consists of standing, sitting, bending and prostrating, and these postures are a successful way of destroying the feeling of vanity and pride, erasing self-conceit and egotism and creating humility and submissiveness. This is so because the actions and movements of a vain person produce pride and haughtiness, while humble actions engender in the mind the qualities of submissiveness and humbleness. With the exercise of these actions, a man, by and by, acquires a humble temperament. This is how the Arabs, who were so vain that if their whip fell off during riding, they would not bend down to pick it up, or if the strap of the shoe gave way, they thought it would be insulting to bend down to mend it..., began to rub their faces on the dust during prostrations in their prayers and place their foreheads facing others’ feet (of those who pray in front of them in the rows) during congregational prayers. This way, they acquired the true spirit of Islam after abandoning the pre-Islamic vanity and arrogance.

Zakāt: When a person who is financially able pays annually out of his money or property a fixed share for those who are either destitute or do not have means of livelihood for a year, does so in order to fulfill one of Islam’s obligatory commands. The purpose behind it is that no individual in the community should remain poor, and they should all remain safe from the evils that result from want and poverty. Besides, another objective is served: Wealth should keep rotating from one individual to another; it must not be centered in the possession of just few individuals.

Siyim (fasting) is a form of worship in which there is not an iota of show, of pretension, and no motive is active in it except that of a pure intention and a sincere desire to perform another obligation. As a result, even in seclusion, when hunger perturbs a man or thirst makes him uneasy, he does not extend his hand for eating, nor does he long for water. The lack of neither food nor water makes him lose his self-control. The purity of one's conscience prevents his self-will from deflecting. This is the greatest advantage of fasting: It practically engenders the purity of self-will.

The purpose of hajj is that Muslims from all corners of the globe should assemble at one place so that this world assembly may prove to be an occasion for the manifestation of Islam's greatness, the renewal of the passion for worship and the creation of global bonds of mutual brotherhood.

The purpose of jihād is to fight with all possible might and means those forces that oppose Islam, so that Islam may achieve stability and progress. Although there are dangers for life in this course, and difficulties crop up at every step, the tidings for eternal ease and everlasting life produce the courage to bear all these hardships.

The persuasion for doing what is good and the dissuasion from committing evil are affective ways of showing others the correct path and preventing them from committing wrongdoing. If a community's members do not perform these duties, nothing can save it from ruin, and it falls to an extreme depth morally and socially. That is why Islam has laid a great emphasis on it, regarding it as an unpardonable sin.

Doing good for kinship means that a man should do favors to his relatives. He at least should not stop mutual accosting and speaking with them so that attitudes may become clean and family ties may develop. Dispersed individuals may render strength to one another.

Seeking restitution is a right given to the survivors of a killed person. They can demand a life for a life so that, for fear of punishment, none will dare kill anyone. At the same time, the survivor's passion for revenge should not result in the killing of more than one single person. No doubt, forgiveness or pardon does carry weight in its own place, but where it means trampling of an individual's right or endangering world peace, it cannot be regarded as favorable. Rather, on such occasions, restitution, or the payment of the blood money (diyya), becomes the sole way of stopping bloodshed and safeguarding human lives. Thus, Allāh says:

﴿ وَلَكُمْ فِي الْقِصَاصِ حَيَاةٌ يَا أُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُونَ ﴾

And for you, there is (security of) restitution (qisās), O men of understanding, so that you may guard yourselves (against evil).
(Qur'ān, 2:179)

The purpose behind the awarding of penalties is to make the offender appreciate the seriousness of violating the prohibitions of Allāh so that he may keep his distance from prohibitions for fear of being punished.

Wine causes diffusion of thinking, dispersion of senses and weakness of comprehension. As a result, a man commits such actions which will not be expected of him when he is sober. When intoxicated, one's senses become weak. Besides, it ruins health and renders the body liable to catch infectious diseases, while sleeplessness, nervous weakness and rheumatism are its main side effects. This is why the Sharī'a has prohibited intoxicants, including beer.

Theft, that is, taking what someone else owns, is an evil which is produced by the sway of greed and evil motivations. Since bringing down evil passions from the status of excess to the bounds of moderation means chastity, the abstinence from theft is produced by curbing greed and evil passions.

Adultery and sodomy have been prohibited so that one's lineage may be regulated and the human race may continue and prosper. The children born out of adultery are not regarded as legitimate. Consequently, they are not entitled to inheritance, while there is no question about children born too legally married couples. Besides, as a consequence of evil practices such as adultery, venereal diseases can cause the ruination of life in addition to discontinuing reproduction.

The law of testimony is needed because if one party denies the right of that of another, the latter may establish it through testimony and thereby secure it.

Abstention from lies and falsehood has been enjoined so that the standing and importance of its antithesis, namely the truth, may become prominent. In observing the advantages of being truthful, the moral weakness of falsehood can be avoided.

“Salām” means peace and love for peace. It is obvious that a peaceful attitude is a successful way of protecting one from dangers and of preventing war and fighting. Generally, commentators have taken the word “salam” to mean “mutual greetings and well-wishing”, but both context and fact that it has been mentioned in a series of obligations do not support this interpretation. Salām is a means of securing safety from dangers. It is regarded as a path for peace and for loving peace. When two Muslims meet each other, they greet each other with the greeting of salām, of peace. It means that they announce the mutual wishes of peace and well-being. Afterwards, each feels safe with the other.

Imāmate (imāma): This word has appeared in the same context in authentic editions of Nahjul-Balāgha as well as in its commentaries such as that of Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 19, p. 90; Ibn Maytham, Vol. 5, pp. 367378; Minhāj al-Barā'ah, Vol. 21, p. 318, and other sources besides Nahjul-Balāgha, such as Nihāyat al-'Arab by an-Nuwayri ash-Shāfi'i, Vol. 8, p. 183 and Bihār al-Anwār by al-Majlisi, Vol. 6, p. 111.

In fact, this word, imāma, has been distorted to “amāna” (trust) or “amānāt” (trusts) in some copies such as those printed in Egypt. It is very surprising to note that the word has appeared as amāna in the text of Nahjul-Balāgha printed with a commentary by Ibn Abul-Hadīd in Egypt in the first edition, Vol. 4, p. 350 as well as in the second edition edited by Muhammed Abul-Fadhl Ibrāhīm, Vol. 19, p. 86, while he himself (Ibn Abul-Hadīd) based his commentary on its correct reading, namely imāma, as did other commentators.

However, in explanation of this sentence, “Imāmate for the orderliness of the community,” as the theological scholars say: Whoever has known dark experiences and examined political principles necessarily knows that whenever men have among them a chief and a guide whom they obey, one who restrains the oppressor from his oppression and the unjust man from his injustice, avenging the oppressed..., leads them to rational principles and religious duties. He restrains them from the corruption which causes the destruction of order in their worldly affairs and from evils that result in wretchedness in the Hereafter, so that every individual might fear that punishment. As a result of all of this, these community members will draw closer to soundness and depart from corruption.

The institution of Imāmate is intended to cater to the unification of the nation and to protect the commandments of Islam from alteration and distortion. In the absence of a head for the nation, a protector for the religion, the order of the nation cannot be maintained, nor can the commandments of Islam remain safe from tampering. This objective can be achieved only when obedience to him is obligatory. This is so because if he is not obeyed and followed by obligation, he will neither be able to maintain justice and equity, nor will he secure the rights of the oppressed from the oppressors, nor will he be able to issue and enforce the laws of the Sharī'a. The outcome of these inabilities is that the extinction of evil and mischief from the land cannot be expected.

٢٤٨ - وكان (عليه السلام) يقولُ أخلفوا الظالم إذا أردتُم يمينه بآله بريء من حول الله وقوته، فإنه إذا حلف بها كاذباً عوجل العقوبة، وإذا حلف بالله الذي لا إله إلا هو لم يُعاجل لآله قدَّ وحد الله تعالى.

248. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام used to say: If you want an oppressor to take an oath, ask him to swear like this: that he is out of reach of Allāh's might and power. If he swears falsely this way, he will be swiftly punished, whereas if he swears by Allāh Who is such that there is no god but He, he will not be quickly punished since he is acknowledging the Unity of Allāh, the Sublime."¹

¹It is narrated that someone levied some charges against Imām Ja'far as-Sādiq عليه السلام before the 'Abbāside caliph Abdullāh ibn Muhammed al-Mansūr. Al-Mansūr sent for the Imām عليه السلام and told him that so-and-so had told him such-and-such about him. The Imām said it was all wrong and there was not an iota of truth in it. He desired the man to be sent for and questioned before him. Consequently, he was sent for and questioned. The man said that whatever he had said was true and correct. The Imām said to him, "If you are speaking the truth, then you swear as I ask you to swear." The Imām عليه السلام made him swear by saying, "I am out of reach of Allāh's might and power, and I rely on my own might and power.” Soon after swearing like this, the man was hit with paralysis, and he became motionless. The Imām, returned with full honor and prestige, as we read in the following references: Al-Kāfi of al-Kulayni, Vol. 6, pp. 445 - 446; Bihār al-Anwār of al-Majlisi, Vol. 47, pp. 164 - 165, 172 - 175, 203 - 204; Al-Fusūl al-Muhimmah of Ibn as-Sabbagh al-māliki, pp. 225 - 226; As-Sawā'iq al-Muhriqah of Ibn Hajar ash-Shāfi'i al-'Asqalāni, p. 120 and Jāmi' Karamat al-Awliyā' of an-Nabhani ash-Shāfi'i, Vol. 2, p. 4. This incident took place during the reign of Hārūn ar-Rashīd (149 – 193 A.H./766 – 809 A.D.), grandson of Abū Ja'far al-Mansūr al-Dawāniqi, when the well-known enemy of Ahl al-Bayt عليه السلام of the Holy Prophet, namely Abdullāh ibn Mus'ab, grandson of Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr, slandered Yahya ibn AbdAllāh ibn al-Hassan ibn Imām al-Hassan ibn Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام before Hārūn ar-Rashīd by saying that he was plotting a rebellion against him (against Hārūn). Then Yahya made Abdullāh swear before Hārūn in the same manner as the Imām had demanded. When Abdullāh ibn Mus'ab swore as he was required, the symptom of leprosy soon appeared in him in the presence of Hārūn ar-Rashīd. He died three days later. Every part of his flesh cracked open and all the hair of his body fell out. After this documented incident, Hārūn used to say, “How soon Allāh took revenge on Abdullāh for Yahya!” For more information about this incident and similar ones, refer to these references: Maqatil at-Tālibiyyin of Abul-Faraj al-Isfahāni, pp. 472 - 478; Murūj al-Dhahab of al-Mas'ūdi, Vol. 3, pp. 340 - 342; Tārīkh Baghdad of al-Khatīb al-Baghdādī, Vol. 14, pp. 110 - 112; Sharh Nahjul-Balāgha of Ibn Abul-Hadīd al-Mu'tazili, Vol. 19, pp. 91 - 94; Tārīkh of Ibn Kathīr, Vol. 10, pp. 167 - 168 and Tārīkh al-Khulafā' of al-Sayyūti, p. 287.

250. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Anger is a sort of madness: Its victim repents afterwards. If he does not repent, his madness is confirmed.”

٢٥١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): صِحَّةُ الْجَسَدِ مِنْ قِلَّةِ الْحَسَدِ.

251. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Body’s health comes from paucity of envy.”¹ ٢٥٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِذَا أَمْلَقْتُمْ، فَتَاجِرُوا اللَّهَ بِالصَّدَقَةِ.

252. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If you are impoverished, trade with Allāh through charity.”

٢٥٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِكُمَيْلِ بْنِ زِيَادِ النَّخَعِيِّ: يَا كُمَيْلُ! مَرَّ أَهْلُكَ أَنْ يَرُوحُوا فِي كَسْبِ الْمَكَارِمِ وَيَذِلُّوا فِي حَاجَةٍ مِنْهُ نَائِمٌ، فَوَالَّذِي وَسَّعَ سَمْعُهُ الْأَصْوَاتَ، مَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ أَوْدَعَ قَلْبًا سُرُورًا إِلَّا وَخَلَقَ اللَّهُ لَهُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ السُّرُورِ لُطْفًا؛ فَإِذَا نَزَلَتْ بِهِ نَائِبَةٌ، جَرَى إِلَيْهَا كَالْمَاءِ فِي انْحِدَارِهِ حَتَّى يَطْرُدَهَا عَنْهُ كَمَا تُطْرَدُ غَرِيبَةُ الْبَابِلِ.

253. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following to Kumayl ibn Ziyād an-Nakha'i: “O Kumayl! Direct your people to go out in the day to achieve noble traits and to go out in the night to meet the needs of those who might be sleeping. I swear by the One Whose hearing extends to all voices, if someone pleases another’s heart, Allāh will create a special thing out of this pleasing so that whenever any hardship befalls him, it will come running like flowing water and drive away the hardship as wild camels are driven away.”

٢٥٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْوَفَاءُ لِأَهْلِ الْغَدْرِ غَدْرٌ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ، وَالْغَدْرُ بِأَهْلِ الْغَدْرِ وَفَاءٌ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ.

¹Envy produces such a poisonous matter in the body which destroys its natural heat. As a result, the body weakens and the spirit withers. This is why an envious person never prospers and melts away in the heat of envy.

254. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Faithfulness with faithless people is faithlessness with Allāh, while faithlessness with faithless people is faithfulness with Allāh.”

٢٥٥ - وقال (عليه السلام): كَمْ مِنْ مُسْتَنْدَرَجٍ بِالْبَاحْسَانِ إِلَيْهِ وَمَغْرُورٍ بِالسَّيْرِ عَلَيْهِ وَمَقْتُونٍ بِحُسْنِ الْقَوْلِ فِيهِ وَمَا ابْتَلَى اللَّهَ سُبْحَانَهُ أَحَدًا بِمِثْلِ الْإِمْلَاءِ لَهُ.

255. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Many men are gradually brought to punishment due to good treatment (of those who do not deserve it). Many men remain in deceit because their evil deeds are covered. Many men are in illusion because of people speak well for them, while there is no greater ordeal by Allāh, the Glorified One, than giving all of these men a respite (which they may not deserve).”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “This saying has appeared earlier as well, but here it contains a beautiful and useful addition.”

٢٥٦ - وقال (عليه السلام): يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ! لَا تَحْمِلْ هَمَّ يَوْمِكَ الَّذِي لَمْ يَأْتِكَ عَلَى يَوْمِكَ الَّذِي قَدْ أَتَاكَ، فَإِنَّهُ إِنْ يَكُ مِنْ عُمْرِكَ يَأْتِ اللَّهَ فِيهِ بِرِزْقِكَ.

256. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O son of Adam! Do not inflict the worry of the Day that has not yet come but has already approached, because if that Day is in your life, Allāh will also bestow its livelihood.”

٢٥٧ - وقال (عليه السلام): النَّاسُ فِي الدُّنْيَا عَامِلَانِ: عَامِلٌ عَمِلَ فِي الدُّنْيَا لِلدُّنْيَا، قَدْ شَغَلَتْهُ دُنْيَاهُ عَنْ آخِرَتِهِ، يَخْشَى عَلَى مَنْ يَخْلُفُهُ الْفَقْرَ، وَيَأْمَنُ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ فَيَقْنِي عُمُرَهُ فِي مَنَافِعِهِ غَيْرِهِ، وَعَامِلٌ عَمِلَ فِي الدُّنْيَا لِمَا بَعْدَهَا فَجَاءَهُ الَّذِي لَهُ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا بِغَيْرِ عَمَلٍ فَأَخْرَزَ الْحَظِّينَ مَعَ مَلِكِ الدَّارَيْنِ جَمِيعًا، فَاصْبَحَ وَجِيهًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ لَا يَسْأَلُ اللَّهَ حَاجَةً فَيَمْنَعُهُ.

257. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There are two kinds of workers in the world: One is a person who labors in this world for this world; his labor for this world keeps him unmindful of the next. He is afraid of destitution for those whom he will leave behind but feels safe about it. So, he spends his life seeking the good of others. The other is one who labors in this world for what is to come hereafter, securing his share of this world without an effort. Thus, he gets the benefits of both, becoming the owner of both homes. This way, he is prestigious before Allāh. If he asks Allāh anything, He does not deny him.”

إِنَّ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ أَنْزَلَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ) وَالْأَمْوَالُ أَرْبَعَةٌ أَمْوَالُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ فَقَسَمَهَا بَيْنَ الْوَرِثَةِ فِي الْفَرَائِضِ وَالْفَيْءِ فَقَسَمَهُ عَلَى مُسْتَحِقِّيهِ وَالْخُمْسُ فَوَضَعَهُ اللَّهُ حَيْثُ وَضَعَهُ وَالصَّدَقَاتُ فَجَعَلَهَا اللَّهُ حَيْثُ جَعَلَهَا وَكَانَ حُلِيَّ الْكَعْبَةِ فِيهَا يَوْمَئِذٍ فَتَرَكَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَى حَالِهِ وَلَمْ يَثْرِكْهُ نِسْيَانًا وَلَمْ يَخْفِ عَلَيْهِ مَكَانًا فَاقْرَأْهُ حَيْثُ أَقْرَأَهُ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ عُمَرُ لَوْلَاكَ لَا فَتَضَحْنَا وَتَرَكَ الْحُلِيَّ بِحَالِهِ.

258. It is related that during the days of (caliph) `Omar ibn al-Khattāb, the question of the excess of ornaments of the Ka`ba was mentioned to him and some people suggested the following: “If you raise by it an army of Muslims, you will earn great rewards; after all, what would the Ka`ba do with ornaments?” `Omar considered doing so but asked Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ what he thought. The Imām said the following:

“When the Qur’ān was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ, there were four kinds of property. One is the property of a Muslim which he distributed among the successors according to fixed shares. Second is the tax (fay’ فيء) which he distributed to those for whom it was meant. Third, the one-fifth (khums خمس) for which Allāh had fixed ways to distribute. Fourth is charity (sadaqat) the disposal of which is also fixed by Allāh. The ornaments of the Ka`ba did exist in those days, but Allāh left them as they were. He did not leave them by omission, nor were they unknown to Him. Therefore, you should keep them where Allāh and His Prophet placed them.”

`Omar ibn al-Khattāb at that moment said, “If you had not been here, we would have been humiliated.” He left the ornaments as they were.

Among the first three caliphs, `Omar ibn al-Khattāb often used to call on Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ﷺ to help him solve many intricate problems, so as to benefit from his vast knowledge. But Abū Bakr, due to the short period of his caliphate, as well as `Othmān, due to the special circumstances of the latter's caliphate and entourage, seldom used to call on Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ﷺ and benefit from his advice. `Omar used to praise Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ﷺ very much for his vast knowledge, saying, "The most knowledgeable person among us in jurisprudence and judgment is Ali," as we read in these classic references: al-Bukhārī, Sahīh, Vol. 6, p. 23; Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Al-Musnad, Vol. 5, p. 113; al-Hākim, Al-Mustadrak, Vol. 3, p. 305; Ibn Sa'd, Tabaqāt, Vol. 2, part 2, p. 102; Ibn Abd al-Barr, Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, p. 1102 and others.

Certainly, there is no need for a testimony from `Omar or from others in this regard. `Omar himself and a group of the companions admit that the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to often say, "Ali is the most knowledgeable in jurisprudence and judgment among my umma (Muslim nation)," according to Akhbār al-Qudāt of al-Wakī, Vol. 1, p. 78; Masābīh as-Sunnah of al-Baghawī, Vol. 2, p. 203; Al-Istī'āb of Ibn Abd al-Barr, Vol. 1, pp. 16 - 17; Vol. 3, p. 1102; Ar-Riyād an-Nadīrah of al-Muhibb al-Tabarī, Vol. 2, p. 108 and Al-Sunan of Ibn Mājah, Vol. 1, p. 55. In this regard, imām Ahmad ibn Hanbal narrates from Abū Hazm that a certain man approached Mu`āwīyah and put to him some theological questions. Mu`āwīyah said, "Refer these questions to Ali who possesses better knowledge." The man said, "But I prefer to have your own reply rather than that of Ali." Mu`āwīyah silenced him and said, "This is the worst thing that I have ever heard from you! You have expressed hatred towards the person whom the Messenger of Allāh used to coach and tutor as a mother bird feeds a nestling by putting grain after grain into the mouth of the nestling with its beak and to whom the Messenger of Allāh said: 'You hold the same status in relation to me as Hārūn (Aaron) held in relation to Mūsa (Moses) except that there shall, in all certainty, be no prophet after me', and to whom `Omar used to turn for the solution of unsolved problems," as we read in: Fayd al-

Qadir of al-Munawi¹, Vol. 3, p. 46; Ar-Riyād an-Nadīrah of al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Vol. 2, p. 195; As-Sawā'iq al-Muhriqah of Ibn Hajar al-'Asqalāni, p. 107, and Fath al-Bāri, Vol. 17, p. 105 by the same author.

Also, 'Omar used to say the following quite frequently: "Women lack the ability to give birth to the like of Ali ibn Abū Tālib. Had it not been for Ali, 'Omar would have perished لولا علي لهلك عمر", according to the following sources: Ta'wīl Mukhtalaf al-Hadīth of Ibn Qutaybah, p. 202; Al-Istī'āb of Ibn Abd al-Barr, Vol. 3, p. 1103; Qudāt al-Andalus of al-Māliqi, p. 73; Ar-Riyād an-Nadīrah of al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Vol. 2, p. 194; Al-Manāqib of al-Khawārizmi, p. 39; Yanābī' al-Mawaddah of al-Zamakhshari, p. 75, 373; and Fayd al-Qadīr of al-Munawi, Vol. 4, p. 356).

He also used to say, "I seek the protection of Allāh from the problems for the solution of which Abul-Hassan (Ali) is not present," as we read in: Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, pp. 1102 - 1103; At-Tabaqāt, Vol. 2, part 2, p. 102; Sifatus-Safwah, Ibn al-Jawzi, Vol. 1, p. 121; Usd al-Ghābah, Vol. 4, pp. 22 - 23; Al-Isāba, Vol. 2, p. 509 and in the Tārīkh book of Ibn Kathīr, Vol. 7, p. 360.

'Omar used to often address Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام thus: "O Abul-Hassan! I seek the protection of Allāh from being in a community among whom you are not found," according to Al-Mustadrak, Vol. 1, pp. 457 - 58; At-Tafsīr, Fakhr ad-Dīn ar-Rāzi, Vol. 32, p.10; Ad-Durr al-Manthūr; al-Sayyūti, Vol. 3, p. 144; Ar-Riyād an-Nadīrah of al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Vol. 2, p. 197; Fayd al-Qadīr of al-Munawi, Vol. 3, p. 46; Vol. 4, p. 356 and As-Sawā'iq al-

¹His full name is محمد عبد الرؤوف بن تاج العارفين بن علي بن زين العابدين الحدا دي Muhammed ibn Abd al-Ra'ūf ibn Tāj al-'Ārifīn ibn Ali ibn Zain al-'Abidīn al-Haddādi al-Munawi. He was a senior scholar, a man of knowledge in both religion and arts. He dedicated his life to research and authorship. He used to eat very little and sleep very little, too, so he fell sick and his limbs weakened. His son, Tāj ad-Dīn Muhammed, used to write what his father dictated to him. He wrote as many as eighty works. He was born in Cairo, Egypt, in 952 A.H./1545 A.D. where he lived and died in 1031 A.H./1622 A.D.

Above all, this admission is the acknowledgment by the Holy Prophet of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ﷺ as narrated by 'Omar ibn al-Khattāb himself, Abū Sa'id al-Khudri and Mu'ath ibn Jabal. These dignitaries report saying that the Holy Prophet said: "O Ali! I have exceeded you in Prophethood, for there will be no prophet after me, and you exceed others in seven noble qualities. You are: i) the first [among all contemporary males] to believe in Allāh, ii) the best to fulfill your promise to Allāh, iii) the best to adhere to the commandments of Allāh, iv) the most equitable distributor among people, v) the best dispenser of justice (or the most clement) to the (Muslim) subjects, vi) the one who has the best insight into controversial issues (or the most learned in judgment), and vii) the most conspicuous in virtue and honor before Allāh," according to Hilyat al-Awliyā', Vol. 1, pp. 65, 66; Ar-Riyād an-Nadira of al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Vol. 2, p. 198; Al-Manāqib, al-Khawārizmi, p. 61; Kanz al-'Ummāl, Vol. 12, p. 214 and Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 13, p. 230.

It is also narrated by Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib, Abū Ayyūb al-Ansāri, Ma'qil ibn Yasar and Buraydah ibn Husayb that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to Fātima ﷺ, "Are you not satisfied that surely I have married you to the one who is the foremost of my umma in believing in Islam, the most knowledgeable among them and the superior to them all in clemency?" This is recorded in these sources: Al-Musnad, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Vol. 5, p. 26; Al-Musannaf, as-Sam'āni, Vol. 5, p. 490; Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, p. 1099; Usd al-Ghābah, Vol. 5, p. 520; Kanz al-'Ummāl, Vol. 12, p. 205; Vol. 15, p. 99; Majma' az-Zawā'id, Vol. 9, pp. 101, 114 and As-Sīrah al-Halabiyya, Vol. 1, p. 285.

Once we read the following saying by the Holy Prophet ﷺ, we will no longer be surprised when taking note, based on the above acknowledgments, of the vast knowledge of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib, his efficiency in the field of jurisprudence and judgment: "I am the city of knowledge and Ali is its gate; whoever wants to acquire (my) knowledge must come through the gate," as recorded in these references: Al-Mustadrak, Vol. 3, pp. 126 - 27; Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, p. 1102; Usd al-Ghābah, Vol. 4, p. 22; Tahdhīb at-Tahdhīb, Vol. 6, pp. 320-321; Vol. 7, p. 337; Majma' az-Zawā'id, Vol. 9, p. 114 and Kanz al-'Ummāl, Vol. 12, pp. 201, 212; Vol. 15, pp. 129-130.

Also, the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "I am the store-house of wisdom and Ali is its gate. Whoever wants to acquire wisdom must come through the gate," as we read in: Al-Jāmi' as-Sahīh, at-Tirmidhi, Vol. 5, pp. 637-638; Hilyat al-Awliyā', Vol. 1, p. 64; Masābīh as-Sunnah, al-Baghawi, Vol. 2, p. 275; Ar-Riyād an-Nadīrah of al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Vol. 12, p. 193 and Kanz al-'Ummāl of al-Muttaqi al-Hindi, Vol. 12, p. 201).

فلما قال (عليه السلام) هذا القول في كلام طويل قد ذكرنا مختاره في جملة الخطب، تقدم إليه رجلان من أصحابه، فقال أحدهما إنني لا أملك إلا نفسي وأخي، فمر بأمرك يا أمير المؤمنين ننقد له، فقال (عليه السلام): وأين ثَقَعَانِ مِمَّا أريدُ؟!

259. When the news of the attack of Mu'āwiyah's men on al-Anbār reached Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, he himself came out walking till he reached an-Nukhaylah where people overtook him and said: "O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib! We are [mighty] enough for [defeating] them." He said: You cannot be enough for me against yourselves; so, how can you be enough for me against others? Before me, the people used to complain of the oppression of their rulers, but now I have to complain of the wrongful actions of my own people, as though I am led by them and they are the leaders, or that I am the subject and they are the rulers."

The narrator says: "When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام uttered this during his speech, which we have included in the collection of sermons (No. 27 above), two men from among his companions advanced towards him and one of them said: "I I have power only over myself and my brother (Qur'ān, 5:25). So, order us with your command, O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib, and we will carry it out.” Thereupon, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “How can you two accomplish what I aim at?”

٢٦٠ - قِيلَ إِنَّ الْحَارِثَ بْنَ حَوْطٍ أَتَاهُ فَقَالَ أَتَرَانِي أَظُنُّ أَصْحَابَ الْجَمَلِ كَانُوا عَلَى ضَلَالَةٍ؟

فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): يَا حَارِثُ إِنَّكَ نَظَرْتَ ثُخْتَكَ وَلَمْ تَنْظُرْ فَوْقَكَ فَحِرْتَ إِنَّكَ لَمْ تُعْرِفِ الْحَقَّ فَتُعْرِفُ مَنْ أَتَاهُ وَلَمْ تُعْرِفِ الْبَاطِلَ فَتُعْرِفُ مَنْ أَتَاهُ.

فَقَالَ الْحَارِثُ: فَإِنِّي أَعْتَزُّلُ مَعَ سَعِيدِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ وَعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ، فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّ سَعِيدًا وَعَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ لَمْ يَنْصُرَا الْحَقَّ وَلَمْ يَخْذُلَا الْبَاطِلَ.

260. It is said that al-Hārith ibn Hawt al-Laithi came to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام and said: “Do you believe that I can ever imagine that the people of Jamal were wrong?” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O al-Hārith! You have seen below yourself, not above it; you have been confused. Certainly, you have known right, so that you can recognize the righteous. And you have not known wrong, so that you can recognize the people who are wrong!” Then al-Hārith said: “In that case, I shall withdraw along with Sa'd ibn Mālik¹ and Abdullāh ¹Sa'd ibn Mālik (i.e. Sa'd ibn Abū Waqqās, father of 'Omar ibn Sa'd who killed Imām al-Hussain عليه السلام) and Abdullāh ibn 'Omar were among those who were keeping themselves away from Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib's help and support. As for Sa'd ibn Abū Waqqās, after the killing of 'Othmān he retired to some wilderness and passed his life there; he did not agree to swear the oath of allegiance to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام (as caliph). But after the martyrdom of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, he used to express his repentance, saying, “I held an opinion but it was a wrong one,” according to al-Hākim's Mustadrak, Vol. 3, p. 116. When Mu'āwiyah blamed him for not supporting him in his fight against Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, Sa'd said, “I only repent for not having fought against the rebellious group (i.e. Mu'āwiyah and his folks),” according to these references: Ahkām al-Qur'ān of al-Jassās al-Hanafī, Vol. 2, pp. 224 – 25 and Al-Furū' of Ibn Muflih al-Hanbali, Vol. 3, p. 542. As for Abdullāh ibn 'Omar, although he had sworn allegiance, he refused to help Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام in his battles putting forth this excuse: “I have sought seclusion in order to devote myself to worship and I do not want to involve ibn `Omar,” whereupon Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Verily, Sa`d and `Omar have neither sided with right nor forsaken wrong.”

٢٦١ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): صَاحِبُ السُّلْطَانِ كَرَائِبِ الْأَسَدِ: يُغْبِطُ بِمَوْقِعِهِ، وَهُوَ أَغْلَمُ بِمَوْضِعِهِ.

261. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “One who holds authority is like one who rides a lion; he is envied for his status but he well knows it.”¹ myself in war and fighting.” A Persian couplet says that intelligence regards such excuses to be worse than the offence itself. Abdullāh ibn `Omar also frequently used to express his repentance, even up to the last moments of his life, saying, “I do not find anything in myself in this world that I regret except not having fought alongside Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ against the rebellious group as Allāh, to Whom belongs Might and Majesty, had commanded me,” according to Al-Mustadrak, Vol. 3, pp. 115 - 16; Al-Sunan al-Kubra, al-Bayhaqi, Vol. 8, p. 172; Al-Tabaqāt of Ibn Sa`d, Vol. 4, part 1, pp. 136 - 37; Al-Istī`āb, Vol. 3, p. 953; Usd al-Ghābah, Vol. 3, p. 229; Vol. 4, p. 33; Majma` az-Zawā'id, Vol. 3, p. 182; Vol. 7, p. 242; Al-Furū', Vol. 3, p. 543; Rūh al-Ma`āni of al-Ālūsī, Vol. 26, p. 151.

٢٦٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَحْسِنُوا فِي عَقَبِ غَيْرِكُمْ تُحْفَظُوا فِي عَقَبِكُمْ.

262. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Do good deeds to the bereaved ones so that good is done to your bereaved ones, too.”

¹The notion here is that if a person holds a high position in, say, a royal court, people look at his rank, status, honor and prestige with envy. But he always fears lest the royal pleasure should turn against him and he falls in the pit of disgrace, dishonor, death and destruction. He is like the rider on a lion with whom people are awed, but he himself faces the danger lest the lion should devour him or throw him in some fatal pit.

263. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “When the utterance of the wise is to the point, it serves as a cure, but if it is wrong, it acts like an illness.¹

٢٦٤ - وَسَأَلَهُ رَجُلٌ أَنْ يُعَرِّفَهُ الْإِيمَانَ فَقَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): إِذَا كَانَ الْغَدُ فَاتِنِي حَتَّى أَخْبِرَكَ عَلَى أَسْمَاعِ النَّاسِ، فَإِنْ نَسِيتَ مَقَالَتِي حَفِظَهَا عَلَيْكَ غَيْرُكَ، فَإِنَّ الْكَلَامَ كَالشَّارِدَةِ، يَنْفَقُهَا هَذَا وَيُخْطِئُهَا هَذَا.

264. Someone asked Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام to define conviction for him. The Imām said, “Come to me tomorrow so that I may enlighten you in the presence of all people; thus, if you forget what I say, others might retain it. This is so because an utterance is like a fluttering prey which may be grappled by someone but missed by others.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “We have already stated in the earlier chapter how Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام replied to this man, namely his saying (No. 31): ‘Faith stands on four pillars, etc.’”

٢٦٥ - وَقَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): أَحَبُّ حَبِيبِكَ هَوْنًا مَا عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ بَغِيضَكَ يَوْمًا مَا، وَأَبْغَضُ بَغِيضِكَ هَوْنًا مَا عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ حَبِيبَكَ يَوْمًا مَا.

265. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Love your friend up to a limit, for it is possible that he may turn into your enemy some day. And hate your enemy up to a limit, for it is possible he may turn into your friend some day.”

¹The learned and the reformers are responsible for improvement as well as deterioration because the common people are under their influence; they regard their words and actions as being correct and sound. They rely on them and act on their statements. Thus, if their teaching caters for improvement, then thousands of individuals will acquire improvement and betterment by it. But if there is evil in it, thousands of individuals will get involved in misgiving and straying. That is why it is said: “When a scholar gets into evil, the whole world gets into evil.”

266. It is related that two persons were brought to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام once. They had stolen a public property. One of them was a slave purchased with public money, whereas the other had been purchased by someone from among the people. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said, “As for the one who has stolen the public funds, there is no punishment for him, for it means one who is the property of Allāh has taken another property of Allāh. As for the other, he should be punished.” Consequently, the thief’s hand was cut off.

267. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If my steps acquire firmness out of these slippery places, I will alter several things.”¹

¹It cannot be denied that after the demise of the Prophet of Islam ﷺ, changes came into existence in the Islamic faith. Some people who acted on their own inclinations altered the commands of the Sharī’a although none has the right to make alteration to it. This will be ignoring the clear commands of the Qur’ān and the Sunnah and enforcing, in their place, commands produced by one’s own inclination or way of thinking. Thus, the Qur’ān contains this clear method of divorce: الطَّلَاقُ مَرَّتَانِ “(Revokable) divorce (i.e. divorce in which resumption of conjugal relations is permissible without a marriage to another man) may be done with two pronouncements” (Qur’ān, 2:229). But due to certain supposed advantages, caliph ‘Omar ordered three pronouncements to be required on a single occasion. Similarly, he introduced the system of ‘awl in inheritance and introduced four takbīrs in the funeral prayers. In the same way, caliph ‘Othmān added an adhān to the Friday prayer service, ordering the offering of full prayers in place of qasr (shortened) ones, allowing the sermon to precede the ‘Id prayer service. In fact, hundreds of commands of this type were altered or fabricated. As a result, even correct commands were somehow mixed with wrong ones, causing a loss of authenticity. For such changes to the creed, see the following references: Al-Ghadīr, Al-Amāni [changes introduced by Abū Bakr], Vol. 7, pp. 74 - 236; [changes introduced by ‘Omar], Vol. 6, pp. 83-325; [changes introduced by ‘Othmān], Vol. 8, pp. 98-387; An-Nass wal-Ijtihād, Sharafud-Dīn [changes introduced by Abū Bakr], pp. 76 - 154; [changes introduced by ‘Omar], pp. 155-276 and [changes introduced by ‘Othmān], pp. 284 - 89. See also Muqaddimat Mir’ātul-‘Uqūl by Murtada al-‘Askari, Vol. 1 & 2.

Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, who was the greatest scholar of the Sharī'a, used to protest against these orders and expressed his views about the changes made by some companions, sahāba. In this regard, the Mu'tazilite scholar Ibn Abul-Hadīd writes the following: "There is no possibility for us to deny that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib had views on the commands of the Sharī'a and opinions at odds with those of the companions," as we read on p. 161, Vol. 19 of his encyclopedia titled Sharh Nahjul-Balāgha.

When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام took charge of the formal caliphate, rebellions soon cropped up on all sides as a result of which he could not get rid of innovations introduced into the faith; those troubles chased him up to the last moment of his holy life. Consequently, the altered commands could not be fully corrected or eradicated. Many wrong or doubtful commands gained currency in areas far removed from the center. Nevertheless, a group of people associated with Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام used to inquire about the commands of the Sharī'a from him directly, and they recorded his answers to their queries. As a result, the correct commands did not totally disappear, the wrong ones did not become unanimously accepted, thanks to Allāh Who protects His creed.

٢٦٨ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): اَعْلَمُوا عِلْمًا يَقِينًا أَنَّ اللَّهَ لَمْ يَجْعَلْ لِلْعَبْدِ وَإِنْ عَظُمَتْ حِيلَتُهُ وَاسْتَدَّتْ طَلِبَتُهُ وَقَوِيَتْ مَكِيدَتُهُ أَكْثَرَ مِمَّا سُمِّيَ لَهُ فِي الذِّكْرِ الْحَكِيمِ، وَلَمْ يَحُلْ بَيْنَ الْعَبْدِ فِي ضَعْفِهِ وَقَلَّةِ حِيلَتِهِ وَبَيْنَ أَنْ يَبْلُغَ مَا سُمِّيَ لَهُ فِي الذِّكْرِ الْحَكِيمِ، وَالْعَارِفُ لِهَذَا الْعَامِلِ بِهِ أَعْظَمُ النَّاسِ رَاحَةً فِي مَنْفَعَةٍ، وَالتَّارِكُ لَهُ الشَّاكُ فِيهِ أَعْظَمُ النَّاسِ شُغْلًا فِي مَضَرَّةٍ، وَرَبُّ مَنْعَمٍ عَلَيْهِ مُسْتَذْرَجٌ بِالنُّعْمَى، وَرَبُّ مُبْتَلًى مَصْنُوعٌ لَهُ بِالْبَلَوَى، فَرَدَّ أَيُّهَا الْمُسْتَنْفَعُ فِي شُكْرِكَ، وَقَصَرَ مِنْ عَجَلَتِكَ، وَقَفَّ عِنْدَ مُنْتَهَى رِزْقِكَ.

268. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "You have to know with full conviction that Allāh has not fixed for any person more livelihood than what has been ordained in the Book of Destiny, even though his means (of seeking it) may be great, his craving for it intense and his efforts for it acute. Nor does the weakness of a person or the paucity of his means stand in the way between him and what is ordained in the Book of Destiny for him. Whoever realizes it and acts on earns the best of comfort and benefit, while whoever disregards it and doubts it exceeds all men in disadvantages. Very often, a person who is granted favors is slowly driven (towards punishment) through these same favors. Quite often, an afflicted person receives goodness out of his affliction (such as a blessing disguised as a calamity). Therefore, O listener, increase your gratefulness, lessen your haste and stay within the bounds of your livelihood.”

٢٦٩ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا تَجْعَلُوا عِلْمَكُمْ جَهْلًا وَيَقِينَكُمْ شَكًّا إِذَا عِلِمْتُمْ فاعْمَلُوا، وَإِذَا نَبَيْتُمْ فَأَقْدِمُوا.

269. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do not turn your knowledge into ignorance or your conviction into doubt. When you gain knowledge act (on it), and when you acquire conviction, proceed (on its basis).”¹

٢٧٠ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّ الطَّمَعَ مُورِدٌ غَيْرُ مُصْدِرٍ وَضَامِنٌ غَيْرُ وَفِيٍّ وَرَبِّمَا شَرَقَ شَارِبُ الْمَاءِ قَبْلَ رِيِّهِ وَكَلَّمَا عَظُمَ قَدْرُ الشَّيْءِ الْمُتَنَافَسِ فِيهِ عَظُمَتِ الرَّزِيَّةُ لِفَقْدِهِ وَالْأَمَانِيُّ تُعْمِي أَعْيُنَ الْبَصَائِرِ وَالْحَظُّ يَأْتِي مَنْ لَا يَأْتِيهِ.

270. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Greed (or foolishness) takes a person to the watering place but brings him back thirsty. It undertakes responsibility but does not fulfill it. Often, the drinker gets choked before he quenches his thirst. The greater the worth of a thing yearned for is, the greater is the grief for its loss. Desires blind the eyes of understanding. The destined share will reach whoever does not approach it.”

¹Knowledge and conviction demand that they should be acted on, applied, implemented, turned into action... If they are not acted on, they cannot be called knowledge and conviction. Consequently, if a man says that he knows the dangers that exist on a particular path but he adopts that very path for his journey, instead of the path that is danger-free, then who can say that this man had full certainty about the dangers of that path? This is so because the consequence of such certainty should have prevented him from going along that path. Similarly, the person who has a firm belief (i.e. īmān, conviction) in the resurrection and revival of life, or in chastisement and reward, cannot be overpowered by those things of this world that make a man neglectful to the extent that he disregards the next life. He should not fall short of doing good deeds for fear of chastisement and evil consequences.

271. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O Allāh! I seek Your protection from this: that I may appear to be good in the eyes of people while my inward self may be sinful before You, and that I may guard myself (from sinning) only for show before people although You are aware of everything about me. Thus, I appear before the people in good shape although my evil acts are placed before You. This means achieving nearness to Your creatures but remoteness from Your pleasure.”

٢٧٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا وَالَّذِي أَمْسَيْنَا مِنْهُ فِي غَيْرِ لَيْلَةٍ دَهْمَاءَ تُكْثِرُ عَنْ يَوْمٍ آخَرَ مَا كَانَ كَذَا وَكَذَا.

272. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I swear by the One Who let us pass the dark night after which there was a bright day that such and such¹ did not happen.”

273. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A small act of goodness which is continued regularly is more beneficial than a grand one carried out with grudge.

٢٧٤ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِذَا أَضْرَبْتَ النَّوَافِلَ بِالْفَرَائِضِ، فَارْقُضُوهَا.

274. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “When optional deeds (of worship) stand in the way of obligatory ones, abandon them.”

٢٧٥ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَنْ تَذَكَّرَ بَعْدَ السَّفَرِ اسْتَعَدَّ.

275. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever keeps the distance of the journey (to the afterlife) in view remains prepared.”

¹ Sayyid ar-Radi has not written what it was that did not happen, leaving us only with the first part of the sentence!

٢٧٦- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَيْسَتْ الرُّؤْيَا كَالْمُعَايَنَةِ مَعَ الْبَابِصَارِ فَقَدْ تُكَذِّبُ الْعُيُونُ أَهْلَهَا وَلَا يَعْشُرُ الْعَقْلُ مَنْ اسْتَنْصَحَهُ.

276. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Perception by the eyes is not real observation because the eyes sometimes deceive people; but wisdom does not deceive whomsoever it counsels.”

٢٧٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَ الْمَوْعِظَةِ حِجَابٌ مِنَ الْغُرَّةِ.

277. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Between you and preaching there is a curtain of deception.”

٢٧٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): جَاهِلُكُمْ مُزْدَادٌ وَعَالِمُكُمْ مُسَوِّفٌ.

278. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The ignorant ones from among you get too much while the learned are just put off.”

٢٧٩- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): قَطَعَ الْعِلْمُ عُذْرَ الْمُتَعَلِّلِينَ.

279. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Knowledge dispels the excuse of those who produce excuses.” Compare this statement with the wise axiom that says, “Those who excuse themselves accuse themselves.”

280. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Anyone whom death overtakes early seeks time (respite), while the death of anyone who is deferred puts forth excuses for the postpone-ment (of doing good deeds).”

281. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “For every thing to which people say ‘how good it is!’ there is an evil hidden in this world.”

٢٨٢- وَسَنِلَ عَنِ الْقَدَرِ فَقَالَ طَرِيقٌ مُظْلِمٌ فَلَا تُسْلِكُوهُ وَبَحْرٌ عَمِيقٌ فَلَا تُلْجُوهُ وَسِرٌّ لِلَّهِ فَلَا تُتَكَلَّفُوهُ.

282. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked about destiny. He said the following: “It is a dark path; do not tread on it. It is a deep ocean; do not dive into it. And it is the secret of Allāh; do not trouble yourselves about (knowing) it (because you never will).”

٢٨٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ عَبْدًا حَظَرَ عَلَيْهِ الْعِلْمَ.

283. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “When Allāh intends to humiliate a person, He denies him knowledge.”

٢٨٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): كَانَ لِي فِيمَا مَضَى أَخٌ فِي اللَّهِ، وَكَانَ يُعْظِمُهُ فِي عَيْنِي صِغَرُ الدُّنْيَا فِي عَيْنِهِ، وَكَانَ خَارِجًا مِنْ سُلْطَانِ بَطْنِهِ، فَلَا يَشْتَهِي مَا لَا يَجِدُ، وَلَا يُكْثِرُ إِذَا وَجَدَ، وَكَانَ أَكْثَرَ دَهْرِهِ صَامِتًا، فَإِنْ قَالَ بَدَّ الْقَائِلِينَ وَتَقَعَ غَلِيلُ السَّائِلِينَ، وَكَانَ ضَعِيفًا مُسْتَضْعَفًا، فَإِنْ جَاءَ الْجِدُّ فَهُوَ لَيْثٌ غَابٍ وَصِلٌ وَادٍ، لَا يَذِلِّي بِحُجَّةٍ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَ قَاضِيًا، وَكَانَ لَا يَلُومُ أَحَدًا عَلَى مَا يَجِدُ الْعُدْرَ فِي مِثْلِهِ حَتَّى يَسْمَعَ اعْتِذَارَهُ، وَكَانَ لَا يَشْكُو وَجَعًا إِلَّا عِنْدَ بُرْنِهِ، وَكَانَ يَقُولُ مَا يَقَعْلُ وَلَا يَقُولُ مَا لَا يَقَعْلُ، وَكَانَ إِذَا غَلِبَ عَلَى الْكَلَامِ لَمْ يُغْلِبْ عَلَى السَّكُوتِ، وَكَانَ عَلَى مَا يَسْمَعُ أَخْرَصَ مِنْهُ عَلَى أَنْ يَتَكَلَّمَ، وَكَانَ إِذَا بَدَّهَ أَمْرًا يَنْظُرُ أَتَاهُمَا أَقْرَبُ إِلَى الْهَوَىٰ فَيُخَالِفُهُ؛ فَعَلَيْكُمْ بِهِذِهِ الْخَلَائِقُ فَالزَّمُوهَا وَتَنَافَسُوا فِيهَا، فَإِنْ لَمْ تَسْتَطِيعُوهَا فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ أَخَذَ الْقَلِيلُ خَيْرٌ مِنْ تَرَكِ الْكَثِيرِ.

284. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “In the past, I had a brother-in-faith¹, and he was prestigious in my view because the world was humble in his eyes, the needs of the stomach did not have a sway over him. He did not long for what he did not get. If he got a thing, he would not ask for more. He remained most of the time silent. When he spoke, he silenced the other speakers. He quenched the thirst of inquirers. He was weak and feeble, but at the time of fighting, he was like the lion of the forest or the serpent of the valley: He will not put forth an argument unless it was decisive.

He would not abuse anyone in an excusable matter unless he had heard the excuse. He would not speak of any trouble except after its disappearance. He spoke of what he would do, and he would not say what he would not. Even if he could be exceeded in speech, he could not be excelled in silence. He was more eager for keeping quiet than speaking, and if two things confronted him, he would see which one was more akin to the longing of the heart, and he would oppose it.

“These qualities are incumbent on you. So, you should acquire them and compete with each other in upholding them. Even if you cannot acquire them, you should know that acquiring a part is better than giving up the whole.”

٢٨٥- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَوْ لَمْ يَتَوَعَّدِ اللَّهُ عَلَى مَعْصِيَتِهِ لَكَانَ يَجِبُ أَلَّا يُعْصَى شُكْرًا لِنِعْمِهِ.

285. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Even if Allāh had not warned of a chastisement on those who are disobedient to Him, it would be obligatory by way of gratitude for His favors that He should not be disobeyed.”

٢٨٦- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) وَقَدْ عَزَى الْأَشْعَثُ بْنُ قَيْسٍ عَنْ ابْنِ لَهُ: يَا أَشْعَثُ! إِنْ تَحْزَنَ عَلَى ابْنِكَ فَقَدْ اسْتَحَقَّ مِنْكَ ذَلِكَ الرَّحْمُ، وَإِنْ تُصْبِرْ فَقَبِلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ كُلِّ مُصِيبَةٍ خَلْفًا. يَا أَشْعَثُ! إِنْ صَبَرْتَ جَرَى عَلَيْكَ الْقَدَرُ وَأَنْتَ مَاجُورٌ، وَإِنْ جَزَعْتَ جَرَى عَلَيْكَ الْقَدَرُ وَأَنْتَ مَازُورٌ. يَا أَشْعَثُ! ابْنُكَ سَرَكٌ، وَهُوَ بَلَاءٌ وَفِتْنَةٌ، وَحَزَنُكَ وَهُوَ ثَوَابٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ.

286. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said the following to express his condolences to al-Ash'ath ibn Qays about (the death of) his son: “O Ash'ath! If you grieve over your son, certainly it is the consequence of the blood relationship; but if you endure, Allāh will then provide recompense for every affliction. O Ash'ath! If you endure even then, matters will move on as ordained by Allāh. But in that case, you will deserve to be rewarded, whereas if you lose patience, matters will again move as ordained by Allāh. But in this case, you will be bearing the burden (of your sins). O Ash'ath! Your son made you happy while, at the same time, he was a trial and a hardship. (When

٢٨٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) عَلَى قَبْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (صلى الله عليه وآله) سَاعَةٌ دَفْنِهِ: إِنَّ الصَّبْرَ لَجَمِيلٌ إِلَّا عَنكَ وَإِنَّ الْجَزَعَ لَقَبِيحٌ إِلَّا عَلَيْكَ وَإِنَّ الْمُصَابَ بِكَ لَجَلِيلٌ وَإِنَّهُ قَبْلَكَ وَبَعْدَكَ لَجَلَلٌ.

287. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following at the grave of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at the time of his burial: “Certainly endurance is good except in your regard, O Messenger of Allāh! Fretting is bad except over you. And the affliction about you is great while every other affliction before or after it is petty.”

٢٨٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا تُصْحَبِ الْمَانِقَ فَإِنَّهُ يُزَيِّنُ لَكَ فِعْلَهُ وَيَوَدُّ أَنْ تَكُونَ مِثْلَهُ.

288. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do not associate with a fool because he will beautify his actions for you and wish that you, too, would be like him.”¹

٢٨٩- وَقَدْ سُئِلَ عَنْ مَسَافَةٍ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَسِيرَةُ يَوْمٍ لِلشَّمْسِ.

289. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked once about the distance between the East and the West. He replied as follows: “A day’s trip for the sun.”

٢٩٠ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَصْدِقَاؤُكَ ثَلَاثَةٌ وَأَعْدَاؤُكَ: ثَلَاثَةٌ فَأَصْدِقَاؤُكَ صَدِيقُكَ وَصَدِيقُ صَدِيقِكَ وَعَدُوُّكَ؛ وَأَعْدَاؤُكَ: عَدُوُّكَ وَعَدُوُّ صَدِيقِكَ وَصَدِيقُ عَدُوِّكَ.

290. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Your friends are three and your enemies are (also) three: Your friends are: your friend, your friend’s friend and your enemy’s enemy. And your enemies are: your enemy, your friend’s enemy and your enemy’s friend.”

٢٩١ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِرَجُلٍ رَأَاهُ يَسْعَى عَلَى عَدُوٍّ لَهُ بِمَا فِيهِ إِضْرَارٌ بِنَفْسِهِ: إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ كَالطَّاعِنِ نَفْسَهُ لِيُقْتَلَ رَدْفُهُ.

291. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ saw a man busy scheming against his enemy with what was harmful to his own self as well, so he said to him, “You are like one who pierces a spear through himself in order to kill the person iding behind him!”

٢٩٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا أَكْثَرَ الْعِبَرَ وَأَقَلَّ الْإِغْتِبَارَ.

292. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “How many the admonishments are, yet how few those who take lessons from them!”¹ ¹If the vicissitudes and changes of this world are observed, the circumstances and conditions of the people attended to, and their histories noted, then from every corner edifying stories can be heard. Such stories are fully capable of arousing the mind out of its forgetful slumber or providing instruction and imparting teaching and clear-mindedness. Thus, the creation and dissolution of everything in this world, the blossoming of flowers and their withering, the thriving of vegetation and its withering away and the subjugation of every atom to change provide such instructive lessons that they are enough to curb any hope of attaining eternity in this deceitful life as long as the eyes and ears are not closed to these instructive events.

A Persian couplet says:

*The world is full of stories of folk gone by,
But unless one lends an ear to it, feeble is its cry.*

٢٩٣ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَنْ بَالَعَ فِي الْخُصُومَةِ أَثِمَ وَمَنْ قَصَرَ فِيهَا ظَلِمَ وَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُ أَنْ يَتَّقِيَ اللَّهَ مَنْ خَاصَمَ.

293. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Whoever goes too far contending, as well as that who falls short therein, becomes oppressed, and it is difficult for a contender to fear Allāh.”

٢٩٤ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا أَهْمَنِي ذَنْبٌ أَهَلْتُ بِهِ حَتَّى أَصَلِّيَ رَكَعَتَيْنِ وَأَسْأَلَ اللَّهَ الْعَافِيَةَ.

294. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “I am not worried about a fault after which I get time to offer prayers in two units (rek`āt) and beg safety from the wrath of Allāh.”

٢٩٥ - وَسُئِلَ (عليه السلام) كَيْفَ يُحَاسِبُ اللَّهُ الْخَلْقَ عَلَى كَثَرَتِهِمْ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): كَمَا يَرْزُقُهُمْ عَلَى كَثَرَتِهِمْ فَقِيلَ كَيْفَ يُحَاسِبُهُمْ وَلَا يَرَوْنَهُ؟ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): كَمَا يَرْزُقُهُمْ وَلَا يَرَوْنَهُ.

295. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ was asked once: “How will Allāh conduct the accounting of all persons despite their large number?” He replied: “Just as He provides them livelihood despite their large number.” Then it was said to Him: “How will He conduct their accounting without their seeing Him?” He replied: “Just as He provides them with livelihood although they do not see Him.”

٢٩٦ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): رَسُولُكَ تُرْجِمَانُ عَقْلِكَ، وَكِتَابُكَ أَبْلَغُ مَا يَنْطِقُ عَنْكَ.

296. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said (perhaps in a letter answering someone): “Your messenger interprets your intelligence, while your letter is more eloquent in expressing your true self.”

٢٩٧ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا الْمُبْتَلَى الَّذِي قَدْ اشْتَدَّ بِهِ الْبَلَاءُ بِأَخْوَجَ إِلَى الدُّعَاءِ الَّذِي لَا يَأْمَنُ الْبَلَاءَ.

297. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The person who is afflicted with hardship is not in a greater need for praying than the one who has been spared affliction but is not immune to it.”

٢٩٨ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): النَّاسُ أَبْنَاءُ الدُّنْيَا، وَلَا يُلَامُ الرَّجُلُ عَلَى حُبِّ أُمِّهِ.

298. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “People are the progeny of the world, and none can be blamed for loving his mother.”

٢٩٩ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّ الْمِسْكِينَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ؛ فَمَنْ مَنَعَهُ فَقَدْ مَنَعَ اللَّهَ، وَمَنْ أَعْطَاهُ فَقَدْ أَعْطَى اللَّهَ.

299. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The destitute person is (like) a messenger of Allāh. Whoever denies him denies Allāh, and whoever gives him gives Allāh.”

٣٠٠- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا زَنَى غَيُورٌ قَطُّ.

300. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “A self-respecting man never commits adultery.”

٣٠١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): كَفَى بِالْأَجَلِ حَارِسًا.

301. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Suffices the fixed life term to remain ever watchful.”¹

٣٠٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): يَنَامُ الرَّجُلُ عَلَى الثُّكُلِ وَلَا يَنَامُ عَلَى الْحَرَبِ.

قال الرضي: و معنى ذلك أنه يصبر على قتل الأولاد و لا يصبر على سلب الأموال.

302. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “A man can sleep over the death of his child but cannot sleep over the loss of his property.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “This statement means that a man remains patient about the death of his children but does not do so at the loss of his property.”

٣٠٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَوَدَّةُ الْآبَاءِ قَرَابَةٌ بَيْنَ الْإِبْنَاءِ، وَالْقَرَابَةُ إِلَى الْمَوَدَّةِ أَخَوُجٌ مِنَ الْمَوَدَّةِ إِلَى الْقَرَابَةِ.

303. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Mutual affection between parents creates a sound relationship between sons. A relationship is more in need of affection than affection is for a relationship.”

٣٠٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): انْقُضُوا ظُنُونُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى جَعَلَ الْحَقَّ عَلَى السَّيْتِهِمْ.

¹The idea here is that lightning may flash a hundred thousand times, tempests may rise, earth may quake and mountains may collide with each other. But as long as the fixed period of life has yet to run its course, no occurrence can cause any harm, nor the typhoon of death may put the flame of life out. There is a fixed hour for death, and nothing can cut it short before that time. Thus, death itself is the watchman and guardian of life. A poet has said, “What is known as death is (actually) the watchman over life.”

304. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Be afraid of the thoughts of believers because Allāh, the most Exalted One, has placed the truth on their tongues.”

٣٠٥ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا يَصْدُقُ إِيْمَانُ عَبْدٍ حَتَّى يَكُونَ بِمَا فِي يَدِ اللَّهِ أَوْثَقَ مِنْهُ بِمَا فِي يَدِهِ.

305. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The belief of a person cannot be regarded as true unless his trust in what is with Allāh is greater than his trust in what he himself has.”

٣٠٦ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِيَأْنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ، وَقَدْ كَانَ بَعَثَهُ إِلَى طَلْحَةَ وَالزُّبَيْرِ لَمَّا جَاءَ إِلَى الْبَصْرَةِ يُذَكِّرُهُمَا شَيْئًا مِمَّا سَمِعَهُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (صلى الله عليه وآله) فِي مَعَاهُمَا، قَلَوِي عَنْ ذَلِكَ فَرَجَعَ إِلَيْهِ فَقَالَ: إِنِّي أَنْسَيْتُ ذَلِكَ الْأَمْرَ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنْ كُنْتَ كَاذِبًا فَضَرَبَكَ اللَّهُ بِهَا بَيضَاءَ لَامِعَةٍ لَا تُوَارِيهَا الْعِمَامَةُ.

قال الرضي: يعني البرص فأصاب أنسا هذا الداء فيما بعد في وجهه فكان لا يرى إلا مبرقعا.

306. When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام came to Basra, he sent Anas ibn Mālik to Talhah and az-Zubayr to remind them of what he (Anas) himself had heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying concerning them both, but he avoided doing so. When he came back to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, he said that he had forgotten that matter. Thereupon, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If you are speaking a lie, Allāh will afflict you with white spots (leucoderma) which even a turban may not cover.” And so it was.

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “White spot means leucoderma. After sometime this disease did take place to Anas’s face, so much so that he was never seen with his face uncovered.”¹

¹The occasion and circumstances surrounding this statement, as related by Sayyid ar-Radi, were as follows: During the Battle of the Camel, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام sent Anas ibn Mālik to Talhah and az-Zubayr so that he should remind them of the Prophet’s statement to the following effect: “You both will fight Ali and will commit excess in his regard.” Anas ibn

٣٠٧ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّ لِلْقُلُوبِ إِقْبَالَ وَإِدْبَارًا، فَإِذَا أَقْبَلَتْ فَاحْمِلُوهَا عَلَى النَّوَافِلِ، وَإِذَا أَدْبَرَتْ فَاقْتَصِرُوا بِهَا عَلَى الْفَرَائِضِ.

307. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Sometimes the hearts advance [towards their Creator] and sometimes they retreat. When they advance, get them to perform the optional [acts of worship] (as Mālik went back stating that he had forgotten to mention it. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام then uttered these words about him. However, it is said that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام made this statement when he wanted Anas to confirm the Prophet’s saying: “Whoever accepts me as his master, Ali is his master. O Allāh! Love whoever loves Ali and hate whoever hates Ali.” Consequently, numerous persons have testified to this hadīth, but Anas kept quiet [and did not narrate it]... Then, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said to him, “You, too, were present at Ghadīr Khumm. What is keeping you silent on this occasion?” Anas said, “I have grown old and my memory does not serve me well.” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام made this statement then, as we read in these references: Ansāb al-Ashrāf of al-Balādhiri where the biography of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام is discussed on pp. 156 - 57; Al-A’lāq an-Nafīṣah of Ibn Rustah, p. 221; Latā’if al-Ma’ārif of ath-Tha’ālibi, pp. 105 - 106; Muhadarāt al-Udabā’ of ar-Rāghib, Vol. 3, p. 293; Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 4, p. 74; Arjah al-Matālib of Shaikh ‘Ubaydullāh al-Hanafī, pp. 578 - 80. In this regard, Ibn Qutaybah (Abdullāh ibn Muslim ad-Dainūri [231 - 276 A.D./828 - 889 A.D.]) writes the following: “People have related that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام asked Anas ibn Mālik about the Prophet’s saying: ‘O Allāh! Love whoever loves Ali and hate whoever hates Ali,’ and he replied, ‘If you are a liar, may Allāh afflict you with white spots which even a turban may not cover,’” as recorded on p. 580 of Al-Ma’ārif. Ibn Abul-Hadīd has also supported this view. Denying his knowledge of the incident mentioned by Sayyid ar-Radi, he writes the following: “The incident mentioned by Sayyid ar-Radi that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام sent Anas ibn Mālik to Talhah and az-Zubayr is an unrecorded event. If Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام had sent him particularly to remind them of the Prophet’s saying concerning them, then he could hardly have come back and said that he had forgotten it because when he left Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام and went to those two individuals, he should have admitted and remembered the saying; therefore, how could he, on his return after an hour or a day, plead that he had forgotten it and deny it? This is something which cannot happen,” as stated on pp. 217 - 18, Vol. 19 of Sharh Nahjul-Balāgha.

well). But when they retreat, keep them confined to only what is obligatory.”

٣٠٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): وَفِي الْقُرْآنِ نَبَأُ مَا قَبْلَكُمْ وَخَبَرُ مَا بَعْدَكُمْ وَحُكْمُ مَا بَيْنَكُمْ.

308. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The Qur’ān contains news about the past, predictions about the future and commandments for the present.”

٣٠٩- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): رُدُّوا الْحَجَرَ مِنْ حَيْثُ جَاءَ فَإِنَّ الشَّرَّ لَا يَدْفَعُهُ إِلَّا الشَّرُّ.

309. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Throw a stone in return from where one comes to you because evil can be met only with evil.”

٣١٠- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِكَاتِبِهِ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي رَافِعٍ: أَلِقْ دَوَائِكَ وَأَطِلْ جِلْفَةَ قَلَمِكَ وَفَرِّجْ بَيْنَ السُّطُورِ وَفَرِّمِ بَيْنَ الْحُرُوفِ، فَإِنَّ ذَلِكَ أَجْدَرُ بِصَبَاحَةِ الْخَطِّ.

310. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said to his secretary `Ubaydullāh ibn Abū Rafi`: “Put a cotton flake in the ink pot, keep the nib of your pen long, leave some space between the lines and close up the letters because this is good for the beauty of the writing.”

٣١١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَنَا يَعْصُوبُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمَالُ يَعْصُوبُ الْفُجَّارَ.

قال الرضي: و معنى ذلك أن المؤمنين يتبعونني و الفجار يتبعون المال كما تتبع النحل يعسوبها، و هو رئيسها.

311. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “I am the ya`sūb (chief, head, leader, etc.) of the believers, while wealth is the leader of the wicked.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “It means that the believers follow me while the wicked follow the path that take them to wealth and riches just as the bees follow their ya`sūb, leader.”¹

¹We have already explained the meaning of the word “ya`sūb” in the footnote of saying No. 262 above and pointed out that this title was given to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام by the Holy Prophet ﷺ himself. We quoted some of his different statements on this subject. Here we quote one

٣١٢- وَقَالَ لَهُ بَعْضُ الْيَهُودِ: مَا دَفَنْتُمْ نَبِيَّكُمْ حَتَّى اخْتَلَفْتُمْ فِيهِ؛ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَهُ إِنَّمَا اخْتَلَفْنَا عَنْهُ لَا فِيهِ، وَلَكُمْ مِمَّا جَفَّتْ أَرْجُلُكُمْ مِنَ الْبَحْرِ حَتَّى قُلْتُمْ لِنَبِيِّكُمْ: اجْعَلْ لَنَا إِلَهًا كَمَا لَهُمْ آلِهَةٌ، قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ تَجْهَلُونَ.

312. Some Jews said to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام: “You did not even bury your Prophet when you picked up differences about him (about successorship to him).” It is then that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام replied thus: “We did not differ about him; we differed after him (i.e. about his succession). You had not dried up your feet yet, having come out of the river, when you began asking your Prophet (Moses عليه السلام): ‘Make for us a god as they have gods of their own.’ Said he, ‘Verily you are people behaving ignorantly’ (Qur’ān, 7: 138).”¹ of the traditions in which this word appears: It is narrated by Abū Layla al-Ghifārī, Abū Dharr, Salmān, Ibn Abbās and Hudhayfah ibn al-Yamān. It states that the Holy Prophet used to say: “Soon after my death, there will be discord. When it occurs, uphold Ali ibn Abū Tālib since he will be the first person to see me and the first to shake hands with me on the Day of Judgment. He is the greatest man of the truth (as-siddīq al-akbar), and he is the one who discriminates between right and wrong (fārūq) from among this umma, and he is the ya`sūb (leader) of the believers while wealth is the ya`sūb of the hypocrites. In addition to the references given in the above-mentioned footnote, see also: Fayd al-Qadīr, Vol. 4, p. 358; Kanz al-Ummāl, Vol. 12, p. 214; Muntakhab al-Kanz, Vol. 5, p. 33; Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 13, p. 228; Tārīkh of Ibn ‘Asākir (where the biography of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام is discussed), Vol. 1, pp. 74 - 78; As-Sīrah al-Halabiyya, Vol. 1, p. 380; Thakhā’ir al-Uqba, p. 56 and Yanābī’ al-Mawadda, p. 62, 82, 201 and 251.

¹The purpose behind this criticism by the Jews was to show that the Prophethood of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ was a controversial matter. But Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام clarified the fact that the exact focus of controversy was not about Prophethood but about his succession and vicegerency. Then, commenting on the status of the Jews, he pointed out that those who were today criticizing the differences among Muslims after the Prophet were of the same kind as those who had begun to waver about belief in the Unity of Allāh even during the lifetime of Moses عليه السلام. Thus, on becoming free of the slavery of the Egyptians, they reached the other side of the river and saw the figure of a calf in a temple in the Sinai desert. It was then that they asked Moses عليه السلام to make a similar figure for them to

قال الرضي: يومئذ بذلك إلى تمكن هيئته في القلوب.

313. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ was asked: “With what did you overpower your adversaries?” He answered: “Whenever I confronted one of them, he helped me against himself.”

٣١٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِابْنِهِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَنَفِيَّةِ: يَا بُنَيَّ، إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكَ الْفَقْرَ، فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ مِنْهُ، فَإِنَّ الْفَقْرَ مَنْقُصَةٌ لِلدِّينِ، مَذْهَبَةٌ لِلْعَقْلِ، دَاعِيَةٌ لِلْمَقْتِ.

314. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said to his son Muhammed ibn al-Hanafiyya: “O my son! I fear lest destitution overtakes you. So, you should seek Allāh’s protection from it because destitution is [an indication of] a deficiency in religious beliefs, perplexity of the mind, and it is conducive to hatred of obstinate people.”

٣١٥- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِسَائِلٍ سَأَلَهُ عَنْ مُغْضِلَةٍ: سَلْ تَقْفَهَا وَلَا تُسْأَلْ تَعْتَأْ، فَإِنَّ الْجَاهِلَ الْمُتَعَلِّمَ شَبِيهٌ بِالْعَالِمِ، وَإِنَّ الْعَالِمَ الْمُتَعَصِّفَ شَبِيهٌ بِالْجَاهِلِ الْمُتَعَتِّ.

worship, whereupon Moses rebuked them for being still as stubborn as they were in Egypt. This meant that people who were so immersed in their desire for idol-worship that even after being initiated into the belief in the Unity of Allāh, they still became restless on seeing an idol and made the request for a similar idol to be made for them. Such people had no right to criticize any differences among the Muslims.

¹The man who is over-awed by his adversary is sure to be defeated because in facing a foe, physical prowess is not enough but steadfastness of heart and strength of courage are also necessary. When the adversary loses courage and feels sure that he will be defeated, he will certainly then be defeated. This is what happened to the adversary of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ; he was so affected by his acknowledged reputation that he was sure of his own death, in consequence of which his spiritual power and self-confidence were shattered and eventually this mental state dragged him to his own death.

315. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام replied to a man who had asked him a difficult question with the following: “Ask me for understanding but do not ask for confusion, because the ignorant person who tries to learn is like the learned man, but the learned man who tries to create confusion is like the ignorant.”

٣١٦- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْعَبَّاسِ وَقَدْ أَشَارَ إِلَيْهِ فِي شَيْءٍ لَمْ يُوَافِقْ رَأْيَهُ: لَكَ أَنْ تُشِيرَ عَلَيَّ وَأَرَى، فَإِنْ عَصَيْتَكَ فَاطْعَنِي.

316. Abdullāh ibn Abbās once advised Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام against his views, so the Imām عليه السلام said: “You have only to advise me, but then I have to see (what to do), and if I act against your advice, you have to follow me.”¹ ٣١٧- وَرُوِيَ أَنَّهُ (عليه السلام) لَمَّا وَرَدَ الْكُوفَةَ قَادِمًا مِنْ صِفِّينَ مَرَّ بِالشَّبَامِيِّينَ فَسَمِعَ بُكَاءَ النِّسَاءِ عَلَى قَتْلِ صِفِّينَ وَخَرَجَ إِلَيْهِ حَرْبُ بْنُ شُرَحْبِيلَ الشَّبَامِيِّ وَكَانَ مِنْ وَجُوهِ قَوْمِهِ، فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَهُ أَتَغْلِبُكُمْ نِسَاؤُكُمْ عَلَى مَا أَسْمَعُ أَلَا تَتَهَوَّنُهُنَّ عَنْ هَذَا الرَّيْنِ، وَأَقْبَلَ حَرْبٌ يَمْشِي مَعَهُ وَهُوَ (عليه السلام) رَاكِبٌ، فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): ارْجِعْ فَإِنَّ مَشْيِي مِثْلَكَ مَعَ مِثْلِي فِتْنَةٌ لِلْوَالِي وَمَذَلَّةٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِ.

317. When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام returned to Kūfa from Siffīn, he passed by the residences of the Shibamites (who belonged to the tribe of Shibam) and heard their women mourning those killed in Siffīn. At that time, a Shibamite, namely Harb ibn Shurahbil ash-Shibami, who was one of the nobles of those people, went to meet with him. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said to him, “Do your women have control over you as regarding the weeping that I hear? Do you not desist them from such crying?” Harb began to walk with him while Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was on horseback, so Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said to him: “Get back because the walking of a man like you with one like me is mischief for the ruler and a

٣١٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): وَقَدْ مَرَّ بِقَتْلَى الْخَوَارِجِ يَوْمَ النَّهْرَوَانَ بُؤْسًا لَكُمْ لَقَدْ ضَرَّكُمْ مَنْ غَرَّكُمْ فَقِيلَ لَهُ مَنْ غَرَّهُمْ يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَقَالَ الشَّيْطَانُ الْمُضِلُّ وَالنَّفْسُ الْمَامِرَةُ بِالسُّوءِ غَرَّتْهُمْ بِالْأَمَانِيِّ وَفَسَحَتْ لَهُمْ بِالْمَعَاصِي وَوَعَدَتْهُمْ بِالْإِظْهَارِ فَأَقْنَحَتْ بِهِمُ النَّارَ.

318. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ passed by the Khārijites’ dead bodies during the battle of Nahrawān and said: “Woe to you! You have been harmed by the one who deceived you.” He was asked: “O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ! Who deceived them?” He replied: “Satan, the deceiver, and the inner self [nafs] that leads one to evil, deceived them through passions. It made it easy for them to get into sins, promised them victory and eventually hurled them into the Fire.”

٣١٩- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): اتَّقُوا مَعَاصِيَ اللَّهِ فِي الْخَلَوَاتِ فَإِنَّ الشَّاهِدَ هُوَ الْحَاكِمُ.

319. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Beware of disobeying Allāh in solitude because the Witness (of that situation) is also the Judge.”

٣٢٠- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَمَّا بَلَغَهُ قَتْلُ مُحَمَّدٍ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ: إِنَّ حُزْنَنَا عَلَيْهِ عَلَى قَدَرِ سُرُورِهِمْ بِهِ، إِلَّا أَنَّهُمْ نَقَصُوا بَغِيضًا وَنَقَصْنَا حَبِيبًا.

320. When the news of the killing of Muhammed ibn Abū Bakr reached Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ, he said: “Our grief over him is as great as their (the enemy’s) joy except they have lost an enemy, whereas we have lost a friend.”

In the year 38 A.H./658 A.D., Mu`āwiyah sent `Amr ibn al-`Ās to Egypt with a large force. `Amr ibn al-`Ās called on Mu`āwiyah ibn Hudayj to help him. They brought together `Othmān’s supporters and waged a war against Muhammed ibn Abū Bakr (son of caliph Abū Bakr), capturing him. Mu`āwiyah ibn Hudayj beheaded him. Stuffing his body in the belly of a dead ass, he burnt his corpse... Muhammed was at that time twenty-eight years old. It is reported that when the news of this tragedy reached his mother, she fell onto a great rage and indignation. His paternal sister, Mother of the Faithful `Ā’isha, took a vow that, as long as she lived, she would never eat roasted meat. Since then, she used to curse Mu`āwiyah ibn Abū Sufyān, `Amr ibn al-`Ās and Mu`āwiyah ibn Hudayj after every prayer she performed...

When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ heard the news of Muhammed's martyrdom, he became immensely sad. He wrote in a very somber language to Ibn Abbās, who was then in Basra, about the tragic death of Muhammed ibn Abū Bakr.

Hearing the news of Muhammed's martyrdom, Ibn Abbās came from Basra to Kūfa to offer his condolences to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ.

One of the official informers of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ came from Syria and said: "O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ! When the news of Muhammed's murder reached Mu`āwiyah, he went to the pulpit and praised the group that took part in killing him. The people of Syria rejoiced so much at hearing the news that I had never before seen them in such an elated mood." It was then that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ uttered the above statement. He further said that although Muhammed was his step-son, he was like his own son, as we read in the classic references written by these recognized authorities: at-Tabari, Vol. 1, pp. 3400 - 3414; Ibn al-Athīr, Vol. 3, pp. 352 - 359; Ibn Kathīr, Vol. 7, pp. 313 - 317; Abul-Fidā', Vol. 1, p. 179; Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 6, pp. 82 - 100; Ibn Khaldūn, Vol. 2, part 2, pp. 181 - 182; Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, pp. 366 - 67; Ibn Hajar, Al-Isāba, Vol. 3, pp. 472 - 473; Al-Ghārāt, ath-Thaqafi, Vol. 1, pp. 276 - 322 and the author of Tārīkh al-Khamīs, Vol. 2, pp. 238 - 239.

٣٢١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْعُمُرُ الَّذِي أُعْذِرَ اللَّهُ فِيهِ إِلَى ابْنِ آدَمَ سِتُّونَ سَنَةً.

321. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: "The age up to which Allāh accepts any excuse for a human being is sixty years."

٣٢٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا ظَفِرَ مَنْ ظَفِرَ الْبَائِثِ بِهِ، وَالْغَالِبُ بِالْشَّرِّ مَغْلُوبٌ.

322. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “One whose sin overpowers him never wins, and whoever secures victory by evil means is (in fact) vanquished.”

٣٢٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّ اللَّهَ سُبْحَانَهُ فَرَضَ فِي أَمْوَالِ الْأَغْنِيَاءِ أَقْوَاتَ الْفُقَرَاءِ فَمَا جَاعَ فَقِيرٌ إِلَّا بِمَا مُنِعَ بِهِ غَنِيٌّ وَاللَّهُ تَعَالَى سَائِلُهُمْ عَنْ ذَلِكَ.

323. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Allāh, the Glorified One, has embedded the livelihood of the destitute in the wealth of the rich. Consequently, whenever a destitute person remains hungry, it is because some rich person has denied (him his share). Allāh, the Sublime, will question them [the rich] about it.”

٣٢٤ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْإِسْتِغْنَاءُ عَنِ الْعُذْرِ أَغْزُ مِنْ الصَّدَقِ بِهِ.

324. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Not to be in need of putting forth an excuse is better than putting forth a true excuse.”¹

٣٢٥ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَقْلُ مَا يَلْزَمُكُمْ لِلَّهِ أَلَّا تُسْتَعِينُوا بِنِعَمِهِ عَلَى مَعَاصِيهِ.

325. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The least obligation of Allāh on you is that you should not make use of His favors for committing sins.”²

¹The meaning here is that obligations should be carried out so that there is no occasion for putting forth excuses. After all, in making excuses, there is a hint for shortcomings and perhaps a sense of humiliation.

²There are a few grades of denial of favors and of ingratitude. The first is that a person may not be able to appreciate (the real significance of) a favor. For example, the vision of the eyes, the speech of the tongue, the hearing of the ears and the movements of the limbs. These are all favors bestowed by Allāh, but many people do not realize them to be favors and do not entertain feelings of gratitude, taking them for granted. The second grade is that a person may see a favor and appreciate it but may not feel grateful for it. The third grade is that a person may oppose the One Who bestows the favors, going against His will. The fourth grade is that instead of using the favors granted by Him, a person may use them in committing sins offensive to Allāh. This is the highest grade of denial of favors, i.e. of ingratitude.

326. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “When the disabled fall short of performing acts of obedience to Allāh, the Glorified One, it is a good opportunity given by Allāh for the intelligent people to perform such acts.”

٣٢٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): السُّلْطَانُ وَزَعَةُ اللَّهِ فِي أَرْضِهِ.

327. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “A sovereign is the watchman of Allāh on earth.”

328. Describing a believer, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “A believer has a cheerful face, a sorrowful heart, a very broad chest (very generous), and a very humble heart. He hates high status and dislikes fame. His grief is long, his courage is far-reaching, his silence is much and, his time is occupied. He is grateful, enduring, buried in his thoughts, sparing in his friendship (with others), of a bright demeanor and of a soft temperament. He is stronger than stone but more humble than a servant.

329. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “If a man happens to see the end of (his) life and destiny, he will begin hating desires and their deception.”

330. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “There are two shares in the property of every person: heirs and accidents!”

٣٣١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْمَسْئُولُ حُرٌّ حَتَّى يَعِدَّ.

331. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The person who is approached with a request is free till he makes a promise.”

٣٣٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الدَّاعِي بِلَا عَمَلٍ كَالرَّامِي بِلَا وَثَرٍ.

333. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Knowledge is of two kinds: that which is recorded down (transcribed, printed, published, etc.) and that which is just heard. The one that is heard does not offer any benefit unless it is recorded.”

334. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Correctness of decisions goes together with power. One emerges with the other’s emergence and disappears when the other disappears.”¹ ٣٣٥- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْعَقَافُ زِينَةُ الْفَقْرِ، وَالشُّكْرُ زِينَةُ الْغِنَى.

335. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The beauty of destitution is ¹When anyone’s star is auspicious and his luck is good, he steps automatically towards the goal in view, and his mind confronts no perplexity in determining the correct way of approach. But the person whose luck is about to ebb stumbles even in the light; his mental faculties become paralyzed. Consequently, when the downfall of the Barmakids began, ten persons from among them assembled for consultation about a matter but were not able to make a decision even after a long discussion. Seeing this, Yahya [the Barmaki] said, “By Allāh! It is a forerunner of our decline and a sign of our downfall that even ten of us have not been able to settle a matter, although when we were in ascendancy, just one of us could easily solve ten problems.”

chastity; the beauty of riches is gratitude.”

336. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The day of justice will be more severe on the oppressor than the day of oppression on the oppressed.”

٣٣٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْغِنَى الْكَابِرُ الْيَاسُ عَمَّا فِي أَيْدِي النَّاسِ.

337. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The biggest wealth is that one should not have an eye on what others possess.”

٣٣٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْأَقَاوِيلُ مَحْفُوظَةٌ وَالسَّرَائِرُ مَبْلُوءَةٌ، وَكُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ رَهِينَةٌ، وَالنَّاسُ مَنْقُوصُونَ مَدْخُولُونَ إِلَّا مَنْ عَصَمَ اللَّهُ؛ سَأَلَهُمْ مُتَعَتَّ وَمُجِيبُهُمْ مُتَكَفَّفٌ، يَكَادُ أَفْضَلُهُمْ رَأْيًا يَرُدُّهُ عَنْ فَضْلِ رَأْيِهِ الرِّضَى وَالسُّخْطُ، وَيَكَادُ أَصْلَبُهُمْ عَوْدًا تَنْكَوُهُ اللَّحْظَةُ وَتُسْتَحِيلُهُ الْكَلِمَةُ الْوَاحِدَةُ.

338. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Utterances are preserved and actions are tested. Every soul, for what it earned, is pawned (Qur’ān, 74: 38). People are to be made deficient (as regarding their bodies) and meddled with (as regarding their minds) except those whom Allāh protects. The one who inquires from among them aims at confusing others, whereas the one who answers creates hardships. It is possible that the man who has the best views among them will be deviated from the soundness of his thinking by pleasure or displeasure, and it is possible that a single glance may affect even the man with the best wisdom from among them or a single expression may transform him.”

339. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O folks! “Fear Allāh, for there is many a man who aspires for what he does not get, many a builder of a house who does not live to occupy it, and many a gatherer of that which he shall just leave behind. Possibly he may have gathered it wrongfully or by denying one's right. He acquired it unlawfully and had to bear the weight of sins on its account. Consequently, he returned (from this world) with that weight and came before Allāh with sorrow and grief. He lost this world and (also) the thereafter; that is a loss (which is) manifest (Qur'ān, 22: 11)."

٣٤٠ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مِنْ الْعِصْمَةِ تَعَذُّرُ الْمَعَاصِي.

340. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: "Lack of access to sins is also a kind of chastity."

341. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: "The dignity of your countenance is solid, but begging dissolves it; therefore, look carefully before whom you dissolve it."

٣٤٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الثَّنَاءُ بِأَكْثَرِ مِنَ الْإِسْتِحْقَاقِ مَلَقٌ وَالتَّقْصِيرُ عَنِ الْإِسْتِحْقَاقِ عِيٌّ أَوْ حَسَدٌ.

342. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: "To praise more than what is due is sycophancy; to do it less is either because of inability to speak or due to envy."

٣٤٣ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَشَدُّ الذُّنُوبِ مَا اسْتَهَانَ بِهِ صَاحِبُهُ.

343. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said, "Peace with one who keeps away even from minor sins and, hence, his burden is considered light."¹

¹The result of lack of restraint and care with regard to small sins is that a man becomes rather careless in the matter of sins and, by and by, this habit produces boldness to commit larger sins. Then he begins to commit them without hesitation. Therefore, one should regard small sins as a harbinger of bigger ones and should avoid them so that the stage for committing big sins will not materialize.

٣٤٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَنْ نَظَرَ فِي عَيْبِ نَفْسِهِ اشْتَغَلَ عَنْ عَيْبِ غَيْرِهِ، وَمَنْ رَضِيَ بِرِزْقِ اللَّهِ لَمْ يَخْزَنْ عَلَى مَا فَاتَهُ، وَمَنْ سَلَ سَيْفَ الْبَغْيِ قُتِلَ بِهِ، وَمَنْ كَابَدَ الْأُمُورَ عَطِبَ، وَمَنْ اقْتَحَمَ اللَّجَجَ غَرِقَ، وَمَنْ دَخَلَ مَذَاجِلَ السُّوءِ أَثِمَ، وَمَنْ كَثُرَ كَلَامُهُ كَثُرَ خَطْوُهُ، وَمَنْ كَثُرَ خَطْوُهُ قَلَّ حَيَاؤُهُ، وَمَنْ قَلَّ حَيَاؤُهُ قَلَّ وَرَعُهُ، وَمَنْ قَلَّ وَرَعُهُ مَاتَ قَلْبُهُ، وَمَنْ مَاتَ قَلْبُهُ دَخَلَ النَّارَ. وَمَنْ نَظَرَ فِي عُيُوبِ النَّاسِ فَانْكَرَهَا ثُمَّ رَضِيَهَا لِنَفْسِهِ، فَذَلِكَ الْاَحْمَقُ بِعَيْنِهِ. وَالْقَنَاعَةُ مَالٌ لَا يَنْقُذُ، وَمَنْ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذِكْرِ الْمَوْتِ رَضِيَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا بِالْيَسِيرِ، وَمَنْ عَلِمَ أَنَّ كَلَامَهُ مِنْ عَمَلِهِ قَلَّ كَلَامُهُ إِلَّا فِيَمَا يَغْنِيهِ.

344. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One who sees his own shortcomings abstains from looking into other’s shortcomings. Whoever feels happy with the livelihood with which Allāh provides him does not grieve over what he misses. Whoever draws out the sword of rebellion gets killed by it. Whoever strives without means perishes. Whoever delves into the depths gets drowned. Whoever visits places of ill-repute receives blame.

“Whoever speaks more commits more errors. Whoever commits more errors becomes shameless. Whoever is shameless will have less fear of Allāh. Anyone who decreases his fear of Allāh causes his heart to die. One whose heart dies enters the Fire. Whoever observes the shortcomings of others and disapproves of them, then he accepts them for himself, is definitely a fool. Contentment is a capital that does not dwindle. Whoever remembers death much is satisfied with small favors in this world. Whoever knows that his speech is also part of his action speaks less except where he has some purpose.”

345. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The oppressor among the people has three signs: He oppresses his superior by disobeying him, and his junior by imposing his authority on him, thus topping other oppressors.”

346. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “At the extremity of hardship comes relief, and at the tightening of the series of tribulation comes ease.”

٣٤٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِبَعْضِ اصْحَابِهِ: لَا تُجْعَلَنَّ أَكْثَرَ شُغْلِكَ بِأَهْلِكَ وَوَلَدِكَ، فَإِنْ يَكُنْ أَهْلُكَ وَوَلَدُكَ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهِ، فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُضَيِّعُ أَوْلِيَاءَهُ، وَإِنْ يَكُونُوا أَعْدَاءَ اللَّهِ، فَمَا هَمُّكَ وَشُغْلُكَ بِأَعْدَاءِ اللَّهِ؟

347. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said the following to one of his companions: “Do not devote too much of your effort to your wife and children because if your wife and children are lovers of Allāh, then He will not leave His lovers without caring for them. And if they are enemies of Allāh, then why should you worry and keep yourself busy about the enemies of Allāh?”

٣٤٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَكْبَرُ الْغَيْبِ أَنْ تُعِيبَ مَا فِيكَ مِثْلَهُ.

348. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The greatest defect is when you are concerned about the defect (in others) which is already present in yourself.”¹

¹What a worse defect can there be that a man criticizing those defects in others which exist in him? The requirement of justice is that before casting one's eye on others' defects, one should look at his own defects and realize that a defect is a defect whether it is in others or in himself. A Persian couplet says: “Looking at others' defects is neither appropriate nor is it manliness. Better look at your own self since you are full of defects.”

٣٤٩- وَهَذَا بِحَضْرَتِهِ رَجُلٌ رَجُلًا بَعْلَامٌ وَإِلَيْهِ فَقَالَ لَهُ لِيَهْنِكَ الْفَارِسُ فَقَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): لَا تُقُلْ ذَلِكَ وَلَكِنْ قُلْ شَكَرْتُ الْوَاهِبَ وَبُورِكَ لَكَ فِي الْمَوْهُوبِ وَبَلَغَ أَشَدُّهُ وَرَزَقَتْ بَرَّةً.

349. Someone congratulated another person in the presence of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ on the birth of a son saying: “Congratulations for getting a rider of horses!” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ, said: “Do not say so; but say: You have an occasion to be grateful to Allāh, the Giver, and be blessed with what you have been given. May he attain full life, and may you be blessed with his devotion.”

350. One of the officers of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ built a stately house about which Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “These are silver coins showing their faces. Certainly, this house speaks of your riches.”

351. It was said to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ, peace with him: “If a man is left in his house and the gate is closed, from where shall his livelihood reach him?” He replied: “From whatever way his death reaches him.”¹

The meaning is that a man should be content in the matters of livelihood because whatever is destined for him will in any case reach him wherever he may be.

A Persian couplet says: “Like death, livelihood will reach a man even if his gate is closed, but greed keeps people (unnecessarily) anxious.”

¹If Allāh considers it appropriate to keep a man living while he is confined to a closed house, then He is certainly powerful enough to provide the means of life for him. Just as a closed door cannot prevent death, in the same way, it cannot prevent the entry of livelihood because the Might of Allāh, the Almighty, is equally capable of either.

352. Offering condolences to people for the loss of a dear one, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “This thing (death) has not started with you nor does it end with you. This fellow of yours was used to journeying; therefore, it is better to think of him as still journeying. Either he will rejoin you or you will rejoin him.”

٣٥٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ، لِيَرْكُمُ اللَّهُ مِنَ النِّعْمَةِ وَجِلِينَ كَمَا يَرَاكُمُ مِنَ النِّعْمَةِ فَرَقِينَ؛ إِنَّهُ مَنْ وَسَّعَ عَلَيْهِ فِي ذَاتِ يَدِهِ فَلَمْ يَرَ ذَلِكَ اسْتِذْراجًا فَقَدْ آمِنَ مَخُوفًا، وَمَنْ ضَيَّقَ عَلَيْهِ فِي ذَاتِ يَدِهِ فَلَمْ يَرَ ذَلِكَ اخْتِبَارًا فَقَدْ ضَيَّقَ مَأْمُولًا.

353. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “O people! Let Allāh see you fearing Him at the time of happiness just as you fear Him at the time of distress. Certainly, whoever is given ease (of life) and does not consider it as a means of slow approach to tribulation (wrongly) considers himself as being safe against what is to be feared, while whoever is afflicted with straitened circumstances but does not perceive them to be a trial loses a coveted reward.”

354. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “O prisoners of desires! Cut them (your desires) short because whoever leans on the world gets nothing out of it except the pain of hardships. O people! Take on yourselves to train your own souls. Turn away from the dictates of your natural inclinations.”

355. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Do not regard an expression uttered by any person as being evil if you can find it capable of

٣٥٦- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِذَا كَانَتْ لَكَ إِلَى اللَّهِ سُبْحَانَهُ حَاجَةٌ فَابْدَأْ بِمَسْأَلَةِ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ (صلى الله عليه وآله) ثُمَّ سَلْ حَاجَتَكَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ أَكْرَمُ مِنْ أَنْ يُسْأَلَ حَاجَتَيْنِ فَيَقْضِيَ إِحْدَاهُمَا وَيَمْنَعَ الْآخَرَى.

356. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “If you have some need which Allāh, the Glorified One, can fulfill for you, begin by seeking Allāh’s blessing on His Messenger, may Allāh bless him and his descendants, then ask your need, because Allāh is too generous to accept one (seeking His blessing on His Messenger) of the two requests made to Him while denying the other.”

٣٥٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَنْ ضَنَّ بِعَرَضِهِ فَلْيَدَعْ الْمِرَاءَ.

357. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Whoever is jealous of his esteem should abstain from quarreling.”

358. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “It is foolishness to make haste before the proper time, or to delay after a proper opportunity. In either case, there is folly.”

359. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Do not ask about things which may not happen because you have enough to worry about with what already happens.”

٣٦٠- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْفِكْرُ مِرَآةٌ صَافِيَةٌ وَالْإِعْتِبَارُ مُنْذِرٌ نَاصِحٌ وَكَفَى أَدْبًا لِنَفْسِكَ تَجَنُّبُكَ مَا كَرِهْتَهُ لِغَيْرِكَ.

360. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “The intellect is a clear mirror, and the taking of lessons (from things around you) provides warning and counsel. It is enough for improving yourself that you should avoid what you consider to be bad in others.”

٣٦١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْعِلْمُ مَقْرُونٌ بِالْعَمَلِ؛ فَمَنْ عِلِمَ عَمِلَ. وَالْعِلْمُ يَهْتِفُ بِالْعَمَلِ، فَإِنْ أَجَابَهُ، وَإِلَّا ارْتَحَلَ عَنْهُ.

361. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Knowledge is associated with action. Therefore, whoever knows should act [on it] because knowledge calls for action. If there is a response, well and good; otherwise, it (knowledge) departs from him.”

٣٦٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ مَتَاعُ الدُّنْيَا حُطَامٌ مُوبِقٌ فَتَجَنَّبُوا مَرَعَاهُ فَلَعْنُهَا أَخْطَى مِنْ طُمَآنِينَتِهَا وَبَلْغُهَا أَزْكَى مِنْ ثُرُوتِهَا حَكِمَ عَلَى مُكْثَرٍ مِنْهَا بِالْفَاقَةِ وَأَعْيَنَ مَنْ غَنِيَ عَنْهَا بِالرَّاحَةِ مَنْ رَاقَهُ زِبْرَجُهَا أَغْقَبَتْ نَاطِرِيهِ كَمَهَا وَمَنْ اسْتَشْنَعَرَ الشَّغْفَ بِهَا مَلَأَتْ ضَمِيرَهُ أَشْجَانًا لَهُنَّ رَقَصَ عَلَى سُوَيْدَاءٍ قَلْبِهِ هَمٌّ يَشْغَلُهُ وَغَمٌّ يَحْزُنُهُ كَذَلِكَ حَتَّى يُؤْخَذَ بِكَظْمِهِ فَيُلْقَى بِالْقَضَاءِ مُنْقَطِعًا أَبْهَرَاهُ هَيِّنًا عَلَى اللَّهِ فَنَاقُوهُ وَعَلَى الْبَاخُوَانِ الْفَنَاقُوهُ وَإِنَّمَا يَنْظُرُ الْمُؤْمِنُ إِلَى الدُّنْيَا بَعَيْنِ الْإِعْتِبَارِ وَيَقْتَاتُ مِنْهَا بِبَطْنِ الْإِضْطِرَارِ وَيَسْمَعُ فِيهَا بِأَذْنِ الْمَقْتِ وَالْإِبْغَاضِ إِنْ قِيلَ أَثَرِي قِيلَ أَكْذَى وَإِنْ فُرِحَ لَهُ بِالْبَقَاءِ حُزِنَ لَهُ بِالْفَنَاءِ هَذَا وَلَمْ يَأْتِهِمْ يَوْمٌ فِيهِ يُبْلِسُونَ.

362. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “O people! The wealth of this world is broken into kinds that may bring an epidemic; therefore, keep off this grazing land. Leaving it is a greater favor than peacefully staying in it. Its part which suffices for subsistence is more blissful than its riches. Destitution has been ordained for those who are rich here, while comfort has been designated for those who keep a distance from it. If a person is attracted by its dazzle, it blinds both his eyes. And if a person acquires eagerness towards it, it fills his heart with grief which keeps alternating in the dark part of his heart, some grief worrying him and another giving him pain. This goes on till suffocating death overtakes him. He is flung in the open while both shrines of his heart are severed. It is easy for Allāh to cause him to die and for his comrades to place him in the grave.

“The believer sees the world with eyes that derive instruction and takes from it food enough for his barest needs. He hears in it with ears of hatred and enmity [towards this world]. If it is said (about someone) that he has become rich, it is also said that he has turned destitute. And if pleasure is felt on one’s own living, grief is felt over his death. This is the status, although the day has not yet approached when they will be disheartened.”

363. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Allāh, the Glorified One, has laid down rewards for obeying Him and punishment for committing sins against Him in order to save men from His chastisement and to drive them towards His Paradise.”

٣٦٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): يَأْتِي عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يَبْقَى فِيهِمْ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ إِلَّا رَسْمُهُ وَمِنَ الْإِسْلَامِ إِلَّا اسْمُهُ وَمَسَاجِدُهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ عَامِرَةٌ مِنَ الْبِنَاءِ خَرَابٌ مِنَ الْهُدَى سُكَّانُهَا وَعُمَارُهَا شَرُّ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ مِنْهُمْ تَخْرُجُ الْفِتْنَةُ وَإِلَيْهِمْ تَأْوِي الْخَطِيئَةُ يَرُدُّونَ مَنْ شَدَّ عَنْهَا فِيهَا وَيَسُوفُونَ مَنْ تَأَخَّرَ عَنْهَا إِلَيْهَا يَقُولُ اللَّهُ سُبْحَانَهُ فَبِي حَلَفْتُ لَا أَبْعَثَنَّ عَلَى أَوْلَيْكَ فِتْنَةً تَشْرُكَ الْحَلِيمَ فِيهَا حَيْرَانَ وَقَدْ فَعَلَ وَنَحْنُ نَسْتَقِيلُ اللَّهَ عَثْرَةَ الْغَفْلَةِ.

364. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Time will come when nothing will remain of the Qur’ān except its writing and nothing of Islam except its name. The mosques in such days will be busy with regard to construction but desolate with regard to guidance. Those staying in them and those visiting them will be the worst of all people on earth. From them, mischief will spring up and in their direction all wrong will turn. If anyone isolates himself from it (mischief), they will fling him back into it. And if anyone steps back from it, they will push him towards it. Says Allāh, the Glorified One, (in one qudsi hadīth): I swear by Myself that I shall send on them an evil wherein the one who endures will be bewildered, and He will do so. We seek Allāh’s pardon against stumbling through neglect.”

٣٦٥- وَرَوَى أَنَّهُ (عليه السلام) قَلَّمَ اعْتَدَلَ بِهِ الْمُبْتَدِرُ إِلَّا قَالَ أَمَامَ الْخُطْبَةِ أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ فَمَا خُلِقَ أَمْرٌ عِبْتًا فَيَلْهُوُ وَلَا تُرِكَ سُدًى فَيَلْعَوُ وَمَا دُنْيَاهُ الَّتِي تَحَسَّنَتْ لَهُ بِخَلْفٍ مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ الَّتِي قَبَحَهَا سُوءُ النَّظَرِ عِنْدَهُ وَمَا الْمَعْرُورُ الَّذِي ظَفِرَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا بِأَعْلَى هِمَّتِهِ كَالْآخِرِ الَّذِي ظَفِرَ مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ بِأَدْنَى سُهْمَتِهِ.

365. It is related that seldom did Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام ascend the pulpit without uttering the following statement before starting his sermon: “O people! Fear Allāh, for man has not been created for naught so that he may waste himself, nor has he been left without anyone caring for him so that he may commit foolish acts. This world, which appears to him to be beautiful, cannot be the replacement for the next which appears in his eyes to be bad, nor is the vain person, who is successful in this world, is sure that he will prosper in the next even to a small extent.”

٣٦٦- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا شَرَفَ أَعْلَى مِنَ الْإِسْلَامِ وَلَا عِزٌّ أَعَزُّ مِنَ الثَّقَوَى وَلَا مَغْلٍ أَحْسَنُ مِنَ الْوَرَعِ وَلَا شَفِيعٌ أَنْجَحُ مِنَ الثُّوبَةِ وَلَا كَنْزٌ أَغْنَى مِنَ الْقَنَاعَةِ وَلَا مَالٌ أَذْهَبَ لِلْفَقَاةِ مِنَ الرِّضَى بِالْفُوتِ وَمَنْ اقْتَصَرَ عَلَى بُلْغَةِ الْكَفَافِ فَقَدْ انْتَضَمَ الرَّاحَةُ وَتَبَوَّأَ خَفْضَ الدَّعَاةِ وَالرَّغْبَةَ مِفْتَاحَ النَّصَبِ وَمَطْيِئَةَ الثَّغْبِ وَالْحِرْصُ وَالْكَبِيرُ وَالْحَسَدُ دَوَاعٍ إِلَى التَّقَحُّمِ فِي الدُّنُوبِ وَالشَّرُّ جَامِعُ مَسَاوِي الْعُيُوبِ.

366. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There is no distinction higher than Islam, no honor more honorable than fear of Allāh, no asylum is better than self-restraint, no intercessor more effective than repentance, no treasure more precious than contentment, and no wealth is a bigger remover of destitution than satisfaction with mere subsistence. Whoever confines himself to what is just enough for maintenance achieves comfort and prepares his abode in ease. Desire is the key of grief and the conveyance of distress. Greed, vanity and jealousy are incentives to falling into sins and mischief-making, the collecting of all bad habits.”

٣٦٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لِجَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ: يَا جَابِرُ، قِوَامُ الدِّينِ وَالْدُّنْيَا بِأَرْبَعَةِ عَالِمٍ مُسْتَغْمِلٍ عِلْمَهُ وَجَاهِلٍ لَا يَسْتَنْكِفُ أَنْ يَتَعَلَّمَ وَجَوَادٍ لَا يَبْخُلُ بِمَعْرُوفِهِ وَفَقِيرٍ لَا يَبِيعُ آخِرَتَهُ بِدُنْيَاةٍ فَإِذَا ضَيَّعَ الْعَالِمُ عِلْمَهُ اسْتَنْكَفَ الْجَاهِلُ أَنْ يَتَعَلَّمَ وَإِذَا بَخِلَ الْغَنِيُّ بِمَعْرُوفِهِ بَاعَ الْفَقِيرُ آخِرَتَهُ بِدُنْيَاةٍ يَا جَابِرُ مَنْ كَثُرَتْ نَعَمُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ كَثُرَتْ حَوَائِجُ النَّاسِ إِلَيْهِ فَمَنْ قَامَ لِلَّهِ فِيهَا بِمَا يَجِبُ فِيهَا عَرَضُهَا لِلدَّوَامِ وَالْبَقَاءِ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَقُمْ فِيهَا بِمَا يَجِبُ عَرَضُهَا لِلزَّوَالِ وَالْفَنَاءِ.

367. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام once said the following to Jābir ibn Abdullāh al-Ansāri: “O Jābir! The mainstay of religion and the world are four persons: The scholar who acts on his knowledge, the ignorant person who does not feel ashamed of learning, the generous person who is not niggardly in his favors, and the destitute who does not sell his next life for his worldly benefits. Consequently, when the scholar wastes his knowledge, the ignorant feels too ashamed to learn, and when the generous is niggardly with his favors, the destitute sells his next life for the worldly benefits.

“O Jābir! If favors of Allāh on a person increase, people’s needs toward him also increase. Therefore, whoever fulfills for Allāh all that is obligatory on him in this regard will preserve them (Allāh’s favors) in continuance and perpetuity, while whoever does not fulfill those obligations will expose them to decay and diminution.”

٣٦٨- وَرَوَى ابْنُ جَرِيرٍ الطَّبْرِيُّ فِي تَارِيخِهِ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى الْفَقِيهِ وَكَانَ مِمَّنْ خَرَجَ لِقِتَالِ الْحَجَّاجِ مَعَ ابْنِ الْأَشْعَثِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ فِيمَا كَانَ يَخُصُّ بِهِ النَّاسَ عَلَى الْجِهَادِ إِنِّي سَمِعْتُ عَلِيًّا رَفَعَ اللَّهُ دَرَجَتَهُ فِي الصَّالِحِينَ وَأَثَابَهُ ثَوَابَ الشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّادِقِينَ يَقُولُ يَوْمَ لَقِينَا أَهْلَ الشَّامِ: أَيُّهَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِنَّهُ مَنْ رَأَى عَدُوَّنَا يُعْمَلُ بِهِ وَمَنْكَرًا يُدْعَى إِلَيْهِ فَأَنْكَرَهُ بِقَلْبِهِ فَقَدْ سَلِمَ وَبَرَّيْ وَمَنْ أَنْكَرَهُ بِلِسَانِهِ فَقَدْ أَجَرَ وَهُوَ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ صَاحِبِهِ وَمَنْ أَنْكَرَهُ بِالسَّيْفِ لِتَكُونَ كَلِمَةُ اللَّهِ هِيَ الْعُلْيَا وَكَلِمَةُ الظَّالِمِينَ هِيَ السُّفْلَى فَذَلِكَ الَّذِي أَصَابَ سَبِيلَ الْهُدَى وَقَامَ عَلَى الطَّرِيقِ وَنُورٌ فِي قَلْبِهِ الْيَقِينُ.

368. Both Ibn Jarīr at-Tabarī Ibn al-Athīr, the first on p. 1086, Vol. 2 of his Tārīkh book and the other on p. 478, Vol. 4 of his Tārīkh, relate from ‘Abd ar-Rahmān ibn Abū Layla, the faqīh (jurist), who was one of those who had risen in support of (Abd ar-Rahmān ibn Muhammed) Ibn al-Ash’ath against al-Hajjāj (ibn Yousuf ath-Thaqafi), that he (Ibn Abū Layla) was exhorting people to carry out jihād by recalling the following: “On the occasion of the encounter with the people of Syria, I heard Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, may Allāh exalt his rank among the righteous and may He reward him with the reward of martyrs and men of truth, saying: ‘O believers, whoever observes excesses being committed and people being called towards evil and disapproves it with his heart is safe and free of responsibility for it, and whoever disapproves of it with his tongue will be rewarded and he is in a higher status than the former. But whoever disapproves it with his sword in order that the word of Allāh may remain superior and the word of the oppressors may remain inferior, catches hold of the path of guidance and stands on the right way, while his heart is lit with conviction.’”

الْمُنْكَرَ لَا يُقَرِّبَانِ مِنْ أَجَلٍ وَلَا يَنْقُصَانِ مِنْ رِزْقٍ وَأَفْضَلُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ كُلِّهِ كَلِمَةٌ عَدَلٍ عِنْدَ إِمَامٍ جَانِبٍ.

369. Another saying in the same strain runs as follows: “So..., among them (the Muslim community) there is one who disapproves evil with his hand, tongue and heart. This man has perfectly attained the virtuous habits. And among them there is one who disapproves evil with his tongue and heart but not with his hand. This man has attained only two virtuous habits but lacks one. And among them there is the third who disapproves evil with his heart but not with his tongue and hand. This is the one who lacks the two better qualities out of the three and holds only one. Then, among them there is also one who does not disprove evil with his tongue, heart or hand. He is just a dead man among the living.

“All virtuous acts, including waging a war in the way of Allāh, as compared to the persuasion for good and dissuasion from evil, are just like spitting in the deep ocean [i.e. of no consequence]. The acts of persuasion for good and dissuasion from evil do not bring death nearer, nor do they lessen a lifespan. And better than all this is to utter a just expression before a tyrannical ruler.”

370. The following is related from Abū Juhayfah who said, “I heard Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام saying: ‘The first fighting with which you will be overpowered is fighting with the hands. Thereafter, you will fight with your tongues then with your hearts. Consequently, whoever does not recognize virtue with his heart or does not disprove evil will be turned upside down. Thus, his upside will be turned downwards and his low side will be turned upwards.’”

371. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Certainly, right is weighty and wholesome while wrong is light and contagious.”

372. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Do not feel safe from the punishment of Allāh even about the best man in the whole community because Allāh, the Sublime, says: But none feels secure from the plan of Allāh save the people (who are the) losers (Qur’ān, 7: 99). Again, do not lose hope even for the worst man of the community because Allāh, the Sublime One, says: Verily, none despair from Allāh’s mercy save the disbelieving people (Qur’ān, 12: 87).”

373. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Miserliness contains all other evil vices and is the rein with which one can be led to every type of evil.”

قال الرضي: و قد مضى هذا الكلام فيما تقدم من هذا الباب إلا أنه هاهنا أوضح و أشرح فلذلك كررناه على القاعدة المقررة في أول الكتاب.

374. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “O son of Adam! Livelihood is of two kinds: The livelihood which you seek and the livelihood which seeks you; if you do not reach it, it will reach you.

“Therefore, do not turn your one day’s worry into a year’s worry. Whatever you get every day should be enough for you for the day. If you have a whole year of your life, even then Allāh, the Sublime, will give you every next day what He has destined as your share. If you do not have a year in your life-span, then why should you worry for what is not for you? No seeker will reach your livelihood before you, nor will anyone overpower you in the matter of livelihood. Likewise, whatever has been destined as your share will not be delayed from you.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “This statement has already appeared elsewhere in this Chapter except that here it is clearer and more detailed. This is why we have repeated it according to the principle laid down in the beginning of the book.”

375. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Many a man faces a day after which he finds no day, and many a man is in an enviable status in the earlier part of the night but is mourned by wailing women in its later part.”

٣٧٦- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْكَلَامُ فِي وَثَاقِكَ مَا لَمْ تُكَلِّمْ بِهِ؛ فَإِذَا تَكَلَّمْتَ بِهِ، صِرْتَ فِي وَثَاقِهِ؛ فَاخْزَنْ لِسَانَكَ كَمَا تُخْزِنُ ذَهَبَكَ وَوَرَقَكَ، فَرُبَّ كَلِمَةٍ سَلَبَتْ نِعْمَةً وَجَلَبَتْ نِقْمَةً.

376. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Words are under your control so long as you have not yet uttered them. But when you have spoken them, you are under their control. Therefore, guard your tongue as you guard your gold and silver, for often one expression snatches away a blessing and invites a penalty.”

٣٧٧- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا تُقَلْ مَا لَا تُعْلَمُ بَلْ لَا تُقَلْ كُلَّ مَا تُعْلَمُ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ فَرَضَ عَلَى جَوَارِحِكَ كُلِّهَا فَرَائِضَ يَحْتَاجُ بِهَا عَلَيْكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ.

377. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Do not say what you do not know; rather, do not say all that you know because Allāh has laid down some obligations for all your limbs by means of which He will put forth arguments against you on the Day of Judgment.”

٣٧٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): اخْذَرْ أَنْ يَرَاكَ اللَّهُ عِنْدَ مَعْصِيَتِهِ وَيَفْقِدَكَ عِنْدَ طَاعَتِهِ فَتُكُونَ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ، وَإِذَا قُوِيَ فَاقَوْ عَلَى طَاعَةِ اللَّهِ، وَإِذَا ضَعُفَتْ فَاضْغُفْ عَنْ مَعْصِيَةِ اللَّهِ.

378. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Fear lest Allāh should see you committing sins that offend Him or misses you when it is time to obey Him and, as a result, you will become a loser. Therefore, when you are strong, be strong in obeying Allāh, and when you are weak, be too weak to commit sins against Allāh.”

٣٧٩- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الرُّكُونُ إِلَى الدُّنْيَا مَعَ مَا تُعَايِنُ مِنْهَا جَهْلٌ وَالتَّقْصِيرُ فِي حُسْنِ الْعَمَلِ إِذَا وَثِقْتَ بِالثَّوَابِ عَلَيْهِ غِبْنٌ وَالطَّمَانِينَةُ إِلَى كُلِّ أَحَدٍ قَبْلَ الْإِخْتِبَارِ لَهُ عَجْزٌ.

379. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Leaning towards this world despite what you see of it is a folly. Lagging behind in doing good deeds, when you are convinced of good reward for them, is an obvious loss, while trusting in everyone before testing him is a weakness.”

380. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “It is (the proof of the) humbleness of the world before Allāh that He is disobeyed only herein and His favors cannot be achieved except by renouncing it.”

٣٨١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَنْ طَلَبَ شَيْئًا نَالَهُ أَوْ بَغُضَهُ.

381. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “One who searches for something will obtain it, or at least some of it.”

٣٨٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا خَيْرٌ بِخَيْرِ بَعْدَهُ النَّارُ وَمَا شَرٌّ بِشَرِّ بَعْدَهُ الْجَنَّةُ وَكُلُّ نَعِيمٍ دُونَ الْجَنَّةِ فَهُوَ مَحْقُورٌ وَكُلُّ بَلَاءٍ دُونَ النَّارِ عَافِيَةٌ.

382. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib ؑ said: “Goodness is not good if it is followed by the Fire. Hardship is no hardship at all if followed by Paradise. Every blessing other than Paradise is minor; every calamity other than the Fire is comfort.”

٣٨٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَلَا وَإِنَّ مِنَ الْبَلَاءِ الْفَاقَةَ، وَأَشَدُّ مِنَ الْفَاقَةِ مَرَضُ الْبَدَنِ، وَأَشَدُّ مِنْ مَرَضِ الْبَدَنِ مَرَضُ الْقَلْبِ. أَلَا وَإِنَّ مِنْ صِحَّةِ الْبَدَنِ تَقْوَى الْقَلْبِ.

383. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Beware that destitution is a calamity, but worse than destitution is the sickness of the body, while worse than bodily sickness is the disease of the heart. Beware that plenty of wealth is a blessing, but better than plenty of wealth is the health of the body, while still better than the health of the body is the piety of the heart.”

٣٨٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَنْ أَبْطَأَ بِهِ عَمَلُهُ لَمْ يُسْرِعْ بِهِ نَسَبُهُ.

وَفِي رَوَايَةٍ أُخْرَى: مَنْ فَاتَهُ حَسَبُ نَفْسِهِ لَمْ يَنْفَعَهُ حَسَبُ آبَائِهِ.

384. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Anyone whose action keeps him behind, his lineage cannot push him forward.” In another version, it is expressed thus: “Whoever misses his own personal attainments cannot gain any benefit from his forefathers’ attainments.”

٣٨٥- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لِلْمُؤْمِنِ ثَلَاثُ سَاعَاتٍ: فَسَاعَةٌ يَنْجِي فِيهَا رَبَّهُ، وَسَاعَةٌ يَرْمُ مَعَاشَهُ، وَسَاعَةٌ يُخْلِي بَيْنَ نَفْسِهِ وَبَيْنَ لَذَّتِهَا فِيمَا يَحِلُّ وَيَجْمَلُ، وَلَيْسَ لِلْعَاقِلِ أَنْ يَكُونَ شَاخِصًا إِلَّا فِي ثَلَاثٍ: مَرَمَّةٍ لِمَعَاشٍ، أَوْ خُطْوَةٍ فِي مَعَادٍ، أَوْ لَذَّةٍ فِي غَيْرِ مُحَرَّمٍ.

385. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The believer’s time has three periods: The period when he is in communion with Allāh, the period when he manages for his livelihood, and the period when he is free to enjoy what is lawful and pleasant. It does not behoove a wise person to be away (from his house) save for three matters, namely: learning, going to do something for the next life, or enjoying what is not prohibited.”

386. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Abstain from the world so Allāh may show you its real evils, and do not be neglectful because (in any case) you will never be neglected.”

387. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Speak so that you may be known, since man is hidden under his tongue.”

٣٨٨- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): خُذْ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا مَا أَتَاكَ وَتَوَلَّ عَمَّا تَوَلَّى عَنْكَ فَإِنَّكَ لَمْ تَفْعَلْ فَاجْمَلْ فِي الطَّلَبِ.

388. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Take of the favors of the world whatever comes to you; keep away from whatever is kept away from you. If you cannot do so, be moderate in your pursuits.”

٣٨٩- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): رَبِّ قَوْلٍ أَنْفَذَ مِنْ صَوْلٍ.

389. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Many an expression is more effective than an onslaught.”

٣٩٠- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): كُلُّ مُقْتَصِرٍ عَلَيْهِ كَافٍ.

390. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Every small thing with which one is contented suffices.”

391. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Let it be death, but not humiliation. Let it be little, but not through others. Whoever does not get while sitting will not get by standing either. The world has two days: One is for you, and the other is against you. When the day is for you, do not feel proud, but when it is against you, endure.”

392. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The best fragrance is musk; its weight is light while its smell is sweet.”

٣٩٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): ضَعِ فُخْرَكَ، وَاحْطُطْ كِبْرَكَ، وَادْكُرْ قَبْرَكَ.

393. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Put off boasting, give up self-

394. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The child has an obligation on the father, while the father, too, has an obligation on the child. The obligation of the father on the child is that the latter should obey the former in every matter save in committing sins against Allāh, the Glorified One, while the obligation of the child on the father is that the latter should give the first a beautiful name, provide him with good upbringing and teach him the Qur’ān.”

٣٩٥- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْعَيْنُ حَقٌّ وَالرُّقْيُ حَقٌّ وَالسَّخَرُ حَقٌّ وَالْقَالُ حَقٌّ وَالطَّيْرَةُ لَيْسَتْ بِحَقٍّ وَالْعَذْوَى لَيْسَتْ بِحَقٍّ وَالطَّيْبُ نُشْرَةٌ وَالصَّلُّ نُشْرَةٌ وَالرُّكُوبُ نُشْرَةٌ وَالنَّظَرُ إِلَى الْخُضْرَةِ نُشْرَةٌ.

395. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Evil effect of sight is true, charm is true, sorcery is true, and fa’l (auguring good) is true, while tayrah (auguring evil)¹ is not true, and spreading of a disease from one to the other may not be true. Scent gives pleasure, honey gives pleasure, riding gives pleasure and looking at greenery gives pleasure.”

Auguring well is not objectionable. For example, after the migration of the Prophet (from Mecca to Medīna), Quraysh announced that whoever apprehended the Prophet would be given one hundred camels as a reward. Thereupon, Buraydah ibn al-Husayb al-Salami set off in his search with seventy of his men. When they met at a halting place, the Prophet ﷺ asked him who he was. He said he was Buraydah ibn al-Husayb al-Salami. Buraydah later recollected saying, “The Holy Prophet ﷺ was not auguring evil. Instead, he used to augur well.” On hearing this, the Prophet remarked: “Barada amruna wa saluha” (our affair has been cooled and is sound). Then he asked him what tribe he came from. When he replied that he was from Aslam, the Prophet ﷺ remarked: “Salimna!” (We are safe). Then he asked from which scion he was. When Buraydah replied that he was from Banū Sahm, the Prophet ﷺ remarked: “Kharaja sahmuka” (your arrow has missed its aim). Buraydah was very impressed by this pleasing conversation and inquired from the Prophet who he was. The Prophet replied, “Muhammed ibn Abdullāh”. Hearing this, he spontaneously exclaimed, “I do stand witness that you are the Messenger of Allāh!” Forsaking the prize announced by the Quraysh, he instead acquired the wealth of belief in Islam,” as we read in: Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 1, pp. 185 – 86 and Usd al-Ghābah, Vol. 1, pp. 175 - 76.

396. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Neariness with people in their manners brings about safety from their evil.”

قال الرضي : و الشكير هاهنا أول ما ينبت من ريش الطائر قبل أن يقوى ويستحصف، والسقب الصغير من الإبل، ولا يهدر إلا بعد أن يستفحل.

397. Someone uttered an expression which was above his status. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “You have started flying soon after growing feathers and commenced grumbling before attaining youth.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “Here, shākir [in the original Arabic text] means the first feathers that grow on a bird before it is strong enough to fly. And saqb means the young camel that does not grumble unless it becomes mature.”

٣٩٨ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَنْ أَوْمَأَ إِلَى مُتَفَاوِتٍ خَذَلْتُهُ الْحِيلُ.

398. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever hankers after contraries obtains no means for success.”

399. On being asked about the meaning of the expression: La hawla wala quwwata illa Billāh (there is neither strength nor power except through Allāh), Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “We are not masters of anything along with Allāh, and we are not masters of anything save what He makes us masters of. So, when He makes us masters of anything of which He is a superior Lord over us, He also assigns some duties to us. And when He takes it away, He takes away those duties as well.”¹

٤٠٠- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : لِعَمَّارِ بْنِ يَاسِرٍ وَقَدْ سَمِعَهُ يُرَاجِعُ الْمُغِيرَةَ بْنَ شُعْبَةَ كَلَامًا دَعَاهُ يَا عَمَّارُ فَإِنَّهُ لَمْ يَأْخُذْ مِنَ الدِّينِ إِلَّا مَا قَارَبَهُ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَعَلَى عَمْدٍ لَبَسَ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ لِيَجْعَلَ الشُّبُهَاتِ عَازِرًا لِسَقَطَاتِهِ.

400. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام heard `Ammār ibn Yāsir (may Allāh have mercy on him) conversing with al-Mughīrah ibn Shu`bah. He said to him, “Leave him alone, O `Ammār, for he has entered religion only to the extent of his deriving from it a worldly advantage, and he has willfully involved himself in misgivings in order to adopt them as cover for his shortcomings.”

¹What Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام meant is that man does not enjoy mastery over anything. Rather, such mastery is assigned/granted by Allāh. So long as this mastery lasts, the obligations of the Sharī`a also continue, whereas when the mastery is taken away, the obligations, too, are lifted, since in such a case, the laying of obligations will mean placing the responsibility beyond one's capacity which cannot be permitted by any wise or prudent person, let alone by Allāh. This is why Allāh has placed the responsibility of performing various acts after having conferred the necessary energy in the limbs. It follows that this responsibility will remain only so long as the energy subsists. On the disappearance of energy, the responsibility for action will also disappear. For example, the obligation to pay zakāt applies only when there is wealth, but when Allāh takes away that wealth, He removes the liability to pay zakāt because in such a case, the laying of obligation is against prudence.

401. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “It is good for the rich to show humility before the poor through seeking the rewards of Allāh. Yet better than that is the pride of the poor towards the rich while relying on Allāh.”

402. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Allāh does not grant wisdom to a person except that some day He will save him from ruin with its help.”

٤٠٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَنْ صَارَعَ الْحَقَّ صَرَعَهُ.

403. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever clashes with the truth will be knocked down by it.”

٤٠٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : الْقَلْبُ مُصْحَفُ الْبَصَرِ.

404. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The heart is the book of the eye.”

٤٠٥- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : الثَّقَى رَئِيسُ الْخُلَاقِ.

405. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Fear of Allāh is the main trait of the moral character.”

406. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do not steer the sharpness of your tongue against the One Who gave you the power to speak nor the eloquence of your speech against the One Who set you on the right path.”

407. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “It is enough for your own self-discipline that you abstain from what you dislike in others.”

٤٠٨ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَنْ صَبَرَ صَبَرَ الْآخِرَارَ، وَإِنَّا سَلَوُ الْآخِمَارِ.

408. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “One should endure like free people; otherwise, one should keep quiet like the ignorant.”

٤٠٩ - فِي خَبَرٍ آخَرَ أَنَّهُ (عليه السلام) قَالَ لِلْأَشْعَثِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ مُعْزِيًا عَنْ ابْنِ لَهُ: إِنْ صَبَرْتَ صَبَرَ الْكَارِمَ، وَإِنَّا سَلَوْتُ الْبَهَائِمَ.

409. In an incident, it is related that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said to al-Ash'ath ibn Qays, by way of offering his condolences on the death of his son, “You should either endure like great people, or else you should forget like animals.”

٤١٠ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) فِي صِفَةِ الدُّنْيَا: تُغْرُ وَتُضُرُّ وَتَمُرُّ. إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَرْضَهَا ثَوَابًا لِأَوْلِيَائِهِ وَلَا عِقَابًا لِأَعْدَائِهِ، وَإِنَّ أَهْلَ الدُّنْيَا كَرَكِبٍ بَيْنَنَا هُمْ حُلُوءًا، إِذَا صَاحَ بِهِمْ سَانِقُهُمْ فَارْتَحَلُوا.

410. Describing life in this world, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib said: “It deceives, it harms and it passes away. Allāh, the Sublime, neither approved it as a reward for His lovers nor as a punishment for His enemies. In fact, the people of this world are like those riders who, as soon as they descend, the driver calls out to them and they march off.”

قال الرضي : وَيُرَوَّى هَذَا الْكَلَامُ عَلَى وَجْهِ آخَرَ وَهُوَ :

عَمِلَ فِيهِ بِمَعْصِيَةِ اللَّهِ فَشَقِيحٌ بِمَا جَمَعَتْ لَهُ وَلَيْسَ أَحَدٌ هَذِينَ أَهْلًا أَنْ تُؤْثِرَهُ عَلَى نَفْسِكَ
وَلَا أَنْ تُحْمَلَ لَهُ عَلَى ظَهْرِكَ فَارْجُ لِمَنْ مَضَى رَحْمَةَ اللَّهِ وَلِمَنْ بَقِيَ رِزْقَ اللَّهِ.

411. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said to his son Imām al-Hassan عليه السلام:
“O my son! Do not leave anything of this world behind you because you will be leaving it for either of two kinds of persons: a person who uses it in obeying Allāh, in this case he will acquire virtue through what was evil for you, or a person who uses it in disobeying Allāh and, in this case, he will be reaping evil with what you gathered for him; so, you will be assisting him in his sinfulness.

Neither of these two deserves to be preferred by you over your own self.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “This saying is also related in another version thus: ‘Whatever of this world is now with you was with others before you, and it will pass on to some others after you. Thus, you are gathering things for either of two sorts of men: a man who uses whatever you gathered in obeying Allāh and thus acquires virtues with what is evil for you, or a man who uses it in disobeying Allāh, so you will be getting evil for what he gathers. Neither of these two is such that you should prefer him over your own self, for you may burden yourself for his own sake. Therefore, hope for the mercy of Allāh: Divine livelihood is for whoever survives one who passes away.’”

مَضَى، وَالثَّانِي الْعَزْمُ عَلَى تَرْكِ الْعَوْدِ إِلَيْهِ أَبَدًا، وَالثَّالِثُ أَنْ تُؤَدِّيَ إِلَى الْمَخْلُوقِينَ حُقُوقَهُمْ
حَتَّى تُلْقَى اللَّهَ أَمْلَسَ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ تَبِعَةٌ، وَالرَّابِعُ أَنْ تُعْمِدَ إِلَى كُلِّ فَرِيضَةٍ عَلَيْكَ ضَيَعْتُهَا
فَتُؤَدِّيَ حَقَّهَا، وَالْخَامِسُ أَنْ تُعْمِدَ إِلَى اللَّحْمِ الَّذِي نَبَتَ عَلَى السُّخْتِ فَتُذَيِّبَهُ بِالْأَحْزَانِ حَتَّى
تُلْصِقَ الْجِلْدَ بِالْعَظْمِ وَيَنْشَأَ بَيْنَهُمَا لَحْمٌ جَدِيدٌ، وَالسَّادِسُ أَنْ تُذَيِّقَ الْجِسْمَ أَلَمَ الطَّاعَةِ كَمَا
أَذَقْتَهُ حَلَاوَةَ الْمَعْصِيَةِ، فَعِنْدَ ذَلِكَ تَقُولُ أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ.

412. Someone said “Astaghfirullāh!” (I seek Allāh’s forgiveness) in the presence of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “May your mother lose you! Do you know what istighfār is? Istighfār is meant for people of a high status. It is a word that stands on six pillars: The first is to repent over what was done in the past; the second is to make a firm determination never to revert to it again; the third is to carry out all the obligations of people so that you may meet Allāh quite clean, with nothing to account for; the fourth is to fulfill every obligation which you ignored (in the past) so that you may now affect justice with it; the fifth is to aim at the flesh grown as a result of your unlawful earning, so that you may melt it down by grief (of repentance) till the skin touches the bone and new flesh grows between them; and the sixth is to make the body taste the pain of obedience as you (previously) made it taste the sweetness of disobedience. It is only on such an occasion that you may say: Astaghfirullāh!” ٤١٣ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : الْحِلْمُ عَشِيرَةٌ!

413. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Clemency is (like winning) a whole tribe (supporting you).”

٤١٤ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مِسْكِينُ ابْنِ آدَمَ : مَكْتُومُ الْأَجَلِ مَكْتُونُ الْعِلِّ مَحْفُوظُ الْعَمَلِ؛ تَوَلَّمَةُ الْبَقَّةِ وَتَغْتَلَةُ الشَّرْقَةِ وَتُنْتِنَةُ الْعَرَقَةِ.

414. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “How wretched the son of Adam is! His death is hidden, his ailments are concealed, his actions are preserved, the bite of a mosquito pains him, choking causes his death and sweat gives him a bad smell.”

فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْخَوَارِجِ : قَاتِلُهُ اللَّهُ، كَافِرًا مَا أَفْقَهُهُ، فَوَثَبَ الْقَوْمُ لِيَقْتُلُوهُ، فَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : رُوَيْدَا إِنَّمَا هُوَ سَبٌّ بِسَبِّ، أَوْ عَفْوٌ عَنْ ذَنْبٍ.

415. It is related that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was sitting with his companions when a beautiful woman passed by and they began to look at her. It was then that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The eyes of these men are covetous, and such glances are the cause of their becoming covetous. Whenever anyone of you sees a woman who attracts him, he should meet his wife [for cohabitation] because she is a woman just like his wife.”

One a Khārijite said: “May Allāh kill this heretic! How logical he is!” People then leaped towards him to kill him, but Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Wait a little bit. There should either be abuse [for an abuse] or else pardoning the offender.”

416. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Suffices you for wisdom to be able to distinguish the ways of misguidance from those of guidance.”

وَلَا يَقُولَنَّ أَحَدُكُمْ إِنَّ أَحَدًا أَوْلَى بِفِعْلِ الْخَيْرِ مِنِّي فَيَكُونُ وَاللَّهِ كَذَلِكَ إِنَّ لِلْخَيْرِ وَالشَّرِّ أَهْلًا
فَمَهْمَا تَرَكَتُمُوهُ مِنْهُمَا كَفَاكُمُوهُ أَهْلُهُ.

417. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Do good deeds, do not regard any part of it as small because its small is big and its little is much. None of you should say that another person is more deserving than he is in doing good deeds; otherwise, by Allāh, it will really be so. There are people of good and evil. When you leave either of the two, others will perform it.”

أَمْرَ دُنْيَاهُ، وَمَنْ أَحْسَنَ فِيمَا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ اللَّهِ، أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ مَا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ النَّاسِ.

418. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever mends his inward self, Allāh mends his outward self for him. Whoever performs acts for the sake of his religion, Allāh accomplishes his acts of this world for him. Anyone whose dealings between himself and Allāh are good, Allāh renders the dealings between him and other people good, too.”

٤١٩- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : الْجِلْمُ غِطَاءٌ سَاتَرَ وَالْعَقْلُ حُسَامٌ قَاطِعٌ فَاسْتُرْ خَلْلَ خُلُقِكَ بِجِلْمِكَ
وَقَاتِلْ هَوَاكَ بِعَقْلِكَ.

419. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Forbearance is a covering curtain, and wisdom is a sharp sword. Therefore, conceal the weaknesses in your conduct with forbearance and kill your desires with wisdom.”

مَا يَذَلُّوهُا؛ فَإِذَا مَنَعُوهُمَا نَزَعَهَا مِنْهُمْ ثُمَّ حَوَّلَهَا إِلَى غَيْرِهِمْ.

420. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There are some servants of Allāh whom Allāh particularly chooses for His favors so that they may be of benefit to other people. Therefore, He keeps such favors in their hands so long as they give them out to others. But when they deny them to others, He takes away the favors from them and gives them to others.”

٤٢١- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : لَا يَتَّبِعِي الْعَبْدُ أَنْ يَتَّقَ بِخَصْلَتَيْنِ: الْعَافِيَةِ وَالْغِنَى، بَيْنَا تَرَاهُ مُعَافَى إِذَا سَقِمَ، وَبَيْنَا تَرَاهُ غَنِيًّا إِذَا افْتَقَرَ.

421. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “It does not behoove a man to have trust in two things: health and riches, because there is many a man whom you see healthy but he soon falls, and many a man whom you see rich but soon turns destitute.”

٤٢٢- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَنْ شَكَا الْحَاجَةَ إِلَى مُؤْمِنٍ فَكَأَنَّهُ شَكَاهَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَمَنْ شَكَاهَا إِلَى كَافِرٍ فَكَأَنَّمَا شَكَا اللَّهَ.

422. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Whoever complains to a believer about a need, it is as though he has complained about it to Allāh. But whoever complains about it to an unbeliever, it is as though he complained about Allāh.”

٤٢٣- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : إِنَّمَا هُوَ عِيدٌ لِمَنْ قَبِلَ اللَّهَ صِيَامَهُ وَشَكَرَ قِيَامَهُ، وَكُلُّ يَوْمٍ لَا يُغْصَى اللَّهُ فِيهِ فَهُوَ عِيدٌ.

423. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said on the occasion of an `Īd: “It is an `Īd for anyone whose fast is accepted by Allāh and for whose prayers He is grateful, and (in fact) every day wherein no sin against Allāh is committed is an `Īd.”¹

¹If vision and conscience are alive, even the remembrance of a sin destroys one's peace of mind because tranquility and happiness are achieved only when the spirit is free from the burden of sin and one's robe is not polluted with disobedience. And this real happiness is not bound by time. Whenever one desires, he can avoid sin and enjoy this happiness. Such happiness will be the real happiness, and the harbinger of an `Īd. A Persian poet says: “Every night is the Grand Night provided you appreciate its value.”

٤٢٤- وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : إِنَّ أَعْظَمَ الْحَسَرَاتِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ حَسْرَةُ رَجُلٍ كَسَبَ مَالًا فِي غَيْرِ طَاعَةِ اللَّهِ فَوَرَّثَهُ رَجُلٌ فَأَنْفَقَهُ فِي طَاعَةِ اللَّهِ سُبْحَانَهُ، فَدَخَلَ بِهِ الْجَنَّةَ، وَدَخَلَ الْأَوَّلُ بِهِ النَّارَ.

424. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “On the Day of Judgment, the greatest regret will be felt by the man who earned wealth through sinful ways, although it is inherited by a person who spends it in obeying Allāh, the Glorified One, and he will be awarded with Paradise on that account while the first one will be dragged into the Fire on its account.”

425. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The worst in bargaining and the most unsuccessful in striving is a man who exerts himself in seeking riches although fate does not help him in his aims and, consequently, he leaves this world in a sorrowful state while in the Hereafter, too, he will face its ill consequences.”¹

٤٢٦ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : الرِّزْقُ رِزْقَانِ طَالِبٌ وَمَطْلُوبٌ فَمَنْ طَلَبَ الدُّنْيَا طَلَبَهُ الْمَوْتُ حَتَّى يُخْرِجَهُ عَنْهَا وَمَنْ طَلَبَ الْآخِرَةَ طَلَبَتْهُ الدُّنْيَا حَتَّى يَسْتَوْفِيَ رِزْقَهُ مِنْهَا.

426. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Livelihood is of two kinds: the seeker and the sought. Therefore, whoever hankers after this world, death traces him till it turns him out of it. But whoever hankers after the Hereafter, worldly ease itself seeks him till he receives his livelihood from it.”

٤٢٧ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : إِنَّ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الَّذِينَ نَظَرُوا إِلَى بَاطِنِ الدُّنْيَا إِذَا نَظَرَ النَّاسُ إِلَى ظَاهِرِهَا وَاسْتَتَفَلُوا بِأَجْلِهَا إِذَا اسْتَتَفَلَ النَّاسُ بِعَاجِلِهَا فَأَمَاتُوا مِنْهَا مَا خَشُوا أَنْ يُمِيتَهُمْ وَتَرَكُوا مِنْهَا مَا عَلِمُوا أَنَّهُ سَيُتْرَكُهُمْ وَرَأَوْا اسْتِكْثَارَ غَيْرِهِمْ مِنْهَا اسْتِغْلَالًا وَدَرَكَهُمْ لَهَا قُوَّةً أَعْدَاءُ مَا سَالَمَ النَّاسُ وَسَلَّمُ مَا عَادَى النَّاسُ بِهِمْ عِلْمُ الْكِتَابِ وَبِهِ عَلِمُوا وَبِهِمْ قَامَ الْكِتَابُ وَبِهِ قَامُوا لَا يَرَوْنَ مَرْجُوًّا فَوْقَ مَا يَرْجُونَ وَلَا مَخُوفًا فَوْقَ مَا يَخَافُونَ.

427. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The friends of Allāh are those who look at the inward side of the world, while the other people look at its outward side. They occupy themselves with its most remote benefits while other people occupy themselves with the immediate benefits. They kill those things which they feared will have killed them, and they abandon here in this world what they think will abandon them. They take the amassing of wealth by others as a small matter and regard it as a loss. They are enemies of those things which others love while they love things which others hate. Through them, the Qur'ān has been learned, and they have been given knowledge through the Qur'ān. With them, the Qur'ān is staying while they stand by the Qur'ān. They do not see any objective of hope above what they hope and no objective of fear above what they fear.”

¹Despite efforts throughout life, a man does not always achieve all the successes of life. If on some occasions he succeeds, as a result of effort and of seeking, on many others he has to face defeat and give up his objectives, admitting defeat before fate. A little thinking can lead to the conclusion that when things of this world cannot be achieved despite one's effort and pursuit, how can the success of the next world be achieved without striving and pursuing? A Persian couplet says: “You hankered after the world but did not attain the objective. O Allāh! What will be the result when the good of the next world has not even been sought?”

428. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Remember that pleasures pass away while consequences linger.”

٤٢٩ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : اخْبِرْ ثِقْلِهِ.

قال الرضي : و من الناس من يروي هذا للرسول (صلى الله عليه وآله) و مما يقوي أنه من كلام أمير المؤمنين (عليه السلام) ما حكاه ثعلب عن ابن الأعرابي قال المأمون: لو لا أن عليا (عليه السلام) قال اخبر ثقله لقلت اقله تخبر.

429. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Try (a man) and you will hate him!”

Sayyid ar-Radi says: “Some people say that this saying was articulated by the Prophet ﷺ, but what confirms that it is the saying of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام is the statement related by Tha'lab from Ibn al-'Arabi, that is, that (caliph) al-Ma'mūn said, ‘f Ali had not said ukhbur thiqlihi (try a man and you will hate him), I would have said: aqlihi takhbur (hate a man in order to try him).”

٤٣٠ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيَفْتَحَ عَلَى عَبْدٍ بَابَ الشُّكْرِ وَيُغْلِقَ عَنْهُ بَابَ الزِّيَادَةِ وَلَا لِيَفْتَحَ عَلَى عَبْدٍ بَابَ الدُّعَاءِ وَيُغْلِقَ عَنْهُ بَابَ الْجَابَةِ وَلَا لِيَفْتَحَ لِعَبْدٍ بَابَ التَّوْبَةِ وَيُغْلِقَ عَنْهُ بَابَ الْمَغْفِرَةِ.

430. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “It is not that Allāh, to Whom belongs Might and Majesty, keeps the gate of gratitude open for a person and closes the gate of plenty on him, or opens the gate of prayer to a person and closes the gate of acceptance on him, or opens the gate of repentance on a person and closes the gate of forgiveness on him... (He is above doing any of these things).”

٤٣١ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِالكَرَمِ مَنْ عُرِفَتْ بِهِ الْكِرَامُ.

431. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The most appropriate person for an honorable status is whoever descends from the people of honor.”

432. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked: “Which of the two is better: justice or generosity?” Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام replied: “Justice puts things in their places, while generosity takes them out of their directions. Justice is the general caretaker, while generosity is a particular benefit. Consequently, justice is superior and more distinguished of the two.”

٤٣٣ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : النَّاسُ أَعْدَاءُ مَا جَهِلُوا.

433. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “People are enemies of what they do not know.”

434. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The whole of asceticism is confined between two expressions of the Qur’ān: Allāh, the Glorified One, says: ... lest you should distress yourselves because of what you miss and be over-joyous for what He has granted you (Qur’ān, 57: 23). Whoever does not grieve over what he misses and does not revel over what comes to him acquires asceticism from both its ends.”

٤٣٥ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَا أَنْقَضَ النَّوْمَ لِعَزَائِمِ الْيَوْمِ.

435. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “What a breaker sleep is for the resolutions of the day!”

٤٣٦ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : الْوَلَايَاتُ مَضَامِيرُ الرَّجَالِ.

436. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Governing power is the proving ground of men.”

437. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “No town has a greater obligation on you than another. The best town for you is that which bears you.”

قال الرضي : و الفند المنفرد من الجبال.

438. When the news of the death of Mālik al-Ashtar (may Allāh have mercy on him), reached Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, he said: “Mālik, what a man Mālik was! By Allāh! If he had been a mountain, he would have been a great one. If he had been a stone, he would have been quite solid. No horseman could have reached it and no bird could have flown over it.” Sayyid ar-Radi says that the Imām is comparing Mālik to a lonely mountain (rising in height above the others in its range عليه السلام).

439. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A little that lasts is better than much that brings about grief.”

440. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If a man possesses a revealing quality, wait and see his other qualities!”¹

٤٤١ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) لغالب بن صعصعة أبي الفرزدق في كلام دار بينهما: مَا فَعَلْتَ إِيَّاكَ الْكَثِيرَةَ قَالَ دَغَدَعْتُهَا الْحَقُوقُ يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : ذَلِكَ أَحْمَدُ سُبُلِهَا.

441. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام asked Ghalib ibn Sa'sa'ah, father of al-Farazdaq (the famous Arab poet who was born before Islam in around 641 A.D. and died in around 110 A.H./728 A.D.), during a conversation between them: "What about the large number of your camels?!" The man replied: "They have been swept away by (the performing of) obligations, O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام!" Whereupon Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "That is the most praiseworthy way of (losing) them."

٤٤٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام) : مَنْ اتَّجَرَ بِغَيْرِ فِقْهِ فَقَدْ ارْتَضَمَ فِي الرَّبَا.

442. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "Whoever trades without knowing the rules of religious law will be involved in usury."

443. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "Whoever regards small distresses as big, Allāh involves him in real big ones."

444. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "Whoever maintains his own respect in view, his desires appear light to him."

445. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "Whenever a man tells a joke, he separates himself a bit from his wits."

temperament. If the temperament produces one quality, his other qualities will also be akin to this one because the dictates of temperament will be equally effective in either. Thus, if a man pays zakāt and khums, it means that his temperament is not miserly. Therefore, it is expected that he will not be niggardly in spending in other items of charity as well. Similarly, if a man speaks a lie, it can be expected that he will indulge in backbiting, too, because these two habits are similar to each other.

٤٤٦ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): زُهْدُكَ فِي رَاغِبٍ فِيكَ تُفْصَنُ حَظٌّ وَرَغْبُكَ فِي زَاهِدٍ فِيكَ ذُلٌّ نَفْسٍ.

446. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Your turning away from the one who inclines towards you is a loss of your share of advantage, while your inclining towards one who turns away from you is self-humiliation.”

٤٤٧ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْغِنَى وَالْفَقْرُ بَعْدَ الْعَرَضِ عَلَى اللَّهِ.

447. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Riches and destitution will follow presentation before Allāh.”

448. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Az-Zubayr remained a man from our house till his wretched son, Abdullāh, came forth.”

Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr ibn al-`Awwām (1 – 73 A.H./662 – 692 A.D.), whose mother was Asmā', sister of `Ā'isha (daughter of caliph Abū Bakr), had grown in his dislike of Banū Hāshim especially towards Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام to such an extent that he was able to change the opinion of his father, az-Zubayr, against Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام although the Imām عليه السلام was the son of his father's aunt. That is why Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Az-Zubayr had always been from us, we Ahl al-Bayt عليه السلام (our household), till his ill-owned son, Abdullāh, grew up,” as we read in these references: Al-Istī'āb, Vol. 3, p. 906; Usd al-Ghābah, Vol. 3, pp. 162 – 63; Ibn `Asākir, Vol. 7, p. 363; Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 2, p. 167; Vol. 4, p. 79, Vol. 20, p. 104 and others.

Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr was one of the instigators of the Battle of Jamal. His aunt, `Ā'isha, wife of the Prophet of Islam ﷺ, his father, az-Zubayr, and the son of his mother's uncle, Talhah, all fought against Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام.

Thus, Ibn Abul-Hadīd writes the following: "It was Abdullāh who urged az-Zubayr to fight (in the Battle of Jamal), making the march to Basra seem to `Ā'isha as an attractive idea," as we read on p. 79, Vol. 4 of Sharh Nahjul-Balāgha.

`Ā'isha loved her nephew Abdullāh very much. To her, he was like the only child of a mother, and none in those days was more beloved to her than he was," as we are told by Abul-Faraj al-Isbahāni (or Isfahāni) who states so on p. 142, Vol. 9 of his famous work Al-Aghāni. This is also recorded on p. 120, Vol. 20 of Sharh Nahjul-Balāgha by the Mu'tazilite writer Ibn Abul-Hadīd as well as by Ibn Kathīr who states it on p. 336, Vol. 8 of his Tārīkh book.

Hishām ibn `Urwah relates the following: "I have not heard her (`Ā'isha) praying for anyone as much as she used to pray for him (Abdullāh). She gave ten thousand dirhams (as a gift) to the one who informed her of Abdullāh's safety from getting killed (by Mālīk al-Ashtar in the fight of the Battle of Jamal), and prostrated to Allāh in thanks-giving for his safety," according to Ibn `Asākir who says so on pp. 400, 4002, Vol. 7 of his Tārīkh book. The same is recorded on p. 1117, Vol. 20 of the Sharh book of Ibn Abul-Hadīd.

This was the reason for Abdullāh's authority over her and his complete command over her affairs. He was the one who directed and guided her as he wished...

However, Abdullāh's hatred towards Banū Hāshim had reached such a degree that, according to the narrations of a group of historians, "During his (Abdullāh's) caliphate (in Mecca), he did not send blessings to the Holy Prophet in his Friday prayer sermon (khutba) for forty Fridays. He used to say: 'Nothing prevents me from mentioning the Prophet's name except that there are certain men (i.e. Banū Hāshim) who become proud (when his name is mentioned).'" In another rendering, the text reads as follows: "Nothing prevents... except that the Prophet has a bad household who will shake their heads on the mention of his name," according to Maqatil at-Tālibiyyin, p. 474; Murūj al-Dhahab, Vol. 3, p. 79; Tārīkh, al-Ya`qūbi, Vol. 2, p. 261; Al-`Iqd al-Farīd, Vol. 4, p. 413 and Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 4, p. 62, Vol. 19, pp. 91 - 92, Vol. 20, pp. 127 - 29.

Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr said to Abdullāh ibn Abbās once: “I have been concealing my hatred towards you, the people of this house (i.e. the Household of the Prophet [ص]) for the last forty years...,” as recorded by al-Mas‘ūdī on p. 80, Vol. 3 of Murūj al-Dhahab and by Ibn Abul-Hadīd in his Sharh, Vol. 4, p. 62, Vol. 20, p. 148.

He also used to hate Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام in particular, defame his honor, abuse and curse him, as we are told by the famous historian, al-Ya‘qūbi, who indicates so on pp. 261 – 62, Vol. 2 of his Tārīkh, as well as by al-Mas‘ūdī, p. 80, Vol. 3 of Murūj al-Dhahab in addition to Ibn Abul-Hadīd who records this fact on these pages of Vol. 4 of his Sharh book: pp. 61, 62-63, 79.

He gathered Muhammed ibn al-Hanafiyya (son of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib [ع]) and Abdullāh ibn Abbās with seventeen men from Banū Hāshim, including al-Hassan ibn al-Hassan ibn Ali ibn Abū Tālib [al-Hassan II] and jailed them in the shi‘b (valley) of ‘Arim. He intended to burn them alive, so he placed plenty of wood at the entrance of the shi‘b. Meanwhile, al-Mukhtār ath-Thaqafi dispatched four thousand soldiers to Mecca. On their arrival, they attacked Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr when the latter expected them the least and thus rescued those Banū Hāshim dignitaries. ‘Urwah ibn az-Zubayr made an excuse for the action of his brother, Abdullāh, saying that it was the result of Banū Hāshim’s refusal to swear the oath of allegiance to him (to Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr). This was similar to what ‘Omar ibn al-Khattāb had done to the Banū Hāshim when they gathered at Fātima’s house to declare their refusal to swear the oath of allegiance to Abū Bakr when he was made caliph with help of ‘Omar himself. So, ‘Omar brought firewood and intended to burn the house on them. These gruesome details and many, many more can be reviewed in many history books such as these: Maqatil at-Tālibiyyin of Abul-Faraj al-Isfahāni¹, p. 474, al-Mas‘udi, Vol. 3, pp. 76-77, al-Ya‘qūbi, Vol. 2, p. 261, Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 19, p. 91, Vol. 20, pp. 123

¹The edition of Maqātil al-Tālibiyyīn which the Editor of this book has in his personal library is published by Dār al-Zahrā’a of al-Najaf al-Ashraf, Iraq; no date of publication is indicated. It lists many descendants of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام who were ruthlessly killed by various governments since the inception of Islam and till the author’s time.

In this regard, Abul-Faraj al-Isfahāni writes the following: “Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr always instigated others against Banū Hāshim and persuaded them (to adopt his viewpoint) by every worst method. He spoke against Banū Hāshim from the pulpit, instigating people against them. Once, Ibn Abbās, or someone else from (Banū Hāshim) raised an objection to him. But afterwards, he changed his way and imprisoned Ibn al-Hanafiyya at the Shi`b al-`Arim. Then he gathered Ibn al-Hanafiyya along with other members of Banū Hāshim who were present (in Mecca) in a prison and collected firewood to set fire to it. This was so because of the news that had reached him that Abū Abdullāh al-Jadali and other followers of Ibn al-Hanafiyya had arrived (in Mecca) to support Ibn al-Hanafiyya in fighting Abdullāh ibn az-Zubayr. Therefore, he hastened to do away with the prisoners. But when this news reached Abū Abdullāh al-Jadali, the latter went out as the fire was already ignited on them, put the fire out and rescued them,” as we read on p. 15 of Al-Aghāni.

So, all these prove what Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said about him.

٤٤٩ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا لِابْنِ آدَمَ وَالْفَخْر؟! أَوَّلُهُ نُطْفَةٌ، وَآخِرُهُ جِيْفَةٌ، وَلَا يَرْزُقُ نَفْسَهُ، وَلَا يَدْفَعُ حَتْفَهُ.

449. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “What has a man to do with vanity? His origin is semen, his end is a carcass, while he cannot feed himself, nor can he ward off death?”¹

¹If one ponders over his original condition, the eventual disintegration and decay of his body, he will be compelled to admit his lowliness and humble status instead of being proud and vain. He will see that there was a time when he did not exist, then Allāh originated his existence with a humble drop of semen which took the shape of a piece of flesh in the mother's womb and continued feeding and growing on thick blood. On completion of the body, he set foot on earth. He was then so helpless and incapable that he had neither control over his hunger and thirst nor on his sickness and health, nor could he do himself any benefit or harm. He had no

٤٥٠ - وَسُئِلَ مَنْ أَشْعَرَ الشُّعْرَاءِ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِنَّ الْقَوْمَ لَمْ يَجْرُوا فِي حَلْبَةٍ تُعْرَفُ الْغَايَةُ عِنْدَ قَصَبَتِهَا فَإِنْ كَانَ وَلَا بُدَّ فَالْمَلِكُ الضَّلِيلُ (يريد إمرأ القيس).

450. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked who the greatest poet was. He said: "Any group of them that did not proceed on the same lines in such a way that we can know the height of their glory, but if it has to be done, then it is 'al-Malik ad-Dillīl' الملك الضليل".¹ authority over life and death, not knowing when the energy of limbs might be exhausted. He felt his senses might stop functioning, his eyesight might be taken away and his hearing ability might be snatched away. He could not tell when death might separate his soul from the body and leave the latter to be cut into pieces by vultures and kites or by worms to feed on it in his grave. An Arabic couplet says: "How does one whose origin is semen and whose end is a carcass dare to be vain?"

¹This means that a comparison can be made among the poets when their imagination runs in the same direction. But when one's expression differs from that of another, and when one's style varies from that of another, it is difficult to decide who is defeated and who wins. Consequently, from various considerations, one is preferred over another, and someone is considered greater for one consideration, while the other wins due to the other consideration, as the famous saying goes: "The greatest poet of Arabia is Imri'ul-Qays ibn Hajar ibn al-Hārith ibn `Amr al-Kindi (c. 501 – 540 A.D.), the king who lost his kingdom, when he rides, al-A`shā (namely Maymūn ibn Qays ibn Jandal ibn Sharaheel who belonged to the tribe of Bakr ibn Wā'il; his date of birth is unknown and he died in 7 A.H./ 628 A.D.) when he is eager for something, and an-Nabighah [the genius] (al-Dhubyani, namely Ziyād ibn Mu`āwiyah ibn Dabab ibn Jābir; his date of birth is unknown and he died in 605 A.D.) when he is terrified." Nevertheless, despite this categorization, Imri'ul-Qays is held in high esteem among the poets of the first era because of the beauty of his imagery, the excellence of his description, inimitable similes and rare metaphors, although many of his couplets are below moral and ethical standards and speak of obscene or promiscuous subject-matters. But in spite of this obscenity and promiscuity, the greatness of his art cannot be denied. An artist looks at a poetic production from the point of view of art, ignoring the other elements which do not affect art.

قال الرضي: والمرود هنا مفعول من الإرواد وهو الإمهال والإظهار وهذا من أفصح الكلام وأغربه فكانه (عليه السلام) شبه المهلة التي هم فيها بالمضمار الذي يجرون فيه إلى الغاية فإذا بلغوا منقطعها انتقض نظامهم بعدها.

459. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Banū Umayyah (the Umayyads) have a fixed period (mirwad) wherein they are having their way. But when differences rise among them, even if the hyena attacks them, it will overpower them.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “Here, mirward is derived from irwad which means: to allow time, to wait for, to give a respite. It is an extremely eloquent and wonderful expression. It is as though Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام has likened the period of Banū Umayyah to a limited area meant for the training of horses for racing, a place where they are running towards the limit, so that when they reach its extremity, their organization is destroyed.¹

¹This is a prediction about the decline and fall of the Umayyads that proved true, word for word. This ruling dynasty was founded by Mu'āwiyah ibn Abū Sufyān and it was terminated by the death of Marwān ibn Muhammed al-Himār (“the donkey”) in 132 A.H. (749 A.D.) after a period of ninety years, eleven months and thirteen days. The Umayyad period was second to none in tyranny, oppression, cruelty and despotism. The despotic rulers of this period perpetrated such tyranny that it put blots on Islam, blackened the pages of history, injured the spirit of humanity and damaged the image of the creed and its followers. They allowed every kind of ruin and destruction only to retain power. They led armies into Mecca, set fire to the Ka'ba, made Medīna the victim of their brute passions and created streams of Muslim blood. At last, this bloodshed and ruthlessness resulted in rebellions and conspiracies from all sides against the Umayyads. The latter's own internal strife and agitation as well as infighting paved the way for their ruin. Although political unrest had set-in among them earlier, during the days of al-Walīd ibn Yazīd, open disturbances began to take place one after the other. On the other hand, Banū al-Abbās (the Abbāsids or Abbāsides) also started preparations [to take power from the Umayyads]. During the reign of Marwān al-Himār, they started a movement under the name of "Al-Khilāfah al-Ilāhiyya" (the Divine caliphate). For successful piloting of this movement, they appointed a military leader, namely Abū Muslim al-Khurāsāni who, in addition to his knowledge of political events and occurrences, was also an expert in the art of warfare. Making Khurāsān (in today's Iran) his base, he spread a whole net against the Umayyads and succeeded in bringing the Abbāsids to power. In the beginning, this man was quite unknown. It is for this reason, and for his humble status, that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام likened him and his associates to the hyena as this simile is used for modest and humble people.

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “This is a wonderful metaphor. It is as though Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام likens the rear part of the body to a bag and the eye to a strap. When the strap is let loose, the bag cannot retain anything. According to the well-known and reputed view, this is a saying of the Prophet ﷺ, but some people have stated that it belongs to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام. Al-Mubarrad has mentioned it in his book Al-Muqtadab in a chapter titled “Words of single letters”. We, too, have discussed this metaphor in our book titled Majazāt al-Āthār an-Nabawiyyah.

462. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said in one of his speeches: “A ruler came to power over them. He remained uncommitted and made them uncommitted till the entire religion put its bosom on the ground.”

٤٦٣ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): يَأْتِي عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ عَضُوضٌ يَعْصُ الْمُسِرُّ فِيهِ عَلَى مَا فِي يَدَيْهِ وَلَمْ يُؤْمَرْ بِذَلِكَ قَالَ اللَّهُ سُبْحَانَهُ وَلَا تَنْسُوا الْفَضْلَ بَيْنَكُمْ تَنْهَدُ فِيهِ الْأَشْرَارُ وَتُسْتَدَلُّ الْأَخْيَارُ وَيَبَايِعُ الْمُضْطَرُّونَ وَقَدْ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (صلى الله عليه وآله) عَنْ بَيْعِ الْمُضْطَرِّينَ.

463. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “A severe period will come to people wherein the rich will seize their possessions with their teeth (by way of miserliness) although they have not been commanded to do so. Allāh, the Glorified One, says: Do not forget generosity among yourselves (Qur’ān, 2: 237). During this time, the wicked will rise while the virtuous will remain low. Purchases will be made from the helpless, although the Prophet ﷺ has prohibited purchasing from the helpless.”¹ ¹Generally, purchases are made from helpless people in such a way that taking advantage of their need and necessity, things are purchased from them at unfarily cheap prices and are sold to them at high prices. No religion allows taking advantage of such helplessness and extreme need, nor is it ethically permissible to profiteer by taking advantage of others’ helplessness.

قال الرضي: وهذا مثل قوله (عليه السلام): هَلَكَ فِي رَجُلَانِ مُحِبٌّ غَالٍ وَمُبْغِضٌ قَالٍ.

464. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Two types of persons will fall into ruin on my account: One who loves me and exaggerates, and the other who lays on me false and baseless blames.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “ This is on the lines of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام own saying which runs thus: ‘Two categories of persons will be ruined on my account: One who loves me with exaggeration, and one who hates [me] and is a bearer of malice’.” The Holy Prophet ﷺ used often to urge and order the umma to love Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام, forbidding them from bearing any hatred towards him. Moreover, the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to regard love for Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام as the sign of faith (īmān) and hating him as the sign of hypocrisy (nifāq) (as we have already mentioned in a footnote above).

We would like to quote one of the traditions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ with regard to this subject. It has been narrated through fourteen companions that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever loves Ali, he surely loves me, and whoever loves me, he surely loves Allāh, and whoever is loved by Allāh, He will permit him to enter Paradise. Whoever hates Ali, he surely hates me, and whoever hates me, he surely hates Allāh, and whomsoever Allāh hates, He will surely let him enter the Fire. And whoever harms Ali, he surely harms me, and whoever harms me, he surely harms Allāh: Surely, those who harm [the Cause of] Allāh and His Messenger, Allāh has cursed them in the present life and in the one to come and has prepared for them a humiliating chastisement (Qur’ān, 33: 57), as we read in these references: Al-Mustadrak, Vol. 3, pp. 127 - 128, 130; Hilyat al-Awliyā’, Vol. 1, pp. 66 - 67; Al-Istī’āb, Vol. 3, p. 1101; Usd al-Ghāba, Vol. 4, p. 383; Al-Isābah, Vol. 3, pp. 496 -497, Majma’ az-Zawā’id, Vol. 9, pp. 108 - 109, 129, 131, 132, 133; Kanz al-’Ummāl, Vol. 12, pp. 202, 218 - 19, Vol. 15, pp. 95 - 96, Vol. 17, p. 70; al-Muhibb al-Tabari, Ar-Riyād an-Nadira, Vol. 2, pp. 166, 167, 209, 214 and Ibn al-Maghāzili, Al-Manāqib, pp. 103, 196, 382.

At the same time, the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to caution the umma against exaggerating with regard to love for Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام that exceeds the bounds of Islam. One who does so is called ghāli (extremist or excessive), In other words, such a person is anyone who believes that the Holy Prophet ﷺ or Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام or any Shī'ite Imām is a god, or attributes to them the special attributes of Allāh, or believes that the twelve Imāms عليه السلام are prophets, or makes any claim which they (the Holy Prophet and the Imāms) did not make about themselves.

On the contrary, the Holy Prophet ﷺ had also forbidden any offense or denigration concerning them (the Imāms). He used to blame those who make false and baseless accusations against them as well as those who hated and harbored malice against them.

It was for this reason that the Holy Prophet ﷺ sometimes used to refrain from mentioning some of the excellent qualities of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام as Jābir ibn Abdullāh al-Ansāri narrates: “When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام approached the Holy Prophet with the news of the conquest over Khaybar by himself (by Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib [ع]), the Holy Prophet ﷺ said to him: ‘O Ali! Had it not been for some groups of my umma who may say about you what the Christians say about `Īsa son of Maryam (Jesus son of Mary), I would have said (something) about you so that you would not pass before any Muslim but that he would seize the dust from the tracks of your feet to seek a blessing from it. But it suffices to say that you hold the same status in relation to me as Hārūn (Aaron) held in relation to Mūsa (Moses) except that there shall, in all certainty, be no prophet after me,’” according to Majma` az-Zawā'id, Vol. 9, p. 131; Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 5, p. 4, Vol. 9, p. 168, Vol. 18, p. 282; Manāqib Ali ibn Abū Tālib, Ibn al-Maghāzili, pp. 237 – 239; Manāqib Ali ibn Abū Tālib, al-Khawārizmi, pp. 75 - 76, 96, 220; Kifayat at-Tālib fi Manāqib Ali ibn Abū Tālib, al-Ganji, pp. 264 -265; Arjah al-Matālib, pp. 448, 454 and Yanābī` al-Mawadda of al-Zamakhshari, pp. 63 - 64, 130 - 131.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ had also informed the Muslim umma that there would appear two types of deviated groups among the Muslims who would exceed the bounds of Islamic principles with regard to understanding Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام as he himself has related: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ called on me and said: ‘O Ali! There is a resemblance between you and ‘Īsa son of Maryam (Jesus son of Mary) whom the Jews hated so much that they laid a false accusation against his mother, and whom the Christians loved so much that they assigned to him the status (of being a god) which is not his’”.

Then, Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام went on to say: “Beware! Two types of persons will fall into ruin on my account: One who loves (me) and praises me for what is not in me, and one who hates me and whose detesting me will lead him to any false and baseless accusation on me. Beware! I am not a prophet, and nothing has been revealed to me. But I act according to the Book of Allāh and the Sunnah of His Prophet as much as I can,” as we read in these references: Al-Musnad, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Vol. 1, p. 160; Al-Mustadrak, al-Hākim, Vol. 3, p. 123; Mishkāt al-Masābīh, Vol. 3, pp. 245 – 246; Majma’ az-Zawā’id, Vol. 9, p. 133; Kanz al-‘Ummāl, Vol. 12, p. 219, Vol. 15, p. 110; Tārīkh, Ibn Kathīr, Vol. 7, p. 356.

The above quoted statements of Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام have also been reported from the Holy Prophet ﷺ when he said the following to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام: “O Ali! Two types of people will fall into ruin on your account: One who loves you exceedingly, and liar is the one who attributes false things to you,” according to Al-Istī‘āb, Vol. 3, p. 1101.

Also, he said to him, “Two categories will be ruined on your account: One who loves you with exaggeration, and one who hates you and bears malice [against you],” as we read in Ibn Abul-Hadīd, Vol. 5, p. 6.

The famous scholar of tradition, ‘Amir ibn Sharahil ash-Sha’bi (19 – 103 A.H./640 – 721 A.D.), has confirmed this saying that these two categories of people have already appeared, and that both became disbelievers. They were annihilated, according to Al-Istī‘āb, Vol. 3, p. 1130 and Al-Iqd al-Farīd, Vol. 4, p. 312.

٤٦٥ - وَسُنِيَ عَنِ التَّوْحِيدِ وَالْعَدْلِ فَقَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): التَّوْحِيدُ أَلَّا تُتَوَهَّمَهُ وَالْعَدْلُ أَلَّا تُتْهَمَهُ.

465. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام was asked about the Unity of Allāh (Tawhid) and His justice (Adl). He replied: “Unity means that you do not subject Him to the limitations of your imagination, while justice means that you do not lay any blame on Him: His words, and He is the all-Hearing, the all-Knowing (Qur’ān, 6: 115).”

٤٦٦ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): لَا خَيْرَ فِي الصَّمْتِ عَنِ الْحُكْمِ كَمَا أَنَّهُ لَا خَيْرَ فِي الْقَوْلِ بِالْجَهْلِ.

466. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “There is no good in silence about matters involving wisdom just as there is no good in speaking with ignorance.”

467. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said the following in his prayer for rain: “O Lord! Send us rain by submissive clouds, not by unruly

¹The belief in the Unity of Allāh is not complete unless it is supported by belief in Allāh being free of all imperfections, that is, one should regard Him as being above the limitations of body, shape, place or time and should not subject Him to his own imagination and whims. This is so because the being who is contained by imagination and whims cannot be Allāh. Contrariwise, a creation of the human mind can. The field of mental activity remains confined to things which are seen and observed. Consequently, the greater one tries to appreciate Him through illustrations concocted by his mind or through his imaginative efforts, the more remote he will get from reality. In this regard, Imām Muhammed al-Bāqir عليه السلام says, “Whenever you contain Him in your imagination, He will not be Allāh but a creation like your own self and is revertible to you.” Justice means that whatever the form of injustice and inequity may be, it should be dissociated from Allāh, and He should not be given such attributes which are evil, useless and which the mind can in no way agree to attribute to Him. In this regard, Allāh says, “And perfect is the word of your Lord in truth and justice: There is none who can change your Lord’s words.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “This is an expression of wonderful eloquence, because Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام has likened the cloud, which is accompanied by thunder, lightning, wind and flashes with unruly camels that throw away their saddles and throw down their riders, likening the clouds that are free of these terrible things to the submissive camels that are easy to milk and obedient to ride.”

٤٦٨ - وَقِيلَ لَهُ (عليه السلام) لَوْ غَيَّرْتَ شَيْبَكَ يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام):
الْخِضَابُ زِينَةٌ وَتَحْنُ قَوْمٌ فِي مُصِيبَةٍ يُرِيدُ وَفَاةَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (صلى الله عليه وآله).

468. It was said to Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام once: “We wish you had dyed your gray hair, O Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام!” He said: “Dye is a way of adornment, whereas we are in a state of grief.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says in his comment that Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام is referring here to his grief at the demise of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

الْعَفِيفُ أَنْ يَكُونَ مَلَكًا مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ.

469. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “The fighter in the way of Allāh who is martyred will not get a greater reward than whoever remains chaste despite limited means. It is possible that a chaste person may even become one of the angels.”

٤٧٠ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): الْقَنَاعَةُ مَالٌ لَا يَنْقُذُ.

قال الرضي: وقد روى بعضهم هذا الكلام لرسول الله (صلى الله عليه وآله).

470. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “Contentment is a wealth that is not exhausted.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “Some people have narrated saying that this statement was made by the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.”

الْعَصْفَ وَالْحَيْفَ فَإِنَّ الْعَصْفَ يَعُودُ بِالْجَلَاءِ وَالْحَيْفَ يَدْعُو إِلَى السَّيْفِ.

471. When Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام put Ziyād ibn Abīh in place of Abdullāh ibn al-Abbās over Fars (part of Persia, today's Iran) and its revenues, he had a long conversation with him in which he prohibited him from conducting an early collection of the revenue. Therein he said: "Act on justice and stay away from violence and injustice: Violence will lead them to forsake their abodes, while injustice will prompt them to take up arms."

٤٧٢ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَشَدُّ الذُّنُوبِ مَا اسْتَخَفَّ بِهَا صَاحِبُهُ.

472. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "The worst sin is that which the one who commits it takes it lightly."

473. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "Allāh has not made it obligatory on the ignorant to learn till He has made it obligatory on the learned to teach."

٤٧٤ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): شَرُّ الْإِخْوَانِ مَنْ تُكَلِّفُ لَهُ.

قال الرضي: لأن التكليف مستلزم للمشقة وهو شر لازم عن الأخ المتكلف له فهو شر الإخوان.

474. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: "The worst comrade is he for whom formality has to be observed."¹

Sayyid ar-Radi says, "This is so because formality is inseparable from hardship, and it is an evil that is caused by a comrade for whom formality is observed. Consequently, he is the worst of all comrades."

¹A friendship based on love and sincerity frees one from ceremonial formalities, but the friendship for which formalism is necessary is unstable. Such a friend is not a true friend. True friendship requires that a friend should not be a cause of trouble for his friend. If he is a cause of trouble, he will prove tedious and harmful. This harmfulness is a sign of his being the worst of all friends.

٤٧٥ - وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): إِذَا احْتَشَمَ الْمُؤْمِنُ أَخَاهُ فَقَدْ فَارَقَهُ.

قال الرضي: يقال حشمه وأحشمه إذا أغضبه وقيل أخجله واحتشمه طلب ذلك له وهو مظنة مفارقتة.

وتقرر العزم كما شرطنا أولاً على تفضيل أوراق من البياض في آخر كل باب من الأبواب، ليكون لاقتناص الشارد، واستلحاق الوارد، وما عسى أن يظهر لنا بعد الغموض، ويقع إلينا بعد الشذوذ، وما توفيقنا إلا بالله عليه توكلنا، وهو حسبنا ونعم الوكيل.

475. Imām Ali ibn Abū Tālib عليه السلام said: “If a believer enrages (ihdashama) his brother, it means that he will leave him.”

Sayyid ar-Radi says, “It is said that hashamahu or ahshamahu means: ‘He enraged him’. According to another view, it means ‘He humiliated him’, while ihdashamahu means ‘He sought these for him’, and that is most likely to cause him to separate.”
